

Twenty-Fourth Sunday After Pentecost

November 12, 2023

Pastor's Corner for November 12-18

The Day of the Lord Is Near (Zephania 1:7-16)

There are times when you hear a Bible reading in church and you can't help but wonder why that one was read. It might be confusing, scary, intimidating, cause people to wonder or doubt the faith, or illicit anger. Well, this Sunday you will hear one such Bible passage read in church. Zephania 1:7-16 (stop reading this and read that!) is far from the gospel-filled Bible passages that we all enjoy, but it will be read aloud for all to hear.

Why read such Bible passages if there seems to be no good news? For starters, it is still God's Word, even if we don't want to hear it. All of Scripture, from Genesis to Revelation, is the never-ending (Matthew 24:35), always working (Isaiah 55:10-11) Word from the very mouth of God (Hebrews 4:12; Revelation 1:16), even the parts that we would rather avoid. So, what do we do with a passage like ours from Amos?

We remember that we read passages such as these through the lens the cross, in the scope of the whole Scripture. Just because this reading is in the Old Testament, doesn't mean that the New Testament doesn't apply. We are God's Easter People (which doesn't negate the Old Testament) and the empty, Easter tomb matters in everything, especially in uncomfortable passages like this.

"The sound of the day of the Lord is bitter... a day of wrath is that day." Amos warns. But why, we may ask, is the day of Jesus' return bitter? Our Epistle reading (1 Thessalonians 5:1-11) calls us to encourage one another toward the day of Jesus' return. Which is it? Look toward it with fear and trembling or with encouragement and hope?

Remember, you are Easter people! We do look forward for the return of Christ because our works do not determine our place in eternity. If we were dependent upon our works for our eternal home, then we would absolutely fear the day of the Lord. No one who depends on their own works for eternity should desire the day of the Lord. Instead, we look to the One who has won for us our place in eternity. The One who was silent before the Father, a prepared sacrifice, endured darkness, and took upon Himself the wrath of God (Zeph. 1:7, 15). Jesus Christ is the One who went to the cross, enduring the dark night that overshadowed the whole land (Luke 23:44) and was abandoned by God (Mark 15:34) all so that we might be with Him for all eternity.

Remember, you are Easter people! Christ has conquered the darkness that would separate us from the Father. Christ has killed our sin that would damn us for all eternity. Christ has destroyed the devil and all his lies that seek to pull us from God's Kingdom. When we read these words from Zephania, yes, we certainly mourn over the judgement that those without faith may face, but we are also spurred on to spread the Good News of a God who died and rose from the grave for them. We are thankful for the Lord who has claimed us as His own and we are bold to stand before the Father because of the death and resurrection of the Son.

Your brother in Christ,
Pastor Zach Sarrault

Prayers of the Church

Fall is typically a time that churches focus on topics related to Christian stewardship... and November is a month we give thanks to God for the rich abundance we receive from His hand. I invite you to reflect on these topics and consider where God is leading you to give in 2024 by filling out and returning your “pledge” in preparation for our Stewardship Weekend on November 11-12.

If you are attending service in person, please bring your pledge card with you or fill out extra copies made available when you worship that day.

To submit your pledge online, please complete the form here.

There is no need to include your name... this is a pledge that is between you and your loving Savior, alone.

The third season of the groundbreaking television show, The Chosen, picks up with how Jesus' followers apply His teaching to their lives.

Tuesday Morning Bible Study and Fellowship

This ongoing study meets Tuesdays, 10:30-11:30 am in the Fellowship Hall and is led by Pastors Jonathan and Zach.

God gives His Word to instruct, guide, and bless our lives. The Scripture lessons in worship offer a menu every week to build up the people of God in faith and hope. We will study the lessons for the following Sunday, and as we do, we expect that this Word will enrich and edify our community prayer, faith, and servant life in Christ.

Mama Bear Apologetics... Also for Papa Bears

Join us for this ongoing book study! There are two identical sessions each week - Tuesdays, 2:00-3:00 pm or Wednesdays, 6:00-7:00 pm in Room 240, Family Life Center. Contacts: Pastor Zach Sarrault, Erika Hulse

Learn how to raise kids who think critically, love Biblically, and stand firm against the cultural tide. This book study will equip you to teach your kids how to affirm Biblical beliefs about what is true and what is false. Through transparent life stories and clear, practical applications –including prayer strategies– these Mama Bears offer you tools to train yourself, so you can turn around and train your kids.

Christ and Culture

Join us for a study of Christ and Culture on Wednesdays, 6:30-8:00 pm from October 25-December 13 in the Fellowship Hall. Contact: Pastor Jonathan Blanke

This 7-week guided conversation on the relationship between Christ and Culture, introduced by Dr. Jon Diefenthaler, former LCMS Southeastern District President and Concordia Seminary scholar, of H. Richard Niebuhr and his classic book. We will discuss: How has the Christian church understood the relationship between Christ and culture historically? How do we understand that relationship today? What does all of this mean as we strive to live out the Gospel of Christ and serve our God who is King of both the "secular" realm as well as the realm of the Church? We will probe these questions using the context of current events.

Kids Against Hunger

Saturday, November 18 from 10:00 am-12:00 pm

Family Life Center Gym

Want to have fun and help kids who are hungry?

All families are invited to join in a food packaging event. The mission of Kids Against Hunger is to feed families around the world who are hungry.

How does it work?

Participants make an assembly line on two sides of a 10-foot table. Using a funnel between the first four people, each of the four will add a scoop of their ingredient (rice, beans, spices, etc.), then pass the bag to the next person in the assembly line for sealing and labeling of the bag. Finally, bags are packed in cardboard boxes for shipping. All supplies are provided! Check out this video!

Parents and children of all ages are invited to participate.

- Children, age 7 and older with their parent or responsible adult, may help bag the food in an assembly line that ends with a sealed bag of dry food.
- Children younger than 7 years old will decorate the boxes that hold the bags of packaged food. There will be adult supervision for this age group of children.

The Christmas Store Toys for Children

We are excited again to partner with The Christmas Store Toys For Children and our trees are up!

The Christmas Store exists to provide the gift of new toys at Christmas to children in low-income families by engaging volunteers in meaningful community service. Following the instructions of Jesus, The Christmas Store is designed to help families in the towns and cities of southern Wake County who are in need during the holidays.

Please take a tag (or 2!), purchase your item(s), and return them unwrapped with their tags by December 3. Gifts can be placed under the trees in the Narthex and Family Life Center.

For gift idea lists by age and gender, visit The Christmas Store's Amazon page. Gifts can also be purchased through Amazon and sent directly to the store.

Prayer Shawl Ministry

Interested, but don't know how to knit or crochet? We will teach you! We even have supplies you can borrow to learn on. We meet the 1st and 3rd Sunday of each month from 4:00-5:30 pm in Room 240, Family Life Center.

Do you know someone who needs a prayer shawl? Contact Betsy Moll to arrange a time to meet.

Car Donation

At Resurrection, there are many families that we help behind the scenes for a variety of reasons. Through the Love Fund, we are blessed with opportunities to serve with God's love, giving aid to those in need. We have been walking alongside a particular family who continues to make progress in their situation, but now find themselves in need of a vehicle to travel to work, bring kids to school, etc.

Our RLC funds do not allow us to purchase a car for this family, so we reach out to the body of Christ at RLC asking if anyone has a car that they could donate to a family in need. If the Spirit is leading you to make such a donation or if you have questions about the situation, please contact the church office at office@rlcary.org or 919-851-7248.

RLC Men's Pick-Up Basketball
