THIS WEEKEND'S GOSPEL MEDITATION

Matthew 25:1-13

My first instinct upon waking is to grab my phone and start scrolling. Sometimes I do it for twenty or thirty minutes, and it makes me feel distracted and agitated. I feel guilty, too, for wasting my first moments of the day. So recently, I committed those minutes to reading a book that would focus my mind on Jesus. I enjoy the fact that I am not scattering my attention as much. I feel more peaceful and focused on God.

In today's Gospel, Jesus speaks about attention. He contrasts wise and foolish virgins, and then sums up the teaching by saying, "Therefore, stay awake, for you know neither the day nor the hour" (Matthew 25:13). The basic currency of the human heart is attention. The foolish bridesmaids are not immoral or malicious; they are unfocused, distracted, and unprepared. They assume that borrowed oil will suffice, that someone else's readiness can make up for their own lack. But the attention which is love cannot be outsourced. A relationship with God requires personal attentiveness cultivated over time.

This Gospel leaves us with an honest question. What am I giving my attention to each day, and am I forming a heart that is awake, watchful, and ready to meet the Lord when He comes? How can I use key moments of my day to focus my attention where I need it to be?

— Father John Muir

PRAY WITH SCRIPTURE

Lectio Divina

15 minutes each day spent in God's presence – reading, reflecting, responding and resting with his Word – adds up to 90 hours in one year. That is time well spent and a testimony to how a little at a time turns into something remarkable!

Sunday, November 15th

Prv 31:10-13, 19-20, 30-31/Ps 128:1-2, 3, 4-5/1 Thes 5:1-6/Mt 25:14-30 or 25:14-15, 19-21

To find readings for the weekdays and/or Feast Days, please visit https://bible.usccb.org/bible/readings.

Reflection questions for Sunday, November 15th

• Proverbs explains how a kind, wise, and loving wife is an invaluable treasure to a husband. What qualities do you think make for a healthy and life-giving marriage?

• Paul urges the Thessalonians to remain focused on the return of our Lord Jesus Christ. Is there something that needs your urgent attention this week?

• In the Parable of the Talents, Jesus teaches the importance of investing in the gifts God has given each of us. What would others say are your God-given gifts?

READ. REFLECT. RESPOND. REST.

Cut out and keep in your Bible for reference!

Advent by Candlelight

Sponsored by St. Charles Women's Ministry

Advent and the Sacred Heart through Eucharistic Miracles

THURSDAY, DECEMBER 3, 2026 | 6:30 PM | BORROMEO HALL

Advent by Candlelight invites women to pause and prepare their hearts for the coming of Christ. Rather than focusing on all we must do for God, we'll be invited to simply be with Him, finding our true home and rest in the sanctuary of His Sacred Heart. In the midst of this crowded season, how can we make room for Him in our hearts and lives? Through warm fellowship, sweet treats, Advent songs, prayer, and a reflection on the love of Jesus revealed in Eucharistic miracles, we'll rediscover the peace of His presence and the true joy of preparing for His coming.

Registration is available by scanning the QR code or by visiting the parish website.
