

Third Sunday of Easter

April 23, 2023

Pastor's Corner for April 23-29

A "Quieter" Easter Story (John 20:19-32)

I don't know about you, but when I think about encountering Jesus risen from the dead I usually think of peals of thunder and a full orchestral soundtrack in the background. Think earthquakes rumbling and angels rolling back stones... that sort of stuff. Today we have a different, quieter take on Easter. We find two disciples of Jesus, walking downcast and somber, wondering what the death of the One they followed could possibly mean. Church tradition tells us that one of these disciples (Cleopas) might have been the brother of Jesus' own adopted father Joseph. The torture and crucifixion of Jesus might have been, for him, an event inflicted on a dear family member and friend. Could Cleopas and this other unnamed disciple be leaving Jerusalem because they have just attended Jesus' funeral? We do not know. We DO know that— unbeknownst to them— Jesus has risen from the dead. There just are no angels and trumpets around to announce the fact. In their case, the risen Jesus just sort of shows up. He walks along with them on their journey, unrecognized, as they process their grief.

When I was a child, I remember a print of the painting telling the story of Jesus' resurrection appearance to two downcast friends ("Gang nach Emmaus," now in the public domain), hung on my grandparents' living room wall. I somehow never knew then that the two men walking along and talking with Jesus were grieving. The painting is full of light. The green growth of spring is everywhere! But you have to wonder, as you read about Cleopas and the other disciple in our text, if the spectacular spring foliage and promise of new life depicted in the painting might be lost on the two of them. Similarly, in the middle of real-world pain today, the Easter celebration might sound a little bit like noise and "happy talk," to some. Yet the crucified and risen Jesus can and does show up, even (especially!) where people are a bit deaf to the news that He lives. He might go unrecognized for a while. And it might be in His visible DISAPPEARANCE that folks stop looking for Him and start listening more closely, instead. After all, that's what happened to Cleopas and that other disciple. No longer seeing Jesus, but witnessing His blessing and breaking of bread, they remembered His teaching. Did they also call to mind His Words spoken over ordinary bread and wine with the 12, a few days prior: "Given for you... shed for you, for the forgiveness of your sins"? Even those who are weary with life and heartbroken by the losses life brings might just stop and say: "Wait a minute! Weren't our hearts burning when... He opened to us the Scriptures?" This quiet and patient Jesus lives. This unrecognized Lord of the journey is also the risen and victorious Savior who has defeated death and hell. Forever.

Easter, of course, isn't just a day on the calendar. It is a new reality that makes the journey for us and those we know an opportunity to listen to Jesus, even when we don't immediately experience Him as the victorious Lord He is. This week, we invite Him again to stay with us. We listen to Him. We enjoy fellowship with Him. And we receive His comfort in the face of life's losses and disappointments. Jesus is risen! He is with us... always!

In-Person Offering Submissions

At RLC, we are so grateful for the offerings and tithes offered up to God from RLC friends and family, week after week! For several weeks now, we've been asking that worshippers desiring to submit an offering in person do so before the service begins, in the offering plates/baskets positioned just inside the door (main sanctuary) or outside the door (Family Life Center) of our worship spaces. That's because last weekend we started presenting these offerings at the altar in our worship services as a reminder that all we have is a gift from God's hand. It is our hope and prayer that once we have adequate coverage for ushers, we might eventually resume traditional offering collections before the Prayer of the Church in all services. In the meantime, we invite everyone submitting in-person offerings to do so before the service begins. If you forget, or arrive late, you are, of course, free to leave your offering in the offering plates/baskets that remain at the entrance to the sanctuary or Family Life Center. Thank you for all you do as stewards of God's good gifts.

Church Pulse Survey Feedback Response, Part 2

Several weeks ago, I responded to two of the insights raised by RLC members who took the Church Pulse survey. This week I'd like to revisit a few more comments and let you know what we are doing either in anticipation of, or in response to, your suggestions:

- The need to get the word out about being a church that is "in the Word." While two respondents shared gratitude that the 9:30 worship service now overlaps with Sunday School, two other respondents expressed dissatisfaction with the Sunday-morning schedule approved by the congregation in 2021 that called for Sunday School and Adult Bible class to overlap with the 9:30 worship service. No longer having a "stand alone" slot for Sunday School has presented a challenge for folks accustomed to enjoying fellowship on Sunday mornings during the Bible Study hour. This was made more difficult during COVID, when we were no longer able to meet for Wednesday Night Workshop dinners. And worship volunteers (especially musicians) are often penalized from attending Sunday morning Bible class when their responsibilities for worship are for both 8 AND 9:30 AM. All of that said, I am committed to ensuring that...

