A MESSAGE FROM THE RECTOR

The new Presiding Bishop and Primate of the Episcopal Church, The Most Reverend Sean Walter Rowe

In a modest service, with just over 100 persons in attendance, the Most Reverend Sean Walter Rowe was invested as the new spiritual leader of the Episcopal Church. The Investiture Service took place on Saturday, November 2, 2024 (All Souls' Day), in the Chapel of Christ our Lord, Episcopal Church Center, the headquarters of the Episcopal Church, in New York City.

Rowe officially became the Presiding Bishop and Primate of the Episcopal Church on All Saints' Day (November 1), after The Right Reverend Michael B. Curry, the 27th Presiding Bishop and Primate, demitted office on October 31.

During the service, Rowe received the primatial cross, the symbol of the office of the Presiding Bishop and Primate of the Episcopal Church, from Bishop Curry. Also attending the service was the 26th Presiding Bishop, The Right Reverend, Katherine Jefferts Schori, the first female to hold this position.

Normally held in the National Cathedral (The Episcopal Cathedral of St. Peter and St. Paul) in Washington, D. C. as has been the case with previous presiding bishops, Bishop Rowe preferred a simpler service.

Previously the Bishop of Northwestern Pennsylvania (2007 - 2024), Provisional Bishop of Bethlehem (2014 - 2018) and Provisional Bishop of Western New York (2019 - 2024), the new Presiding Bishop was the youngest ever elected to that position at the age of 49. He is the second youngest overall since the first presiding bishop, William White, was 41 at the time he began the first of his two terms in 1789. Rowe was also the youngest Episcopal priest in the United States, 25, at the time of his ordination in 2000, and the youngest serving bishop in 2007, at the age of 32.

Just a few days (October 25 and 26, 2024) prior to becoming Presiding Bishop, at the invitation of Bishop Eaton, Rowe was the Celebrant and Preacher at our 55th Diocesan Convention Eucharist. The Convention was held on the campus of the Chapel of St. Andrew's Church and School, Boca Raton. He noted that the average Sunday attendance in an Episcopal congregation is 31, with a total of 350,000 people attending Sunday services in the nearly 7,000 Episcopal churches. In addition, only 20 churches have an average Sunday attendance of over 300.

It is against this backdrop that Presiding Bishop Rowe believes that significant changes need to be made. We will have to modify or do things differently going forward from how we have done it previously. Rowe focuses on organizational structure, strategy and budgets, but with a view to the gospel. He emphasized the importance of supporting the ministries of the local congregations which he called the heartbeat of the church. He lauded former Presiding Bishop Curry for laying the groundwork of refocusing us on Jesus and being a beloved community and evangelism, on which we need to build. This will involve “a lot of experimentation,” he said, “trying new things” and methods of doing ministry and church. However, he acknowledged that not everything will work, maybe not even most of it will work, but we cannot just sit back on our

The Right Reverend Peter Eaton, Bishop of the Episcopal Church of Southeast Florida. Behind him is then Presiding Bishop-elect, The Right Reverend Sean Rowe, now Presiding Bishop and Primate of the Episcopal Church.

He advocated for the College of Congregational Development, a program which started in the Diocese of Olympia, under the leadership of the Assisting Bishop of our Diocese, The Right Reverend Greg Rickel, when he was the Diocesan Bishop of that Diocese. This program seeks to develop congregations of all sizes, locations, and conditions into more faithful, healthy, and effective communities of faith. Already, All Saints' have signed up to be a part of that program to be held in June 2025.

We wish former Presiding Bishop Curry a healthy, relaxing, and blessed retirement, and join in wishing Presiding Bishop Rowe, God's blessings and guidance as he leads us, the Episcopal Church, for the next nine years.

With love and blessings,

Father Tony

Deacon's Report

I continue to do my work as Pastoral Care Coordinator for our Church. I do this in many ways. I facilitate the use of Lay Eucharistic Ministers for those living in the community to whom we bring Communion as they request it. We give them Communion based on a form that outlines the Holy Communion service, and these members are very receptive to receiving the Communion which is more personal than just viewing the service on YouTube or Facebook.

