The Mud Pie King

A picture book for readers aged 4 to 8

NATHANAEL DEVLIN

A king was given gold from one hand and food from the other, and shared neither. When it was all taken away, mud was all he had left. Then a small girl wandered by, and laughed.

God and His Household

Overcoming Egalitarianism in the Evangelical Church

NATHANAEL DEVLIN

Drawing on Scripture, the Reformed tradition, and the largely forgotten wisdom of Lesslie Newbigin, Pastor Devlin traces egalitarianism from the garden to the modern pulpit, and charts a way back to a household ordered again under the sole headship of Christ.

Longing for Obedience

A Conversation with Eugene Peterson

NATHANAEL DEVLIN

In 2009, Nathanael Devlin wrote to Eugene Peterson and asked whether he would study alongside him. Peterson said yes. Four years of letters became an unplanned master class in the pastoral life.

Prayers for the Persecuted Church

The CREC provides us with a monthly update regarding the persecuted church globally. Using a variety of sources, the guide lists a daily, specific prayer request for a country or persecuted believer. Pick up your copy of "Standing in the Gap" at the media center in the A-level hallway.
