GOOD NEWS

"God is great, God is good, let us thank Him....."
"...for our food. By His hands we are fed. thank you God for our daily bread"
How familiar is this to so many of us? As a child we learned to pray this before each meal.
There are specific times most of us take time to pray daily. As we move into the month of November, thoughts of "Thanksgiving" become a focus. So let's try something, there are 25 days prior to Thanksgiving. Let's be intent with additional daily prayers giving thanks to God for all he has done for us. Clear our minds of our problems and focus on the many blessings we have been given. Who knows this may begin a new additional pattern of prayer for us all.

1 Thessalonians 5: 16-18 Rejoice always, pray continually, give thanks in all circumstances; for this is God's will for you in Jesus Christ

Sympathies

St. Luke offers our sympathies to Joseph Bedenbaugh and his children, Jaxson, Maddax, and Joanna on the death of their wife and mother, Annie Bedenbaugh on October 23, 2026. Annie was also the daughter-in-law of Mark and Lisa Bedenbaugh, and sister-in-law of Michael and Jessica Bedenbaugh, Katie Bedenbaugh, and Barbara Bedenbaugh. Brown-Pennington-Atkins will be assisting the family.

Prayer Concerns

Sara Buckles (in pain while awaiting hip replacement on December 2nd); Keith Crisler (friend of Iris McFarland's granddaughter, liver cancer); Jeff Sifford (foot surgery); Cindy Simmons (shoulder replacement); Mark Taylor (shoulder replacement)
