Future of Meadowbrook Class - 9:30am - FC-5

Sunday, February 12: "What God Expects of Us" (Randy Monaghan)

Dear Meadowbrook family,

Thank you for your care and concern for me and my family during Ton's hospital stay and after. You have carried us. You showed your love through preparing meals for us, by praying for us (in our driveway, on our phones, in texts), and by calling and checking on us. We deeply appreciate the ladies who prepared and served the luncheon for our family and friends after Ton's Celebration of Life service. We are so very grateful for every kindness, and the beautiful peace lily with which you gifted us will serve as a reminder of this love. You have been our church family for 36+ years, and we have been very blessed.

Love from the Rietvelt Family

Are you bringing your kids to Bible classes? Deborah Asbill, Ryan Howard and myself are providing fantastic Bible lessons on Sunday mornings at 9:30am and on Wednesday nights at 6pm, Claudia Nisbett and Casi Tobia. These classes are so important for your children to develop a solid foundation of basic Bible knowledge.

Connections, children's worship, meet on Sundays at 10:45am. Connections is where our 4-year-olds thru 2nd graders get a review of what they learned in Bible class and participate in stations that emphasize how they can put the lesson into practice in their lives. Every week we also talk about our practice of sharing communion and what it means to follow Jesus. We give children the opportunity to give money and talk about ways Meadowbrook uses that money to help others.

Our nursery is a place where our babies 0-3 can play and learn with loving adults watching over them during the worship hour.

Once a month on Wednesday nights, our children will participate in a service project together with the larger congregation.

Children who attend are absorbing the knowledge and love of God. Don't miss these opportunities!

Wednesday Night, February 15 Dinner at 5:30pm

INTERGENERATIONAL SERVICE PROJECT 6:00pm

Everyone loves getting a package in the mail! This Wednesday we will be putting together care packages for our college students with all their favorite goodies! Our children will participate by coloring or drawing pictures and making a craft to include in the package. Adults can also continue to write notes to our Meadowbrook neighbors on pre-addressed post cards.

If anyone would like to make financial donations to help cover the cost of the care packages, that would be appreciated.

For January and February, Meadowbrook Youth Group will volunteer with either Sprouts, Sparks, or JAM for Sunday
