CHRISTMAS WORSHIP PREPARATION 2024

Again this year, the Altar Guild, along with several volunteers, did a beautiful job of decorating our Church in time for Christmas worship services.

WELCOME! Speak with a Greeter or an Usher any Sunday for information about All Saints' or contact Marilyn Mawhinney, our Welcome/Hospitality Host, at 772-334-4176. If you're visiting us for the first time, the Ushers will provide you with a welcome gift.

BAPTISMS and pre-baptism classes are offered throughout the year. A person of any age may receive the sacrament of Holy Baptism.

THE SACRAMENT OF MARRIAGE is a rite to be cherished in our historic church. We require a minimum of 120 days notice to our office, as well as premarital counseling. An initial meeting with Father Tony should be scheduled by the couple to review the process and any special circumstances before a date is scheduled. Please contact Jenny McDonald at the office, 772-334-0610, or via email, Jennifer@allsaintsjensenbeach.org

FUNERAL OR MEMORIAL SERVICES in our church may be arranged jointly with the Cemetery and Church Offices, and may include the celebration of the Holy Eucharist.

To TRANSFER YOUR CHURCH MEMBERSHIP to All Saints', please contact Joan Whitting, Membership Secretary, joanwhitting@gmail.com

A MESSAGE FROM THE RECTOR

January 1, 2025
New Year's Day

My Dear Friends:

As the saying goes, "Time flies when you are having fun..." Today, New Year's Day, officially marks my fifth anniversary as your brother, friend, pastor, and priest. How that time has flown since coming to All Saints' and ministering among you. I am always thankful to God for His many blessings, for the loving, caring and remarkable people you are, and for the incredible work he has been able to do among us a church family.

The beginning of a new year serves as a time to reflect on; to appreciate the good things we have experienced during the past year, and to ponder on what could be done differently in the new year. This new beginning is also a time to make a fresh start in all aspects of our lives as we seek to become spiritually healthier people.

Becoming such people is shown in our relationships with God and each other... in the way we love and respond to God and our neighbor. Every new year gives us the prospect of growing more and more mature in our spirituality. The apostle Paul reminds us in his letter to the Ephesians [4: 13, 15] that we are all to be "... moving rhythmically and easily with each other, efficient and graceful in response to God's Son, fully mature adults, fully developed within and without, fully alive like Christ... God wants us to grow up, to know the whole truth and tell it in love - like Christ in everything. We take our lead from Christ, who is the source of everything we do" (Message Bible).

As Christians, many people are looking to us to lead the way in how we should live on this earth. They love the Christian faith of which we are a part, and they are looking for the expression of that faith in us as they live in a world that has always been and continues to be broken.

My hope and prayer are that we, at All Saints', continue to be ...

... an example of seeking to live out our faith in this community, guiding many to Jesus through His love, grace, and salvation.

... the little church on the hill with a BIG heart and a welcoming, loving church that shines God's light with openness, kindness and compassion to all people who need Jesus and whom God desires to be a part of this faith community.

... a congregation, empowered by the Holy Spirit, that lives our mission and vision goals by "... spreading the Gospel of Jesus Christ through worship of God, service to His people and stewardship of His gifts;" and "to live like Jesus by loving God and all people."

As we are further transformed by God's love, we pray that God would give us a year of numerical, financial, and spiritual growth as we worship more regularly, serve more humbly, reach out more lovingly, fellowship more joyfully, and disciple more intentionally than we have before.

May God shower you, your family, and loved ones, with His blessings of hope, peace, joy, and love, and may He guide you in all that you do in this new year of 2025.

With love and blessings!

Father Tony

DEACON'S REPORT

I have continued to do my diaconate work at All Saints' as I could despite personal griefs in my family. This month I had to visit much longer with Family at my daughter's request, I tried to be there for them as a celebration of life was held for my daughter's husband, Tim, on December 18 in the Philadelphia area. He died on November 15.

In addition to this, my former wife had a stroke and was in the hospital for over a week and has now been transferred to rehab which greatly increased my daughter's depression. Her mother who lives in her home will need more care and my daughter is in Bermuda practicing as a lawyer there and my son works full time.

