

The Transfiguration of Our Lord

February 11, 2024

Pastor's Corner for February 11-17, 2024

Listen!

(Exodus 35:29-35)

With family living so far away, we make a lot of use of Facetime. I have a lot of complaints about technology, but Facetime isn't one of them, it is a great gift to use well! Because of Facetime, Sophia can recognize her grandparents. Without seeing their faces and hearing their voices, they would almost be strangers to her. She might even be afraid of them when they visit. But because of Facetime, that isn't so! When the grandparents visited early in January, the first thing they wanted to do was hold Sophia and give her a big hug. As they stepped out of the car and Sophia saw them in the driveway, she shied away at first. It wasn't until she heard their voice, until they called her name, did she lean out of my arms and into the arms of her grandparents! It was the invitation, the sound of her grandparents' voice, that told her she had nothing to fear.

The Israelites spend a lot of time being afraid of God, and rightly so! We spend a lot of time highlighting all the times they fail to keep God's law. They grumble and complain, make false gods, blatantly ignore God's rules, and are anything but thankful. After a time, they begin to realize where they have gone wrong and they fear the punishment of God. It reaches a time when Moses goes to talk with God because he needs to get another copy of the 10 Commandments (after he threw down the first copy in anger of what the Israelites did) and his face is shining bright because he had been talking with God. The people of God were terrified! They thought God had given Moses a word of condemnation, that God would leave them because of what they had done, but that wasn't the case. Here's what were told about the scene...

Aaron and all the people of Israel saw Moses, and behold, the skin of his face shone, and they were afraid to come near him. But Moses called to them, and Aaron and all the leaders of the congregation returned to him (Exodus 34:30-31)

It wasn't until they heard the voice of Moses, the reminder that neither their leader nor their faithful God would leave them. The voice of God through Moses was what calmed their fears and brought them close to their loving God once again.

Just like Sophia hearing the voice of her grandparents, just like the Israelites hearing the voice of Moses, you have heard the voice of God in His Word and you need not fear! It is that Word, His Voice, that reminds you that He isn't going anywhere. He is always with you and the arms of your Father God are always open for you to run to and find comfort in.

This Lenten season, how will you hear God call to you? What Lenten discipline will you pick up to focus on the Voice of God? Do not fear His Voice that calls to you, but run to it with the joy of child, knowing you always belong with Him.

Your listening brother in Christ,
Pastor Zach Sarrault

Weekly Bible Study Opportunities

Sunday

Last Isaiah – Herald of the Messiah

Sundays, 9:30-10:30 am in the Fellowship Hall

January 7-February 11

Contacts: Bob and Barb Shimmel

This 6-week study is from the Concordia Publishing House series: God's Word for Today. Each session will combine a presentation of the scriptural focus in Isaiah, followed by opportunities to explore relevant applications for life today.

Upcoming: Life Lived Under the Cross of Jesus

Sundays, 9:30-10:30 am in the Fellowship Hall

February 18-March 24

Contacts: Pastor Jonathan Blanke, Pastor Zach Sarrault

We will be using resources produced by Concordia Publishing House (Spirituality of the Cross, [3rd edition] by Gene Edward Veith, Jr. and Lutheran Spirituality: Cross by Hollger Sontag) to look at the issue of Christian spirituality, especially as it is understood in the Lutheran tradition. Each session will offer meaningful interaction with God's Word and what the Scriptures have to say on topics like vocation, the hiddenness of God, the means of grace (and presence of God), etc. Ever heard of folks who claim to be "spiritual, but not religious"? This class is for people of faith who identify with the "religious" life of worship and spiritual disciplines, yet long to connect more meaningfully both to the ancient church and the contemporary need to experience Christ "authentically."

Training to Become a Stephen Minister

Starting February 25

Contacts: Pastor Alan Shaw, Jan Boyer, Sue Campau

Stephen Ministry training has been rescheduled and will now start on Sunday, February 25. If you missed the January deadline, now is your chance to join us. If you have an interest in caring for others when difficulties in their lives become a burden, then this ministry is for you! Please reach out to Jan Boyer or Sue Campau to get an application or to learn more about the training and ministry!

In the Bible, you'll find no lack of sinfulness, shortcomings, rejections, and broken people. People like Joseph, Rahab, David, Jeremiah, John the Baptist, The Samaritan Woman, Peter, and Paul. We see them as people God transformed, turning their lack into faithfulness for His good. Study these eight biblical figures to see that God does the same for you.

Wednesday

The Bible: Where It Comes from and Why It Matters

Wednesdays, 6:30-8:00 pm in the Fellowship Hall

February 21-April 24

Contacts: Pastor Jonathan Blanke, Ian Glenn

Introduction by Rev. Dr. Jeffrey Kloha, Chief Curatorial Officer, Museum of the Bible. We all know that the Bible is at the center of what we believe, teach, and confess about God. Yet how many of us have learned how the Bible came to be over time? What role did God play in the formation of the entire Bible that was put together from its individual books? What are some of the differences between modern translations of the Bible? How "accurate" is the Bible we have today? How were the books of the Bible recognized as authoritative... and by whom? These are just some of the questions we will address as we read specific Bible verses and marvel at the gift of God's inspired Word to us today...the same Word spoken over God's people over the course of millennia!

Men with Kids

Wednesdays, 6:30-7:45 pm in Room 247, Family Life Center

Ongoing

Contact: Tom Gebbia

This group is designed to bring men in a similar season with similar life experiences and goals together. Currently studying Romans.

Youth Ministry

Middle School and High School

Our calendar is PACKED for the short month of February! Within our groups this month, we will be looking at the idea of being transformed by God's will for our lives instead of conformed by the world that surrounds us. Romans 12:2 tells us, "Do not be conformed to this world, but be transformed by the renewal of your mind, that by testing you may discern what is the will of God, what is good and acceptable and perfect." Youth can easily conform to the world around them to "fit in," however my challenge will be to really look at how God is working to transform their ideas and challenge that "fit in" desire.

I am in great need of regular Sunday evening adult helpers. Even if you can do it once a month, it really does help. Thanks for considering!

Did you know that we have a Moms Group? It is not just for moms of little kids, it's for moms of all ages and stages. Let's support each other! Check out the Galentine's event on February 25 at 5:00 pm. I will be there, and I hope to see some of you!

- Middle School: Ignite Youth Group

Competitions, fun, prizes, and everyone will be home to enjoy the festivities.
