

Same Demons. Different Day.
Jim Burgen
November 8th, 2026

// Bible References: Genesis 11:1–9, Deuteronomy 32:8–9, Romans 1:18–32, Psalm 82:6–8, Matthew 4:8–10, Acts 2:1–4, Romans 6:1–3, Matthew 28:18–20

// Community Question:

What is one area of life where you find it easy to trust God, and one where you tend to want to be in control?

// Discussion Questions

1. Genesis 11:1–9: At Babel, humanity chose to go against God's direction, and the result was confusion and division. Where do you see the effects of people living apart from God's design in our world today? How does that impact the way we view the world around us?

2. Romans 1:24–25: Paul describes how God allowed people to experience the consequences of rejecting Him. Why do you think God sometimes allows us to experience the consequences of our choices rather than immediately stepping in to change our circumstances? What can those experiences reveal about our need for Him?

3. Acts 2:1–8: At Pentecost, God began bringing people from different nations and backgrounds together through Jesus. Where have you seen God bring restoration, unity, or healing into a situation that seemed too broken to change? How did that experience impact your faith?

4. Matthew 28:18–20: Jesus calls His followers to go and make disciples of all nations. When you think about the people God has placed in your life, who might be far from Him or struggling to find their way back? What would it look like to intentionally pursue that person with the same grace and love Jesus has shown you?

// Challenge:

In Acts 2:37, after hearing the truth about Jesus, the people asked, “What shall we do?” They didn't just listen. They wanted to respond. This week, reflect on what God has been teaching you throughout this series. What is one truth that has challenged you but hasn't yet changed how you live? Identify one specific action you can take this week to put that truth into practice. Don't let what you've learned stay as information. Allow God's Word to change how you live.

// Prayer:

Father, thank You that even when humanity turns away from You, Your heart is to bring us back. Open our eyes to the spiritual battles around us and remind us of the victory we have through Jesus. Help us live in the freedom of Your truth, be led by Your Spirit, and take an active part in Your mission to bring people back into relationship with You. Amen.