LENTEN MESSAGE FROM THE RECTOR

My Dear Friends:

I grew up on the island of Barbados at a time when the Season of Lent was the most penitential, somber, time of the year. There was no other season in the Church's Year with as many worship services and spiritual enrichment programs than during Lent. I worshiped at the Eucharist and Evensong each Sunday morning and evening respectively. There were mid-week Lenten services on Wednesday evenings, and Stations of the Cross on Fridays. Sprinkled in between was a weekly Bible Study. Attending church services and formation programs were the order of each week during Lent.

As kids, we learned that the devil was more mischievous during Lent, which I figured was because of the temptations our Lord encountered from the devil while he was in the wilderness. I believe St. Peter's caution to "discipline yourselves, keep alert. Like a roaring lion your adversary the devil prowls around, looking for someone to devour" (1 Peter 5:8) played a part as well. I am sure my parents, particularly my mom, having to rear four rambunctious boys wanted to put the fear of God in us so that we would be the best behaved children in the neighborhood. So, mentioning these things to us, even though Scriptural, placed a bit of "the fear of God" in us.

The phrase "the fear of God" appears mostly in the Old Testament rather than in the New Testament and is a forgotten concept in our age. It is not meant to make us afraid of God, as I believe my parents may have partially intended it to be but "the fear of God" means having profound respect, an affectionate reverence, a sense of awe and wonder for God. There are people who believe that we no longer need to "fear" God because it is an Old Testament notion that is not relevant for us today because we receive God's grace and love.

Nevertheless, we still need to possess "the fear of God" for it is important to the deepening of our relationship with Him. Without the fear of God," we make decisions based on our limited human understanding rather than making decisions based on God's approval.

Therefore, having "the fear of God" is expected to be a daily part of who we are as God's people, and it helps us to understand and live our lives under His care. Having "the fear of God" is the gateway for wanting to please God recognizing that our relationship with him is one in which He has ultimate authority and power over us. Having "the fear of God" is to be exemplified in our worship experience, giving honor and glory, reverence and praise, awe and wonder to God, rather than assessing our likeness for the service. Our respect for God's glory causes us to honor Him; our thankfulness for His compassion and mercy causes us to serve Him.

So, I am inviting each of you as we observe this Lenten Season – to live our lives in "the fear of God." Let it be a season for self-examination and repentance, as a period self-examination and repentance, as a period for prayer, fasting, and self-denial, as a time for reading and meditating on God's holy Word. Let us carve out space and time each day during this season to spend with God so that we would deepen our relationship with Him and to truly experience Him in our lives. Let us use the time to listen to Him, to fear Him, to be respectful and be reverent, to have a sense of awe and admiration for God and the things of God for it is the beginning of acquiring spiritual wisdom. For such wisdom is seeing life, not from our perspective, but from God's perspective and being able to respond appropriately.

As we engage in this discipline during Lent, may we be able to say in the words of William Cowper's hymn, O for a closer walk with God:

The dearest idol I have known,
Whate'er that idol be,
Help me to tear it from thy throne,
And worship only thee.

So shall my walk be close with God,

Calm and serene my frame;
So purer light shall mark the road
That leads me to the Lamb.

I wish you, your family, and loved ones a holy Lent!

With love and blessings,

Father Tony

LETTER TO DEACON ALAN ON HIS RETIREMENT

February 23, 2025
The Seventh Sunday after the Epiphany

The Reverend Alan C. Gellert, Deacon
1421 Northeast 14th Court
Jensen Beach, Florida 34957

Our dear brother, Alan:

When you accepted God's call to be ordained a deacon on November 23, 2013, to serve at All Saints' Episcopal Church, Jensen Beach, you couldn't have known what God had in store for your life. Now, eleven years later, you are on the threshold of another aspect of your life's journey as you retire from active ministry.

Throughout your ordained ministry, you have demonstrated a deep sense of appreciation and commitment to the incredible service you have done among us and on our behalf at All Saints'.

Your management of the Toward the Relief of Urgent Emergencies (TRUE) Fund, through which you offered financial assistance to people over the years, has made a great impact on the lives of individuals and families in our community. Your faithfulness in exercising your liturgical duties in our Diocese, particularly at All Saints' by attending and participating in Sunday morning Eucharists, Wednesday healing services, and other services, has enhanced our worship. Your love for Kairos and prison ministry, leading a weekly Bible Study group, and services with the inmates at the Martin County Correction Institution have brought you great joy.

