

Second Sunday After Pentecost

June 22, 2025

Pastor's Corner for June 22-28, 2025

Prayer Life (Isaiah 65:1-9)

When was the last time you asked for help? Maybe it was a small thing, your spouse to pick something up from the store. Maybe it was bigger, your parents to give you a loan. There are many things we need help with, but we don't like to ask for it! We don't like to ask for help because it says something about us. If I ask for help, it means that I lack some ability, skill, strength, willingness, or knowledge on my own. Asking for help is saying, "I'm not good enough by myself" and no one wants to admit that.

This is our struggle from the very beginning. This is why Adam and Eve ate the fruit in the garden. They thought they were enough on their own. They thought they could live without God. This is where we fall into sin, when we think we don't need God's help. This is God's great lament, working with a people that think they don't need Him.

"I was ready to be sought by those who did not ask for me; I was ready to be found by those who did not seek me. I said, 'Here I am, here I am,' to a nation that was not called by my name. I spread out my hands all the day to a rebellious people, who walk in a way that is not good, following their own devices" (Isaiah 65:1-2)

God wants us to ask Him for help. His great desire is for us to talk with Him about our needs and joys. In these two verses we see that it saddens God when His people don't talk to Him, when we don't ask Him for help.

This is why God gives us His name. The 2nd Commandment tells us not to misuse God's name, which we usually understand to mean, don't use God's name as a curse word, but there is more to it. Luther says that instead of just avoiding the misuse of God's name we should "call upon it in every trouble, pray, praise, and give thanks." In other words, ask God for help. His greatest desire is for us to talk with Him about anything and everything that is on our hearts. Whether you have a quiet time set aside to talk with God or whisper small prayers at moments of need and joy our prayer life is simply a constant conversation with God because we need Him. We can't do life on our own and God doesn't expect us to, so His ear is always bending down to us to listen to our every prayer. It is an awesome thing to have a such a relationship with the powerful God that we can actually talk with Him!

I leave you with a quote from John Kleinig's Grace Upon Grace (a great book for devotional life!), "More than anything else, I would like to be good at praying. That's what I have been called to do as a disciple of Christ; that's my basic task as a member of God's holy priesthood. I truly believe that much more is accomplished by prayer than by anything else I do."

Your needy brother in Christ,
Pastor Zach Sarrault

Prayers of the Church

It is with great sadness and in Christian love and hope that we remember our brother in Christ, John Philip Healey, who was called to rest with Jesus on April 14, 2025. Our prayers remain with his family.

John and his wife Ruth were active, early members of Resurrection Lutheran Church. John held numerous roles within the church, including serving as congregation president and building committee chairperson. His leadership was instrumental in the construction of both the original church building and the new location at 100 W. Lochmere Drive, Cary.

A Celebration of Life in Christ will be held at RLC on Saturday, June 21 at 1:00 pm. Service will be followed by a reception in the Fellowship Hall.
