Beautiful, Glorious Exchange (2 Corinthians 5:16-21)

Do you remember field trips? Growing up, when our school went on field trips, you always had to wear a school shirt. It was a way for teachers to identify where their students were so they wouldn't lose us. This was especially helpful when we went somewhere like Washington DC, where it would be easy to lose us. But before we were let loose, wearing out Adrian Maple spirit gear, there would always be one last word of caution. We would be reminded that as we wear the Adrian Maple logo, we are also representatives of our school. The way we act will reflect all that our teachers, parents, family, and friends worked hard to create in us, so we better act right.

It was a big warning! Such a little thing like a T-shirt meant so much. Wrapped up in that maple leaf logo (yes, our high school mascot was a leaf...) was both our identity and purpose when we were on field trips. It showed who we belonged to and was a motivation on how to act.

There is truth to be found here in our relationship with Christ. More than having a relationship with Jesus, we literally wear Jesus. It sounds odd, but it is incredibly beautiful! Paul tells us that we are “in Christ.” If we live in Jesus, that means that we wear Him. He is our identity and if He is our identity, then we are a “new creation.” Our old sinful self is cast aside, no longer part of who we are. God doesn’t see your sin anymore.

Luther calls this the “Glorious Exchange” saying, “this is a beautiful, glorious exchange, by which Christ, who is wholly innocent and holy, not only takes upon Himself another’s sin, that is my sin and guilt, but also clothes and adorns me, who am nothing but sin, with His own innocence and purity.”

Even though Jesus did not know sin, He became sin so that we could become righteous (2 Corinthians 5:21). What a truly glorious exchange indeed! As we now wear Christ, we get to live in this new life with Him. There is no caution here, like going on a field trip, only joy in knowing we are brought into something beautiful. As we wear Jesus and His righteousness, we also get to be His ambassadors in the world. We live with Jesus in His “ministry of reconciliation” because that is what He first did for us. What a glorious, beautiful life this is!

Your reconciled brother in Christ,
Pastor Zach Sarrault

The apostle Paul labored ceaselessly for thirty years to spread the Christian gospel. He established churches in Roman cities and provinces throughout the eastern Mediterranean regions. Realizing that his ministry was drawing to a close, he knew that he must assign qualified leaders to oversee these congregations. Paul selected Timothy and Titus, two young men who had traveled and faithfully ministered with him.

In his last years, Paul wrote letters to these dedicated Christian workers to provide them with detailed instructions regarding pastoral oversight for the churches. He would identify the types of persons who would qualify for church leadership and establish their key responsibilities. He would also address the issue of gender roles in public worship, give repeated warnings to oppose false teaching, and affirm the absolute necessity of protecting and proclaiming the purity of the Bible's teachings.

These letters combine impassioned declarations and urgent commands along with warm and tender expressions of fatherly care. As we conduct an expository reading through these epistles, we will hear Paul's voice giving both instruction and encouragement to two of his most reliable assistants, men whom he addresses as his "true children."

Led by Larry Cameron. You will need to bring only your Bible to this study.

Intersection of Church & State by Rev. Gregory Seltz

In the United States, the relationship between church and state is an energetic one. Voices and viewpoints line up across the spectrum. Some would argue from history there should be a "wall of separation" between the two. Others maintain co-existence is not only necessary and inevitable but can lead to positive results.

In real life, church and state do operate in similar spheres - both conflictually and cooperatively. See how they interconnect in The Intersection of Church & State.

While some may propose a church and state separation is feasible, breaking this long-standing liaison is not likely. Though each entity has its separate function- the state to "promote the general welfare" of its citizens, the church to deal with spiritual concerns in this world, with an eye to the next-in reality they work together.

The Intersection of Church & State examines the dynamic give-and-take relationship that has marked the crossroads of church and state in this country. Though roadblocks are frequent where the two meet, there is still tremendous potential for cooperative work to be done. Using expert commentary from academics, church and civic leaders, agency professionals and others, this program underscores the healthy collaboration between church and state in caring for the needy, settling refugees, child adoption, chaplain services, and more. It will also consider how these historical church and state partnerships are jeopardized. In the end, it will suggest a far superior metaphor in describing the church-state relationship is not one using a wall or barrier but, instead, an intersection, which benefits us all.

Lenten Offerings

Offerings received during the Lenten Midweek Worship Services this year will go to support two entities: Manna Food Bank and Inter-faith Food Shuttle.

Please place your offerings in the specially marked offering envelopes or denote "Lenten Offerings" on your check. Thank you for your generosity in supporting these important charities and ministries.

Manna Food Bank

Manna Foodbank is located in Asheville, NC. Founded in 1982, Manna Foodbank is a private, not-for-profit service organization working to end food insecurity in the 16 counties of Western NC, including the Qualla Boundary. This group was hit hard by Hurricane Helene losing their warehouse and all the food stored there. Our donation will go a long way to help them rebuild and feed our friends impacted by the storm.

Inter-Faith Food Shuttle

Inter-Faith Food Shuttle states their mission is "To feed our neighbors, teach self-sufficiency, and grow healthy foods by cultivating innovative approaches to end hunger.” They provide shelf stable food through their pantry, have onsite gardens and administer the Back Pack Buddies program which sends food home with food insecure school children on the weekends.

Jesus's Farewell Message by Francis Chan

Do you know Jesus? It's one thing to know facts about him, but to experience his love, wisdom, and guidance in your life is what it means to follow him. On the night before he was crucified, Jesus invited his disciples into a deep relationship with the triune God – and his invitation stands for us too.

In this series, Francis Chan dives into John 13-17, a passage rich in promises, commands, and eternal truths. He'll remind us we aren't called to a part-time faith – we were made to know, walk with, and commune with God.
