1	The ranking thing was hard, because I enjoyed most everything. I do think that "overplanning" topical presentations might not be as necessary as having some really interesting conversation starters for folks to share with one another. This is not a knock on any presentations at this event, though.	9/23/2022 1:44 PM
2	Yes. I would do a little less "group activities," and a little more of the "processing situations" and how we could advise each other to deal with things.	9/21/2022 9:55 AM
3	Yes. I liked this format. There was ample room for socialization and free time. In the future if there is going to be a specific focus on a theme, take mindfulness for example, I would place a time in the schedule every day where there is at least a group gathering offered for a guided time. Sometimes just being in that community helps me be more accountable to actually doing the thing we are being asked to do. Whether it's yoga every morning, or tea time, or even just a walk around the retreat center.	9/19/2022 12:13 PM
4	More group activities	9/19/2022 11:38 AM

1	If they were twice annually, it might be better to do one night's stay, even if it started at lunch and went through dinner the next day. Scheduling it for the same time every year has worked pretty well in previous presbyteries. It also seemed to work to start at Sunday dinner. The facility is fine, the food wasn't great.	9/23/2022 1:44 PM
2	Thank you to all who put in so much effort to make this happen. This was so good and I'd love to see us open it up to families if possible but also hire a speaker for a future retreat. Perhaps we could additionally have a fun presbytery-wide retreat/conference once a year at a hotel (with a pool/hot tub!) that we can invite all churches/members to but also have breakout clergy/cre-only parts. Maybe even at a place where we could have optional fun-tours/planned outings (brewery?!, boat?!, beach?!..). Maybe we could even have a joint hands-on mission we could do for one of our mission-partners or to help support a local mission of one of our churches.	9/21/2022 5:38 PM
3	Retreat was really great!	9/21/2022 1:51 PM
4	Is question #5 supposed to be a ranking?? Or rating from 1-7?? I did it as a ranking, so you can see what was most important and least important to me from my answers. lol (although I definitely still want meals involved)	9/19/2022 12:13 PM
5	It was a wonderful time to have a safe place to be together with other clergy's. Keep it up.	9/19/2022 11:38 AM
6	Let's get to planning the next one!	9/19/2022 10:24 AM