However, your pastoral ministry will be remembered for a long time. Your leadership, organizing the visitation schedule for the Lay Eucharistic Visitors, and regular visits to homebound members to administer Communion or to inquire about their well-being are to be commended. Your pastoral gifts have revealed your passion, energy, love, and dedication, leaving an indelible mark on this church.

We want to thank you for the eleven years of service among us, and, as Rector, for your love and support of my ministry during the past five years. You have been of prodigious assistance to me.

We look forward to your remaining a part of All Saints'. We wish you a long, healthy, relaxing, and blessed retirement and may God continue to bless and keep you in His care. We love you!

With love and every blessing,

The Very Reverend Dr. Anthony B. Holder
Rector

The Reverend Tara B. Shepley

DEACON'S REPORT

This may be my last regular Deacon Report, since as you all know I have resigned my position as Deacon for All Saints'. I have written reports consistently for the past 11 years as Deacon and have been writing reports for this publication four years prior to that. It's now time for a break from this report.

Thank you all for being present at my last official Sermon and regular participation in the weekly service both on Sunday and in the healing service as well.

My plans for my ongoing ministry as Deacon are uncertain now. I will be listening to what the Holy Spirit tells me. I do know I will continue functioning as a Deacon in some capacity. As in the past, I depend on your input into how I can help all of you in some kind of pastoral care. We have had a wonderful relationship, and I pray for it to continue. I will certainly be attending some of All Saints' activities and do some Eucharistic services with All Saints' congregants.

Thank you all for being a part of my service on February 23, especially I appreciate what Father Tony did to celebrate my ministry. Thanks, Father. I also want to thank all others who attended the service and lauded my ministry. I received so many gifts and would like to thank each one of you personally, but I received so many gifts, I can't do this.

Thank you all for your financial gifts, so overwhelming in the amounts and all the thank you cards. Also, I treasure the painting of our Church and the letter which you have signed express your love for me which is definitely reciprocated.

Thank you, thank you, so much. I will definitely be in contact with all of you in the near future.

Finally, I thank all of you for your gifts to me. I feel so good physically for my age. I treasure my good health both physically and mentally. I feel so blessed by God. Thank you, God, for what you have done to facilitate my spiritual life. I feel so blessed.

In God's love,

Deacon Alan

ALL SAINTS' CEMETERY

I'm pleased to report that our new multi-purpose room (formerly Deacon Alan's Office) is now up and running. It has a new circular rug and table, 4 comfortable chairs, a TV for training purposes, a small desk with a computer and two screens for complex comparative work, and new locking file cabinet for the TRUE fund. Luckily, the desk, computer, and table were re-missioned from other areas of the church and cemetery, so we came in under budget!

As anticipated, having the room available has been helpful for both the cemetery and the church. We had a situation earlier this month where two families showed up for a cemetery consultation at the same time. We were able to accommodate both families by utilizing the multi-purpose room for one meeting and the Cemetery Office to meet with the other family. When interviewing the LeDuc scholarship applicants, we used it as a waiting room for students who arrived prior to their interviews. It worked out really well!

Since our big building projects are complete, I will pose a brain teaser for Trumpet readers over the next several months. In our cemetery, we have many Name Doppelgängers; or people sharing names with famous people.

The first of these shared a name with an American film, television and theater actress. She was known for her willingness to play unsympathetic characters in a wide range of film genres. She was nominated for ten Oscars and won Best Actress twice. Later in her career, she shifted her focus to television and character parts in films. She continued her acting career through ill health in her later years, amassing over 100 roles in her lifetime. Who was she?

ENDOWMENT

This is the whirlwind season for the All Saints' Endowment Board. On January 24, we hosted a reception that was open to all and free of charge. If you didn't sign up, you missed a rousing and funny talk by attorney, John McHugh, and tons of drinks and hors d'oeuvres. But that is the past and the future holds our annual Appreciation Banquet for the Heritage Society members.

On Saturday, March 22nd, the Endowment Board will host an evening dinner with entertainment provided by the Blue Sky Strings, a classical guitar ensemble who will grace our church with a selection of songs arranged especially for acoustic guitars. Their founder, Joette Giorgis was also the first president of the Martin County Classical Guitar Society. Imagine how wonderful they will sound in our church! Heritage Society Members, watch for your invitation in your mail.

The Heritage Society is funded by contributions from church members who want to secure the future of All Saints'. The money is then invested with UBS who also holds the accounts for the church, cemetery and other All Saints' related investments. You can be a part of this by contributing to the Endowment. This is done by a single payment, three (3) smaller payments or by providing for All Saints' in your will or trust.