Of course, I could not be here for Christmas, which I greatly regret. I am back and have tried to reach out to those in our parish who need help. I did provide George a list of those we wanted to console those who are alone at this time with a poinsettia plant, something we have been doing for over 10 years.

I understand all the Christmas services were outstanding. People raved about this to me when I returned, I am not sure of my plans as Deacon for next year. My energy is dwindling.

I wish all of you Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

In God's love,
Deacon Alan

MESSAGE FROM THE SENIOR WARDEN

As my term of office comes to an end, I would like to take this opportunity to thank Father Tony for giving me the opportunity to serve him and the church as Senior Warden. I didn't know much about the duties when I accepted, but I knew I would have good sources of inspiration from former Senior Wardens, Harry Kapple, Natalie Walters, and Paul Neff.

Senior Warden is probably the easiest assignment in the church when there is a rector. Father Tony has his vision and I only needed to follow his lead. The rest of the job came from the congregation who provided inspiration by the comments, inquiries and suggestions which I could pass on to our priest. For all of those, I thank you. I guess the only downside for me was that I had to fill in for Father Tony in August to give the weekly announcements. As my birthday falls in August, I never receive my birthday pen, silver or magenta! And who can forget my invitation in the announcements to join us for "Happy Hour" instead of "Coffee Hour"?!

I will never forget my tenure as Senior Warden and I encourage anyone who is tapped for this position, to accept with love and gratitude. It is just another way we can serve All Saints, Father Tony, and the God and Father of us all.

Thankfully submitted

Altar Guild

The Altar Guild expresses their thanks and appreciation to the following members of the congregation: Lorraine Devereaux, George Mazsa, Claire Northcutt, Niki O'Neal, Dianne Pierce, Russell Rothfeld, Deb Scharbo, Debbie Shinn, and Lee Smith, who helped in the greening (decorating) of the church building in preparation for the Christmas Season. We are also grateful to those members of the Guild who attended: Harry Kapple, Marilyn Mazsa, Joyce Menard, Sandy Miller, and Karen Neff. Many thanks to the children and youth of the church for decorating the Chrismon Tree, and to those who donated funds for flowers.

What did you notice that was different from other years in our decorations? The pew torches were decorated differently. The two big wreaths were full of lights. The Advent wreath with the Christ candle had white poinsettias instead of white bows.

It is an honor to decorate our building to the glory of God and for the worship environment of our members and guests alike.

FUNDRAISING

The Christmas Card Tree was a success again this year. The tree and cards are on display in Houg Hall during the Christmas season.

Consider taking some time and reading the cards from our fellow parishioners. Over $1,100 was raised and given directly to the church!

Two events are scheduled for January 2025:

1. Our second Weight Loss Competition will begin in January.

The cost is $20 to enter, with $10 going to the Church and $10 going towards the prize for the winner.

You can register to enter the next few Sundays after mass.

All weights will be on your scale in your home, no public weigh-in! We will all be on the "honor system."

Initial weight can be taken anytime between January 1 and January 10. The earlier you start the more time you have to diet. Final weights will be taken on Saturday, March 22, for all participants. The winner will have lost the most weight on a percentage basis of your starting weight.

No one's weight will be disclosed, only weight loss percents. Let the dieting begin!

2. There will be a Painting Party on Saturday, January 25, in Houg Hall, from 1 p.m. to 3 p.m. Cost will be $20 per person. More details to follow.

As always we are looking for new members and new ideas.

George Mazsa

Men's Fellowship

Men's Fellowship continues to meet the first Monday of the month at 6 p.m. in Houg Hall. All men of the parish are welcome and encouraged to attend. Meetings start with a prayer and meal, followed by jokes and a Bible discussion. We then cover new and old business and finish with a prayer and a song (think Mitch Miller). We finish about 8 p.m., just enough time to get home and watch Monday Night Football.

Our next meeting is Monday, January 6th. We will start the planning for the pancake supper and we also need to work on the flyer for the Antique Car Show and BBQ.

Thanks to all who helped deliver Christmas poinsettias. We will be delivering lillies at Easter .

A wise man once said, "If God is your co-pilot, switch seats immediately."