- Our options for Adult Bible class offerings continue to be robust (we currently have five weekly studies underway, not including our Sunday morning class) once programming gears up in the fall of 2023;
- We have increased opportunities for fellowship once a week, outside of Sunday mornings, in 2023-2024, compared to what we were able to do from 2022-2023;
- The possibility for either livestream or recorded video captured from Fellowship Hall events (including the weekly 9:30 Adult Bible Class) be a part of our conversation on long-term planning for facility use, moving forward.
- Simplification of church bulletin in both print and virtual formats. Several respondents suggested doing something to alleviate the need for two devices (one for the livestream and one for the bulletin) for viewing church services remotely. Our goal is to ensure that worship content is added to the livestream, alleviating the need for a separate bulletin for those viewing online. An abbreviated bulletin would still be made available for in-person worshippers. The transition should occur sometime before summer, 2023.
- Monthly calendar for church events is available on our church website (click here to view). Responses on the Church Pulse survey and conversations I've had with several of you indicate some confusion about where the church calendar is located. You need not log into the church to view the calendar. It is available in the upper right corner of our church home page when viewed from a desktop computer. It is also the third item listed in the pop up viewed by clicking the three lines in the upper corner of the church home page (rlcary.org) of your smartphone. The other calendar you sometimes see inside of RCB is populated by specific events from groups you belong to, so may often appear to be blank.

We are all so grateful for your honest feedback and comments. Please feel free to share them at any time... even without a churchwide survey underway!

Easter tide peace and joy,
Pastor Jonathan

CLI Prison Alliance

Anyone can have an impact for Christ in the prisons by giving financially to Christian Library Int'l Prison Alliance. Your gifts help disciple inmates with Bible studies and Christian books. Shipping and postage are major expenses. Last year, financial gifts from partners allowed CLI to ship more than 400,000 books and Bibles, and also provided 23,000 Bible study lessons. Stop at the table in the Narthex to become a partner.

Paul Jimenez from CLI will be at the Saturday 6:00 pm and Sunday 8:00 am services this week to tell us more about the ministry, and a video will be shown at the 9:30 am and 11:00 am Sunday services.

See firsthand how you can make a difference by signing up to volunteer at the CLI office on April 29 for Operation InAsMuch. Our church bus will be used to transport the group.

Adult Sunday School Class
Poetry and Our Christian Faith

Poets have often addressed the key issues of life, such as love, faith, hope, grief, and death. This series of lessons will examine some of the world's greatest poems and will use them as springboards to examine what the Scriptures have to say on the same topics. Included in this study will be poems by Emily Dickinson, William Shakespeare, Elizabeth Barrett Browning, Dylan Thomas, T.S. Eliot, and William Butler Yeats.

Join us on Sunday mornings from 9:30-10:30 am in the Fellowship Hall from March 5-May 14!

You will want to bring your Bibles to each class. Copies of the poems will be distributed at each session. Led by Larry Cameron.

THANK YOU!

Marty and Mindy Stephani wish to extend a heart-felt “thank you” to everyone within the hearing of this announcement. From all the people who visited him at Wake Med where all 4 surgeries were conducted, to those who visited him at the hospital and at Rex Rehab in Apex, to those who brought him various snacks including spicy peanuts, homemade chocolate chip cookies, fruitcake, and cheeseburgers to those who came and were with him waiting for physical therapy to be over, to Tim Hiteshew's construction team who came and brought materials and constructed the other half of the ramp so that he could be pushed inside the house on the wheelchair and walker to the MANY people who phoned their greetings to the many people who visited him in person, to those who continue to send "get well" and greeting cards, to the men who have picked him up for Monday night men's study, Bagel Bunch, Saturday morning men's breakfast to those who brought homemade vegetable beef soup WE THANK YOU.

It's been wonderful to be at the receiving end of your love and support. To thank you INDIVIDUALLY would have been very difficult so we hope that this message of thankfulness will find all of you. He still is getting physical therapy and nurse visits at home. The most recent doctor visits (surgeon/orthopedist and GP) have told us that he is healing very well. He is very anxious to be able to drive his truck once more and ride his lawn mower in a couple weeks! Thank you! We love you all.