This latter choice is attractive to people who do not have money readily available but who have life insurance or money available at life's end. What a gift knowing you have helped to provide for the continuation of all of the good works that All Saints' does for our members, our community and our relationship to God.

We spend the interest from our investments on improvements to our church that enhance our worship experience and may help to draw new people to our doors. Come be a part of the Heritage Society. We would love to have you!

Blessings from your Endowment Board,

“Prayer without works is empty words
Service without prayer is labor lost”

The most sacred part of the liturgical year is upon us. Ash Wednesday, March 5, 2025, marks the beginning of Lent. A time where Christians observe the journey of Jesus into the desert for forty days of fasting, prayer and fighting off the devil.

Many of us fast on Ash Wednesday and start 40 days of personal sacrifice to give homage to our Lord and the sacrifices He made for humankind so that we all share in eternal life. The

Our second event during Lent is on Maundy Thursday is April 17, 2025 This marks the end of Lent. This is the day of the Last Supper. After the supper was ended Jesus washed the feet of his apostles knowing that the hour had come for him to leave this world for God.

WOMEN'S FELLOWSHIP

High Tea at the Derby was a huge success! This Tea was attended by a crowd of 90 which included ladies from All Saints', Advent and St Mary's Episcopal Churches, other guests, and 11 servers from all over the United States.

Represented by state were New York, New Jersey North Carolina, Ohio, Texas, Maine, Kentucky, Georgia, Virginia, Florida and our neighboring country Canada. (Sorry if I missed one or two.)

Each table was represented by an equine Kentucky Derby winner. The earliest winner was Aristides, who won the horse race of one and a half miles in 1876; to Rich Strike at the wildly popular Churchill Downs in 2023 on the 1-1/4 mile track.

Our recreation of the horse race was chaotic but fun. Thank you to each server and a guest that participated as Jockeys.

A big thank-you to all who made the food and tea and those who served the tables. I bless your days!

I also want to thank Louise Andrews who organized the kitchen and kitchen staff; and to Diane Dougiello. Diane helped to plan the decorations, made all of the center pieces, found and ordered the back drops and props. Thanks also to Pam Hurd for producing the picture of Rich Strike and the Jockey that rode to victory in the 2023 Kentucky Derby, and for all her help "putting the horses in the stalls" that were displayed around the room.

Last but certainly not least to my husband George, for his assistance in all of the preparations, set up and clean up after the fact. If we are to do another tea in 2026, I need a committee! I cannot take on this event without more help in the organization planning and decorations; and Louise has retired as Co-Chair. So ladies; it is up to you all!

NEXT UP is our March meeting on the second Saturday – March 8th at 9:30 a.m. for fellowship time and our 10:00 a.m. meeting.

April 12th will be our Baby Shower. Slightly unique, as we do not know who the mothers are that will be benefitted by our gifts. They are clients of HELPING PEOPLE SUCCEED, in their Healthy Baby, Healthy Family program. Join us at 10:00 a.m. in Houg Hall for fun, fellowship, games and a few surprises.

This event is a joint effort by Women's Fellowship and Daughters of the King. Come join us every baby shower gift large or small, for a newborn or toddler is welcome – and please bring them unwrapped!

All of us at All Saints' and beyond are welcome to add to our gifts for families and newborns in need from Martin, Okeechobee and St Lucie Counties.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

This Photo

The Beatitudes played a big part in Sunday school this past month. I think the children are really amazed when they see how the lessons Jesus taught 2000 years ago definitely still apply today, not just for grown-ups but for everybody!

Being merciful, a peacemaker, standing up for what you believe in, being pure in heart, are characteristics that we can strive for. And always knowing that God is with us gives us comforting support.

Graham Johnson wants to give a big “Thank you” to everyone who purchased his dog treats. So far he has been able to donate over $50 to the church with this fundraiser. From now on he is going to take orders just one Sunday a month and then bring the products in the next Sunday. He’ll let you know when the next batch is being made.

Lent begins on Ash Wednesday, March 5. The night before, March 4th, is Shrove Tuesday and All Saints’ big annual Pancake Supper.

Any of our children who are not tied up with sports practice will be helping bus tables during the pancake supper. This is part of their community outreach.

Again, thank you for your wonderful support of our Sunday school program.

GARDEN HAPPENINGS!

“Bea, do you remember the quilt that was keeping you warm a few weeks ago when it was so chilly out here in the garden? Oh, I’m sure you do since all of us were blessed with a garment to keep us warm. The Garden Whisperer sure took care of us. Did you also know the ladies from Bethany Ministries finished 16 quilts?” Greta seemed to have something big on her mind as she asked her friend these questions.

