Pastor's Corner for July 20-26, 2025

Leaning on Jesus (Luke 10:38-42)

Anxiety in our country is a big deal. A quick Google search will tell you that over 21% of adults (that's about 42.5 million people) are affected by anxiety disorders in America. Maybe you struggle with anxiety. If you don't, I can guarantee that someone you know and love does. Anxiety is a big deal that matters. As Christians, what do we do about anxiety? How do we live with it and how can we support others who struggle with anxiety?

By no means will I claim to have answers to questions like this. I don't want to be naïve and simply say that praying harder or reading your Bible more, will make your anxiety disappear. That would be insulting and misleading to those who struggle with anxiety, as well as misrepresenting our loving God. In the same way that God that cares enough to provide for our daily needs of food and drink, clothing and home, God cares enough to provide for us in our anxieties.

Maybe the best Bible story that has to do with anxiety is the story of Martha and Mary. Whether you know the story or not, stop reading this and go read the story in Luke 10:38-42. Did you read it? Good, welcome back!

Usually when we read this story we are told to be like Mary and not Martha, but most of us feel like Martha. We feel “anxious and troubled about many things”, all we must do in life, all the evil and hate in the world, all the hurt and pain in our families. If you’re familiar with the phrase, “running around like a chicken with its head cut off” that’s exactly how we feel at times. Panicked, anxious, rushed, and hurting. Then we hear Jesus speak to Martha as if scolding her for her anxiety and troubles. But is He actually scolding her?

Why is Jesus at Mary and Martha’s home in the first place? Because “Martha welcomed Him into her house.” Even in anxiety and trouble, Martha knows Jesus is important and necessary in her life. She gets distracted by the anxieties and troubles of the world which pull her away from her loving Savior. And Jesus knows this. He does not scold her for her anxiety and troubles, He acknowledges the reality of how difficult, even impossible it is to live with anxieties and troubles on our own. So, He gives Martha the simple reminder that He is in her house. He is with her in the midst of her anxieties and troubles and Jesus is with you in your anxieties and troubles too.

We all have anxieties and troubles in this world. Jesus knows this and He does not ignore it. As children of the Heavenly Father, He provides the Savior of the world living in your house to talk, listen, and sit with as you lean on Him and His love.

Your leaning brother in Christ,
Pastor Zach Sarrault

Christmas in July is here!

The Human Care Committee is sponsoring our Christmas Giving Tree in July. This effort will give our congregation the opportunity to support these organizations that assist families working to stabilize their housing and financial situations.

The Christmas tree is located in the Narthex of the Sanctuary from July 1-31. The tree has numerous ornament "tags". Take a tag (or 2) and return it to the tree with the requested item and tag next time you are at church. No need to wrap them!

This year our gifts will benefit Green Chair Project (thegreenchair.org) and Families Together (famielsttogethernc.org).

Blessings on your summer and thank you for your support,
Human Care Committee

Texas Flood Disaster Relief

Devastating flash floods swept through Central Texas over the July 4 weekend, claiming over 100 lives and leaving many still missing — especially in Kerr County and at Camp Mystic. Our hearts and prayers are with all affected.

The Texas District of the LCMS is actively responding with relief and care, but due to the enormity of the devastation, they are overwhelmed with individual donations. The Texas District has asked that gifts be directed through the Southeastern District so we can send one collective check. You can donate here, include "Texas" in the memo line.

Prayer Cards

Visual Faith® Ministry has provided prayer cards by the prayer sheets in the Narthex and the Family Life Center. We invite you to take a few cards home and add prayer notes for your family and friends for whom you are praying.

As you pray for those concerns, color the card, and then send it to the person with a note that says, "You've been in my prayers this week."

If you have questions, please contact Jamee Thieme through RCB.

Revealing Jesus: Christ's Fulfillment of the Old Testament

Jesus' words are saturated with the Old Testament. He speaks of Himself and His work as the fulfillment of everything promised by Moses and the prophets. Everything! From Genesis to Malachi, every word drips with Jesus. Let's take a look at how Jesus uses the Old Testament to make His person and work known. We'll examine specific Old Testament texts to understand them in their original context and then see how Christ fulfills them. Not only will our appreciation of the Old Testament grow, but we will have a deepened insight into what the New Testament teaches us of Christ.

- Reading the Old Testament on Its Own Terms
- How the New Testament Reads the Old Testament
