

Fourteenth Sunday After Pentecost

September 3, 2023

Pastor's Corner for September 3-9

Real Christians (Romans 12:9-21)

Have you seen the show How I Met Your Mother? It's a sitcom from the 2000's about a group of friends in their 20's and 30's struggling to survive in New York City. They didn't all grow up in NYC, so in one episode they argue over what makes a real New Yorker. You're not a real New Yorker, they argue, until... you cry in the subway, steal a cab from someone, kill a cockroach with your bare hand, etc. Now I've never been to NYC, so I have no idea if any of these things are true, but you get the idea.

I wonder what that list would look for “real North Carolinians”, I’m sure I would have a low score, though with time and experience I hope that score would improve! Throughout the summer we’ve been reading through the book of Romans in church. This weekend is Romans 12:9-21, which sounds like an episode of How I Met Your Mother, “You’re not a real Christian until _____.” In my ESV Bible, there’s even a subheading that says, “Marks of the True Christian” and as I read through these verses, I quickly start to wonder, “am I a true Christian?”.

These 13 verses sound like a list of do’s and don’ts that belong in the Old Testament. The list goes on and on; “let love be genuine”, “be patient in tribulation, be constant in prayer”, “bless and do not curse”, “weep with those who weep”, “do what is honorable.” Reading these I can’t help but think of all the times I’ve failed to do any of these “marks of a true Christian.” If this was a list of what we have to do to be a real Christian, I’d say it would be easier to be a real New Yorker!

So, what do we do about it? Do we throw it all away because it’s impossible? Do we try harder to be “real Christians?” We can’t fall into either of these two categories, instead, when we are left floundering with questions such as these, when we are fearful of our own ability to be a real Christian we have to immediately turn to Christ. What has He done when we can’t do anything?

“Therefore, since we have been justified by faith, we have peace with God through our Lord Jesus Christ. Through Him we have also obtained access by faith into this grace in which we stand, and we rejoice in hope of the glory of God.” (Romans 5:1-2)

We don’t make ourselves real Christians, it is the work of Christ creating faith within us that makes us real Christians. We can do nothing to obtain that identity, it is all the work of our Savior and once He has done that work, nobody can take it away from us. It’s an eternal work, an everlasting work, a God work. Now, having been made real Christians by the blood of Christ, we are free to live out (Romans 12:9-21).

Freed from our sin and our failures, we are continually learning what it means to be real Christians together. We have lots of opportunities to grow in that learning with our fall events starting this week! Check out our schedule found below to see where God is calling you to grow with us by God's grace.

Your (growing) brother in Christ,
Pastor Zach Sarrault

The church office will be closed on Monday, September 4 for Labor Day.

Join us as we start again on Tuesday, September 5

God gives His Word to instruct, guide, and bless our lives. The Scripture lessons in worship offer a menu every week to build up the people of God in faith and hope. We will study the lessons for the following Sunday, and as we do, we expect that this Word will enrich and edify our community prayer, faith, and servant life in Christ. Led by Pastor Jonathan Blanke and Pastor Zach Sarrault.

Mama Bear Apologetics... Also for Papa Bears

We will offer two identical sessions each week:

Tuesdays, 2:00-3:00 pm in the Fellowship Hall or

Wednesdays, 6:00-7:00 pm in Room 240, Family Life Center.

Learn how to raise kids who think critically, love Biblically, and stand firm against the cultural tide. This book study will equip you to teach your kids how to affirm Biblical beliefs about what is true and what is false. Through transparent life stories and clear, practical applications—including prayer strategies—these Mama Bears offer you tools to train yourself, so you can turn around and train your kids.

Please purchase the Mama Bear Apologetics book. You will want to attend if you have your own children or grandchildren, want to have children one day, or interact with children on a regular basis - anyone that has an intentional relationship with kids is encouraged to join us. Led by Pastor Zach Sarrault and Erika Hulse.

Anxious for Nothing: Finding Calm in a Chaotic World

September 6-October 18

This 7-week study will be based on Max Lucado's Anxious for Nothing: Finding Calm in a Chaotic World. This program is based on Philippians Chapter 4 and provides people with a roadmap for overcoming anxiety and finding lasting peace. While anxiety is a part of life, it doesn't have to dominate our lives. We will explore the biblical prescription for anxiety, which is celebrating God's goodness, asking for His help, leaving your concerns with Him, and meditating on good things.

Led by Mindy Stephani and Tim Kearby. Participant guides will be available for a suggested donation of $8 each.

Come and discover a life of calm and develop tools for combating the onslaught of worry in this chaotic age in which we live. Join us on Wednesdays, 6:30-7:45 pm, in Fellowship Hall during Wednesday Night Workshop starting September 6!

