Life application materials for use in Life Groups, home devotions, and other small groups.

1. In the Passion History Reading found elsewhere in this worship folder, we see Jesus' Patience in the Face of Peter's Arrogance.

- a. Share with your group one memorable "take away" or truth from the weekend message.
- b. Did the message raise a question in your mind? Perhaps your friends can help you find an answer. If not, chose someone to send your question to the preacher.

2. The Apostle Peter writes about the Lord's patience in the face of our arrogance in 2 Peter 3 (in box). We will use the acronym SOAP to study this chapter.

S = Scripture: As you read, circle or highlight the verses that mean the most to you.

O = Observation: Note key words, phrases, imagery, and any questions that come to mind. After everyone has had a chance to write some thoughts down, share one or more with the group.

A = Application: Reflect on how this chapter speaks to your life, what comfort do you find, what lessons you can learn, and how you can apply them to your daily actions? Share your applications with the group.

P = Prayer: Write a short prayer, asking the Lord for wisdom to apply what you have learned and strength to live in faithfulness to what you have learned. As you are willing, share your prayer with the group.

Dear friends, this is now my second letter to you. I have written both of them as reminders to stimulate you to wholesome thinking. ² I want you to recall the words spoken in the past by the holy prophets and the command given by our Lord and Savior through your apostles.

³ Above all, you must understand that in the last days scoffers will come, scoffing and following their own evil desires. ⁴ They will say, "Where is this 'coming' he promised? Ever since our ancestors died, everything goes on as it has since the beginning of creation." ⁵ But they deliberately forget that long ago by God's word the heavens came into being and the earth was formed out of water and by water. ⁶ By these waters also the world of that time was deluged and destroyed. ⁷ By the same word the present heavens and earth are reserved for fire, being kept for the day of judgment and destruction of the ungodly.

¹⁰ But the day of the Lord will come like a thief. The heavens will disappear with a roar; the elements will be destroyed by fire, and the earth and everything done in it will be laid bare.

¹¹ Since everything will be destroyed in this way, what kind of people ought you to be? You ought to live holy and godly lives ¹² as you look forward to the day of God and speed its coming. That day will bring about the destruction of the heavens by fire, and the elements will melt in the heat. ¹³ But in keeping with his promise we are looking forward to a new heaven and a new earth, where righteousness dwells.

¹⁴ So then, dear friends, since you are looking forward to this, make every effort to be found spotless, blameless and at peace with him. ¹⁵ Bear in mind that our Lord's patience means salvation, just as our dear brother Paul also wrote you with the wisdom that God gave him. ¹⁶ He writes the same way in all his letters, speaking in them of these matters. His letters contain some things that are hard to understand, which ignorant and unstable people distort, as they do the other Scriptures, to their own destruction.

¹⁷ Therefore, dear friends, since you have been forewarned, be on your guard so that you may not be carried away by the error of the lawless and fall from your secure position. ¹⁸ But grow in the grace and knowledge of our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ. To him be glory both now and forever! Amen.
