① → We've spent a few weeks around the conversation of the Pharisee's Minimums and Jesus' (Kingdom) Maximums. → What does this mean? (cf: Luke 15:16:16-18)

Matthew 5:38-47

① → What is the "law" being presented here?

② → How is the law being interpreted by the people?

③ → How does Jesus fulfill this law? (Remember, as Jesus is using this word, fulfill first and foremost means to rightly interpret.)

④ → How does Jesus transform our understanding of this law?

⑤ → Can you remember a time when you have been "the other?" How did it feel? Did it resolve?

⑥ → Who is "Other" to you? → So, now what?

⑦ → Extra credit discussion: Terry has been saying: "We have to ask ourselves NOT, "Did I do the specific things in Jesus' illustrations?" but "Am I being the kind of person Jesus' illustrations are illustrations of?"

① What does this mean?

② What are the implications?

③ Does this mean that the Bible is not enough?
