

Sixth Sunday After the Epiphany

February 12, 2023

Pastor's Corner for February 12-18

The Law's "S.O.S" (Matthew 5:21-37)

There are two ways you can think about the Law in light of the Christian faith. Is God's Law a kind of check list with rules to be followed... or is it more like a mirror that shows us where we've gone wrong?

To discover Jesus' answer to that question this week, just listen as He says this: "You have heard that it was said to those of old, 'You shall not murder; and whoever murders will be liable to judgment.' But I say to you that everyone who is angry with his brother will be liable to judgment." Or this: "You have heard that it was said, 'You shall not commit adultery.' But I say to you that everyone who looks at a woman with lustful intent has already committed adultery with her in his heart." Checklist or mirror? The "S.O.S" the Law brings, Jesus is saying, is that it shows our sins. Many people of His day saw God's Law as a list of rules that a practically perfect person could check off, one by one. According to that way of thinking, the Law was less an instrument of God to elicit an "SOS" in us and more of a way to maintain appearances and give oneself a good old pat on the back.

Jesus' Word to us today is discomfoting. It would be easier for us to explain away our anger with our neighbor as "righteous indignation." It would be easier to explain away the "second look" (cf. Billy Graham's definition of looking at another person with lustful intent: "You cannot help the first look... but the second is a sin") as little more than a "natural urge." Jesus won't let us get away with either of those. According to Him, right and wrong is not merely a matter of outward, criminal actions. It is also reflected in what we say. It is manifested even in the thoughts of the heart that lead to actions we regret later.

All of which is to say that the "SOS" of God's Law leads us to desire and pursue the "SOS" of God's promises in Christ... promises "showing our Savior," which Jesus has already delivered in His sermon: "Blessed are those who mourn... blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness... blessed are you" (5:4-11). When we know our need for a Savior and truly see our Savior with the eyes of faith— that is where true blessing is found! We are forgiven sinners!

Thank heaven that even though Jesus doesn't let us get away with thinking we are "practically perfect in every way," He nevertheless leads us to life with the promises that no one but our loving God can make. Today we hear the SOS of our hearts as we not only see our sins... but more importantly see our Savior!

This Is the Church: Conversations around the Basics of the Christian Faith, Begin February 25

Three 90-minute gatherings on Saturday mornings (9:30 AM to 11 AM, February 25, March 4, and March 11) will focus on the basics of what Christians believe and how the Christian faith can be understood in distinction from other world religions. If you're interested in signing up, please click here. Our group will meet in Room 151 of the Family Life Center.

Epiphany peace and joy,
Pastor Jonathan

Resurrection Lutheran School Principal Call Update

Dear RLS Family,

I want to share the latest update as it relates to the recent Call that was extended to Heather Lowing. I have provided her response below as it speaks for itself. While we are disappointed in Heather's decision, it was not unforeseen.

Thank you for your prayers as I prayed over the calls from Resurrection Lutheran and Trinity Lutheran in Delray Beach, Florida. One specific Bible verse kept appearing during this process, which also happens to be one of my favorite verses, "For I know the plans I have for you, declares the Lord, plans to prosper you and not to harm you, plans to give you hope and a future." Jeremiah 29:11. This verse was one I really clung to during the process of listening to God's plan for me.

After several weeks of prayer and consideration, I have made the difficult decision to decline the call to Resurrection Lutheran School in Cary, North Carolina. This decision is the most difficult decision I have made in my professional career.

As I sought discernment, I wanted to make sure that I was truly listening to God's plan for me and my family. Resurrection Lutheran checked so many boxes on my personal list and there is always excitement partnering with new people for the Lord's work. As I prayed for clarity, God continued to show me that His plans pointed me back to my unfinished projects at Trinity.

As much as I am disappointed in not becoming part of the Resurrection Lutheran faculty, I have peace knowing God's plan for Resurrection is a great one.

Thank you for all the prayers, calls, emails and text messages for not only the call, but also for my husband's healing. Your love and concern made it that much harder to decline. I will be praying that God's plans for Resurrection are clear in the upcoming months as you continue to seek a principal.

*In Christ,
Heather Lowing*

Resurrection Lutheran will now assemble the necessary documents to issue a Divine Call to our other candidate, Mr. Jonathan Fraker, Principal at Epiphany Lutheran Church and School, Houston, Texas, to become the new Principal of Resurrection Lutheran School. Your continued prayers and support are appreciated as we confidently continue our search for a full time Principal.

Peace and Joy in Christ,
Robert Unger, Interim Principal

Sanctity of Life

A prayer from Portals of Prayer:

"Creator God, thank you for the gift of life. Comfort those who feel as if their life doesn't matter. Bring to repentance those who believe some lives are not worth protecting. Bless all organizations that help people choose life for their unborn children. Forgive those who are grieved by their past sins against life. In the name of Your Son, Jesus Christ, who died on the cross to give us new life. Amen.

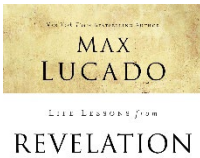

Sunday, February 12 is approaching; that is the last day to turn in your baby bottle, which is overflowing with your love for life. If you are returning a bottle, place it in the box with a hole in its cover. Also remember, if you are paying by check, the check should be payable to Gateway Women's Care.

Above all, keep the unborn and their parents in your prayers.