DAUGHTERS OF THE KING

During Advent, we celebrated the four themes of Hope, Peace, Joy and Love, which prepared us for the Birth of Jesus Christ and the second coming of Christ.

church members. Some prayers are for guidance and others are for helping those who are sick and suffering. At each meeting we update and edit the prayer list. Please do not hesitate to place a request for prayer. Contact Iris Langran at p.langran@comcast.net or Dorothy Bree at dorothybree@mac.com. Our card ministry has been busy. December was a busy month for birthdays. I hope all cards were received. We also send "Get well" and sympathy cards. Please inform us of cards that may be needed by others.

Each Sunday, an Advent candle is lit in preparation for His birth.

The first advent candle burns for Hope. Hope that the Lord will prepare us for the coming of the Lord. It is referred to as the Prophecy candle.

Remember to update your address as needed by contacting Joan Whitting at: joanwhitting@gmail.com

The second candle burns for Peace. It is also known as the Bethlehem candle. Peace that is promised to all who believe in God for true peace comes from God.

The Daughters of the King wish everyone a joyful Christmas full of Hope, Peace, Joy and Love as we celebrate the Birth of our Savior, Jesus Christ, and a happy and blessed 2025.

The third candle of Advent, also called the Shepherd's candle, burns for Joy. Joy is the expression of love we feel during the Advent Season. Jesus said, "I am the light of the world. Those who follow me will not walk in darkness, but will have the light of life."

Holiday Blessings to All.
For His Sake,

Dorothy Bree
President

The fourth candle burns for Love. It is referred to as the Angel's candle. It represents the message of God's unending love. Love is the language of God. We are commanded to love one another as Jesus loves us.

It is these Advent themes that we focus our soulful prayer for others. The Daughters of the King pray for the many needs of our clergy and

WOMEN'S FELLOWSHIP

THANK YOU!

To all who contributed to, helped at or purchased items at Holly Fair, Thank You –Thank You and Thank You again! Though sponsored by Women's Fellowship, Men's Fellowship helps to set up and take down the venue. The youth sponsors a Food booth. It truly is a congregational effort.

We raised $ 10,867.75 (final total after expenses)! This 2024 total, per our bylaws will be dispersed to charity endeavors.

In March 2024, we presented to the membership a menu of charities with the express purpose of dispersing the Holly Fair 2023 proceeds of $10,000.

We will again ask for volunteers to serve on this ad-hoc committee which will be formed with different participants at our January 18th meeting. They will focus on where we will distribute these 2024 Holly Fair raised dollars; and the amount to fund Bethany ministries. This report will be presented to the membership in March 2025.

We look forward to this January meeting and our "High Tea at the Derby" on February 8th.

Our March meeting will be on the 8th as well! This is the second Saturday, arranged by special request of the Daughters of the King (DOK). Their Quiet Day is scheduled for March 15.

On April 2nd, there will be a Women's Fellowship and DOK sponsored Baby Shower to benefit the clients of "HELPING PEOPLE SUCCEED" a locally based charity which offers a "helping hand-up" to many families in various forms of aid. All are welcome to donate a baby or toddler item(s); diapers or age appropriate toy.

All women of All Saints' Episcopal Church Family (and those who attend worship service here) are a part of Women's Fellowship; come out to a meeting or event and join us!

Thank you again,

The highlight of the month was, of course, the Christmas Pageant.

Thirteen beautiful children ranging in age from three years to seventeen years played the various characters.

Including Andrew Johnson who played the inn keeper, but was also the acolyte for the service so he wasn't able to be in the group photo.

The Pageant was the perfect visual reminder of what Christmas is all about.

Each child received an olive wood ornament of Joseph, Mary and baby Jesus set in a stable to emphasize the "reason for the season."

We will round out the year thinking about our New Year's resolutions. How can we be better Christians in 2025?

We wish everyone a very happy new year!

ALL SAINTS' CEMETERY

Woody Allen is credited with saying the proverb “If you want to make God laugh ... tell him your plans.” (or Man plans, God laughs) It appears that he was simply translating an old Yiddish proverb into English, “Mann Tracht, Un Gott Lacht.”

Well, in the cemetery, we’ve been planning away, and I think God has been chuckling the whole time.

