(1850-1938)

Missions advocate and WMU's first National Executive Leader

Annie Armstrong Easter Offering
Week of Prayer: March 5—12
CHURCH GOAL: $7,500

“United: Called to be One”

MARCH MEMORY VERSE “Walk in wisdom toward them that are without,
redeeming the time.”
~Colossians 4:5, KJV

“If, then, there is any encouragement in Christ, if any consolation of love, if any fellowship with the Spirit, if any affection and mercy, make my joy complete by thinking the same way, having the same love, united in spirit, intent on one purpose.”

~Philippians 2:1-2

From my heart to yours:

Welcome, Jerry Hanchey

Jerry Hanchey is our new Church Administrator. He has been on the job for a couple of months, with former Administrators, Sharon Hensley and Betty Belin, stepping in to offer encouragement and support. Thank you, Sharon and Betty, for your love and commitment to the Lord in ministry through BRBC.

Jerry is a graduate of Troy State University (BS; MS), with a focus on Management and Personnel Management. He brings to the position a rich and varied background in business. Early on, he owned and operated his own poultry farm. He also has been involved in self-employed sales, a Driver Recruiter for a trucking firm, a Case Manager and Office Manager for the Division of Child Services in Georgia (17 years), and spent time in management with two automobile dealerships.

Our Administrator position is parttime, with Jerry primarily working Tuesday-Thursday each week, although he is available when needed.

Jerry and his wife, Charlotte, have been faithful members for nearly five years. They are involved in our music ministry (and sing duets in worship), our ministry to Children and Youth, and have served on committees. Currently, Jerry is our Chair of Deacons.

For recreation, Jerry plays golf and he and Charlotte used to ride motorcycles.

We look forward to fruitful years of service ahead with Jerry in this leadership role.

Annie Armstrong Offering

We are grateful for the ministry of the North American Mission Board (NAMB). This organization exists to help us evangelize our homeland, while the International Mission Board (IMB) centers on sharing Christ with the rest of the world.

It is time to receive our Annie Armstrong Offering for homeland missions. Our church goal is $7,500. I know you will want to give generously to this offering. A designated envelope is available in your box of envelopes or use .

Colossians Sermon Series

Since January 1, my Sunday morning sermons have been preached from Paul's Letter to the Colossians. Thank you for your gracious comments and responses to this series. Colossians contains four chapters. The first two are doctrinal, and deal with what God has done in Christ to save us from our sins. The other two chapters are ethical or practical and offer advice on living the Christian life. The remaining sermons are as follows:

Feb. 26, "Take Out the Garbage" (Col. 3:5-11);

March 5, "Put on New Clothes" (Col. 3:12-17);

March 12, "A Christian at Home and at Work" (Colossians 3:14-4:1);

March 19, "Learning to Pray and Witness" (Colossians 4:2-6);

March 26, "A Pictorial Directory of the Church" (Colossians 4:7-18).

I look forward to seeing you each Sunday with a Bible in your hand.

Sunday School

Post-Covid, our worship attendance has been climbing steadily. The same is not the case for Sunday School. If you are a drop-out, why not get back into weekly Bible Study? You also will experience fellowship in a group setting. I know you will be blessed.

Emergency Medical Situations

Your Pastors, Staff, and Deacons are ready to help you in times of crisis or emergency. But if you need to go to the ER of a hospital, please call 911. Liability and potential health issues are involved if one of us transports you. Specifically, we would not be equipped to help you during a critical event in transit. Besides, if you arrive by ambulance, the medical staff at the hospital probably will see you sooner. Of course, we are willing to meet you at home or the hospital to minister and pray with you.

Your Pastor,

Jon M. Stubblefield

SAVE DOLLARS ON YOUR TAXES WITH A QUALIFIED CHARITABLE DISTRIBUTION

A qualified charitable distribution (QCD) is a distribution made directly by the trustee of your individual retirement account (IRA), other than SEP or SIMPLE IRA, to an organization eligible to receive tax-deduction contributions.

You must be at least age 70 1/2 when the distribution is made.

You must have the same type of acknowledgment of your contribution that you would need to claim a deduction for a charitable contribution.

The maximum annual exclusion for QCDs is $100,000. If you file a joint return, your spouse also can have a QCD and exclude up to $100,000.

A QCD will count towards your required minimum distribution.

If all the requirements are met, a QCD is non-taxable, but you can't claim a charitable contribution deduction for a QCD.

The donations can be annually or monthly and for the Budget or a Designated Account.

For more information contact your accountant or the church office.

MEN'S FELLOWSHIP GUEST SPEAKER ON MARCH 11 AT 8:00 AM

Congressman Bruce Westerman is the U. S. Representative for Arkansas's 4th congressional district.

Congressman Westerman was raised in and resides in Hot Springs. He is a graduate of Fountain Lake High School and the University of Arkansas in Fayetteville where he was on the Razorbacks football team. He graduated with a Bachelor of Science in engineering and subsequently received a Master's Degree in forestry from Yale University.

We invite you and your friends to come to our Breakfast and Fellowship on Saturday, the 11th of March at 8:00 AM for a delicious menu of egg/sausage casserole, bacon, biscuits and gravy, fruit and sweet breads.

"Pursue righteousness, godliness, faith, love, fortitude, and gentleness." 1 Timothy 6:11b

Life Support by Candace Calvert - Nurse Lauren Barclay put her life on hold to keep a watchful eye on her troubled sister. It's why she's back in Houston. But that means confronting the brooding physician assistant who caused painful turmoil in her family—and left Lauren with memories her heart can't forget. PA and single parent Elijah Landry is no stranger to stormy relationships, including one with his father, who is threatening him with a restraining order. It won't stop Eli from protecting his disabled brother— or from making peace with Lauren. He wants that and so much more. But as Lauren and Eli draw closer, a powerful hurricane roars toward Houston. Survival instincts take priority and everything changes. Can hope weather the storm?

Change of Heart by Courtney Walsh -When a public scandal upends Evelyn Brandt's neatly constructed life, she's launched on a journey of self-discovery. She finds a new start in the most unlikely place—a picturesque Colorado farm, owned by her estranged friend, Trevor Whitney. Trevor promised his dying father he'd take care of the farm. He has his hands full trying to make good on that promise. The last thing he needs is Evelyn living in his guest house, unearthing old feelings and long-kept secrets. Trevor's unexpected kindness pushes Evelyn to reclaim her dreams, but it also leaves her with many questions, and he's never been one for sharing. If the truth is finally revealed, will it only drive them apart again, or is a change of heart too much to hope for?

DVD

The Current - Teen-ager Jake deals with the loss of the familiar when he moves from a big city to a campground that his family has been hired to manage. Little does he know, he will have even bigger challenges and losses ahead of him. Thanks to a friend who shares his faith, Jake is able to depend on his newfound faith through tough times. The story contains friendship, romance, tragedy, pain, joy and hope.

Don't forget that we have free books and DVDs! Also, if you are in need of a greeting card, look in the back room of the library for a great selection of free ones!