“Oh yes, I remember the quilt snuggled around me and I saw all 16 quilts last week on display in the church building. They looked wonderful and I think the children will really like them. I wonder how they accomplished making so many quilts. Any of the pictures of the quilts that I asked Joyce Menard to send to you.

In a rare occurrence, Greta smiled as she answered her friend: “They are quite a team; and Bea, I believe team is the word here... I think they use teamwork.” Bea winked at her friend and said: “There are basically four ladies doing this outreach work. They are supported by Women’s Fellowship as that group somehow pays for the batting. You know, that warm stuff in the middle of a quilt.

I overheard Miss Joyce saying she would do the quilting as long as someone else would help with the sandwiching. I’m not real sure how they do it, but I know the batting goes in the middle and there are pieces of fabric on either side of that batting. Usually one side has a design made out of different colors and that part is sewn together carefully.”

“Ah, yes.” Greta answered. “Just yesterday, Miss Maryann said she was getting material and rulers from a lady that is not physically able to do her quilting anymore. It was very nice of her to share those things. I have heard people praising her work; so I think Miss Maryann must be an awesome quilt maker. This gift can only help! Hmm, I wonder how much time it takes to make a quilt.”

Surprising the other two, Groggy answered. “Well, ladies, let’s think about that question. First one needs a design idea, and then they need to gather the supplies and equipment needed. I have heard those same people exclaim over a new sewing machine that does embroidery designs as well as quilts. So, that must be one of the things that they each own; a sewing machine. I also know how long it takes SOME people and SOME statues to make up their I mind over small details, so choosing the right material design or color, or shade of the right color might take a good bit of time. It might even take weeks to find the right fabric! But these ladies seem to be on a fast track”

“I think they must work smarter than others since they made so many!” Little One was quick to add. “But now that I think about that, I know it was 2 months of time to make 16 quilts. Because they started after Holly Fair on making their own Christmas gifts and then changed their mind and decided to have one session of quilting at Bethany House in December. Miss Joyce said so one Wednesday after a Healing Service.” Good of Little One to remember that, but he surprised them

GARDEN HAPPENINGS!

even more when he added: “When I was in the Thrift Shop in Bethany House last year, I went into the quilting rooms and I watched them divide up the work just like you said. That day each lady brought in one or two of the quilt tops they had finished. Then they took turns helping each person to sandwich their quilts. They talked about which fabric to use for a backing. Apparently, Miss June likes to match colors, Miss Joyce just wants it to be large enough, and some Miss Maryann sews together so it is a large enough piece for a particular quilt. The other lady said she had material at home that would go great with a quilt top, so that one did not get sandwiched that day. They pinned some of the quilt sandwiches together; top, batting and backing just like a sandwich! Oh, and others they used spray ad... hmm, adhesive, well, something in a spray can.” Jackson added: “I remember that Little One; it is called temporary spray adhesive, and boy does it smell. I was choking; good thing they turned the fan on. I was happy they used that stuff on the material and not us!”

Groggy took that moment to add his thoughts. “You all do know that they don’t get paid to make the quilts, right? And you have heard Father Tony’s sermons about the first commandment: To love God, above all else. And the Second Commandment: To Love our neighbors as ourselves. So, we know they enjoy quilting but why do you think these ladies do so much of this stuff?”

Bea, the big red bee was quick to answer: “To make a quilt for others is to show love for our neighbors. It is also a way of honoring God.” Greta added: “To give away a quilt, shows that love to a neighbor. Just like Miss Jiggs did last week when she gave the “Pencil Quilt” she won at the High Tea, to Miss Joan.

“Oh yes!” Little one piped up. “And Miss Joan said she would have the quilt blessed by Father Tony and then she would mail it to her granddaughter. Now that is sharing love all over!”

“That is a great observation, and one we can all learn. Another Biblical saying: ‘Tis’ more blessed to give than to receive’ and I suppose for the person doing the giving that is very true. Maybe receiving a blessing like a quilt will help those children at SafeSpace to experience and learn thankfulness; and have some hope for their futures.” Draco, the firefly in the tree, seems to always have a way of summing things up quite nicely.

Perhaps we can all take a gem of a lesson here, and find a way to share something with someone in need, or a way to bless them in their daily life. This reminds me of the Scouting way: “Do a good turn daily!”

Looking forward to Lent, I suggest we reflect on the blessings we have received and find ways to share them.