The cement pad next to the mausoleums should be poured in the next week or so which will allow the Columbarium to be delivered sometime in January! While we thought it would be much sooner, this all worked out for the better as it took us a few months to line up the financing we needed; Seacoast Bank was great to work with and allowed time for us to get through the diocesan approval process.

We’ve also been planning for our new multi-purpose room, which is starting to come together, again, taking a bit longer than we anticipated but this has allowed us to seek the best prices and optimize the layout of the room.

The Vestry asked if the Endowment Board would consider splitting the cost of the furniture upgrades with the cemetery and I’m pleased that the Board agreed, unanimously.

We’ve also received a Thrivent grant to enable the purchase of a new locking file cabinet for the closet so that the TRUE files are secured. And the room’s proposed usage is expanding – the Le Duc Scholarship Committee is excited to be able to use the room as a waiting room this year as they begin interviewing students. It’s great that we can work together to make our plans come to fruition, on God’s timing.

Thank you to all of the saints of All Saints’ for their support of the Cemetery over the past year and we look forward to working together again in 2025.

PEERING INTO THE PAST

Back in the mid 1970s, the church was gifted a gold set of vestments by a coupled of 'older' newlyweds. They were given in thanksgiving by our then organist, John Fulton and his new bride and a stellar soprano, Carolyn.

Here are pictures of my brother, Bruce "Duke" Fletcher, the then Rector, Rev. Frank Alvarez, and the first vocational deacon, Daniel LePore. This was at one Christmas celebration. We still have those vestments.

GARDEN HAPPENINGS!

Greta, upon waking last Tuesday afternoon found she had been turned so she looked directly at Groggy. He was turned to look at her; Jackson standing behind Greta was turned also. Bea and Little One now had their backs to the church building and were looking into the garden vegetation. Hmm, I wonder what happened; or what is about to happen? She mused.

Groggy as he became more alert started to groan and complain. “Who took one of my bricks? My feet are now in the mulch. Why do people think they can just turn us around? I can’t see the people very well now. What do you make of this Greta? Oh! you don’t have that pretty sunflower dress anymore. What happened?”

Greta answered: “Groggy you are too quick to complain. Can you just think what might be happening; why we may be turned and what day it is?”

“I know! I know what day it is!” Little One started to vibrate, he was so excited the “Welcome” sign, always attached to his hand threatened to topple him over, and he just could not wait to tell Groggy: “It is Christmas Eve! We put the tree up yesterday, and tonight we start our celebration of the birth of the Christ Child! It goes on for 12 days.”

“The Children of All Saints’ will be putting on their Christmas pageant in just a few minutes. I saw the Roman Guard, the Angels and the Inn Keeper go by just a few minutes ago. They went in this side door near us.” Bea, the Big Red Bee said quietly.

“That is called the Sacristy Door. I wish we could see into the church sanctuary.” Greta sounded like she was complaining, but quickly exclaimed: “Shush, the door is opening.” Out of the sacristy door, down the steps and down the sidewalk ran a young man dressed in the garb of a Roman Soldier from long ago.

“If you are real quiet, we may hear the words...” Bea said. They became quiet as statues in the dark; but could not hear well enough to know what was being said in the sanctuary of the church. Soon the children came outside, and Bea exclaimed: “I think that boy is the same one that was the soldier—now he is dressed like he is someone very important.”

Groggy since he was facing that way could see better than the others, and reported: “Yes, Bea, I believe you are correct. It also appears that they have finished what they were doing. I think the boy must have depicted a King. Aside from the crown on his head, his clothing looks like things my great, great-grandfather wore. Oh, and there are the angels. Shh! People alert! He whispered.” And they all became very statue like again.

Several hours later Greta was clothed in a red dress, Groggy in a matching cape to keep him warmer, and a naivety scene was placed in the garden. Then, to guide the night visitors, small lights were placed along the wall of the garden. Our friends were smiling in the night, for it was time for Christmas midnight mass.

And so it was! Father Tony lifted high the elements of communion at the stroke of Midnight, and then in the candlelight the strains of the song “Silent Night” drifted over our friends as they drifted off to sleep. I wonder what will be next with our Garden friends.

Welcome Jesus the Christ into your hearts and lives! Celebrate all 12 days of Christmas and have a Happy New Year, friends!