Grace-full Women

September 6-October 18

Grace-full Women is a course meant to reassure us each week of all that Christ has done, is doing, and will do for us. Studying the Law and Gospel, as seen through the Scriptures, reveals both our dependence on Grace, as well as His promises, and brings us this blessed assurance.

The format of each session will be to watch and discuss selections from the 1517.org video series "Law & Gospel Devotional." Some of these selections are entitled: "Why the Law Cannot Save," "The Cross Alone is Our Theology," "What Can Separate You From the Love of God," and "Psalm 23 - The Means by Which God Takes Care of His Sheep."

Led by Shane Jarvis. No additional materials or preparation are needed. Simply come ready to receive the Good News and depart full of Grace on Wednesdays, 6:30-7:45 pm, in Room 251, Family Life Center.

Men with Kids

September 6-September 27 (Initial Study)

Men with Kids returns on Wednesday, September 6 at 6:30 pm in Room 247, Family Life Center with a study of Fatherhood with Joel Biermann.

Fatherhood is more than providing half the genetic material at conception; it's being there for the long haul. In Fatherhood with Joel Biermann, the Concordia Seminary professor and dad relates how being a father is a demanding pursuit with a heavenly goal-raising kids who know Jesus as their Lord and Savior. Few things in life can be more intimidating than taking on the role of fatherhood. Whether it's a planned event or one of life's little surprises it demands our full attention and a commitment to put our all into it. This Men's NetWork Bible study addresses the challenges in being loving and Christ-like fathers to our families, especially in a society that frequently portrays dads as buffoons and ill-equipped to care for themselves, much less their kids.

Sunday Adult Christian Education

Join us on Sunday mornings from 9:30-10:30 am in the Fellowship Hall from September 10-November 12!

Meant for Good: A Study of Joseph

A devotional journey through the life of Joseph, Genesis 30-50.

Everyone remembers Joseph from Sunday School days! But how often have you stopped to think about Joseph's life as a kind of "spiritual boot camp" that parallels your own? As author Donna Snow writes, "The amazing truth about God's spiritual boot camp (basically, our whole life) is that He never leaves us. Ever. ... In Joseph, we see Christlike qualities and parallels to apply to our Christian walk. We can choose to become victims of our circumstances, or we can trust God to bring beauty from ashes every single time. Joseph's biography occupies more space in Genesis than those of Adam, Noah, Abraham, or even Joseph's own father, Jacob. Even though that should be reason enough to study Joseph's incredible journey, he also experiences family conflict and unfair treatment, which many of us can relate to today. ... Perhaps you and I can relate to waterless pits and unfairness in our lives. By the end of the story, God uses Joseph to provide invaluable insights regarding how to live out wise, bold journeys of faith in our everyday Christian walk."

This study is accompanied by an optional daily devotion throughout the week that builds on the conversations we have on Sundays. If you're looking for an opportunity to be immersed in God's Word and enjoy conversation on important topics with your faith family at Resurrection, now is your chance!

This book is published by Concordia Publishing House and written by Donna Snow. 10 books have been purchased for $15/book. You may either buy your book at church or purchase your own from the CPH website for $17/each (not including shipping). Caution: This study is different from the book of a similar title authored by Megan Marshman on Amazon.

Team led by Pastor Jonathan Blanke and Pastor Zach Sarrault. Questions? Contact the church office (919-851-7248, office@rlcary.org).

Monday Night Women's Bible Study

September 11-October 30

God's Provision in a Wilderness World

by Lindsay Hausch

Join us in person at church on Mondays, 7:00-8:00 pm, starting on September 11 in Room 151, Family Life Center. We will also have a Zoom group available at the same time on Monday evenings.

An eight-week Bible study, God's Provision in a Wilderness World explores sections of the Book of Exodus and applies them to the here and now, for readers on their own journey through their own wilderness. Readers are left with the message that despite life circumstances, despite the readers' own wildernesses that are out of their control and difficult, God will deliver them from their wilderness.

Books are available through christianbook.com, cph.org, or Amazon. Amazon also has the book available in the Kindle store.

Questions? Contact Jamee Thieme through RCB or the church office (919-851-7248, office@rlcary.org).

Nurturing Your Faith: Identity

September 11-October 2 (Initial Study)

Our identity as forgiven children of God is explored in Nurturing Your Faith: Identity. This four-part Video Bible study is hosted by Rev. Dr. John Nunes. He examines how as Christians – forgiven for Jesus' sake – we are reconciled to God. Reborn to fellowship and active community, we are inspired to praise God for His great love.

Bagel Bunch continues to meet Tuesdays, 7:30 am at Java Jive, across from the church.

Questions? Contact Tom Gebbia at mens-ministry@rlcary.org.
