Sermon Outline:

1. Because God Providentially Guides, Protects and Preserves His Bride
2. We Must Seek the Welfare and Peace of His People

Questions:

1. Name some of the ways we see God's providence in this story.
2. What are some of the points of irony in the story? Where do we see "reversals" in the incredible story of Esther?
3. How do we see God providing for the welfare and peace of his people in this story?
4. How does God provide for our welfare and peace today?
5. The very last verse of this book tells us about how Mordecai sought the welfare and peace of God's people. How can you seek the welfare and peace of other Christians? What are some ways you can help NEPC seek the welfare and peace of other Christians?