In addition, we can also talk about what is happening in their lives, pastoral care, about their health and contacts with their families. We can also make contact with them and their families. Many persons who used to attend services feel very lonely without having family contacts.

Those in Assisted Living facilities do have many activities to engage in which helps greatly. We can also make them aware of other community services, so that all their needs are met, and acquaint them with other community services that they may not be familiar with.

Many of our congregants are needy as well. I try to maintain contact with them at Coffee Hour, especially those who are new or those who I know have or had health issues, as I have had myself. The Lay Eucharistic Visitors and I reach out to them. I am especially worried about persons who attend regularly, but miss coming to service for health reasons. Congregants who are absent really do appreciate contact from other church members to let them know that we really care about them.

New members really appreciate when we talk with them and make them feel really welcome. Be sure and let others know that you are in need for help. We have a reputation for being a very welcoming Church. Why do we all come to church, if not to find persons we can talk with? We all need someone to listen. Kairos' motto is Listen, listen, Love, love.

In God's love,
Deacon Alan

Men's Fellowship

Our next meeting will be Monday November 4th, at 6 p.m. in Houg Hall. All men are invited and encouraged to attend. We will be discussing how to distribute our monies for outreach into the community.

Bring your ideas for deserving groups in our community. We are partnering with Women's Fellowship selling discount books after the masses for the next few weeks. Harry Kapple is our Coordinator for this effort.

Don't forget to VOTE on November 5th.

George Mazsa, President

Fundraising Team

There are no events planned for November by the Fundraising Team. We will be supporting the Women's Fellowship with the Holly Fair on Saturday November 16th. This is a major fundraiser for the Women's Fellowship and if you can volunteer some of your time, please see Louise Andrews.

Advent begins

December 1st and we will again be setting up the Christmas Card Tree. The idea is to put a Christmas card on the tree for our All Saints' Family and not have to send cards through the mail to people you see every Sunday. You may bring your own card or use one of ours. There is no charge to put a card on the tree but we will accept freewill offerings, this is a fundraiser after all.

Looking forward to January, we will again be having a weight loss competition. This year all participants will be on the honor system, no public weights in the breezeway. The cost will be $20 to join, with half going to the church and half going to the one who loses the most weight. More details to come.

As always we are looking for new members and new ideas.

George Mazsa

Altar Guild

Dear All Saints' Family,
Your Altar Guild needs some new members to join our small group.

Currently, the Altar Guild comprises of only nine members, two of whom are away during the summer months. The Altar Guild is a very important behind-the-scenes ministry. We prepare the sanctuary for worship and clean up afterwards.

When there are special services such as Christmas, Easter, and Harvest Festival, we decorate the sanctuary.

At the present time, we need a minimum of an additional member who attends the 8 o'clock service and at least two who attend the 10 o'clock service.

(More than that would truly be a blessing!) New members work with an experienced member for training.

Please pray about joining this important ministry, and if you would like to find out more about the duties of the Altar Guild, speak to Joyce Menard or Sandy Miller. We can meet with you and show you what it entails.

Respectfully submitted,

Daughters of the King

On Sunday, October 13, 2024, our Rector, Father Tony Holder, installed new officers of the Order of the Daughters of the King (DOK). They are Dorothy Bree, President; Karen Booney, Vice President; Iris Langran, Treasurer; and Katherine Kapple, Secretary. We were honored to have the new Diocesan President of the Daughters of the King, Avonelle Forbes, and her husband, Berkley, attending the service at All Saints'. Following the service, we enjoyed photos, brunch, and a cake in honor of our new officers.

We have been blessed to have Sandy Miller as our President for the past three years. She is a perfect example of faith, spirit, and prayer. The motto of the DOK is "For His Sake..." Sandy devotes much of her time in prayer and service working for our church. We thank her for the spiritual guidance, wisdom, and love which she has shared and continues to share "For His Sake..."

The All Saints' Chapter of the Daughters of the King decided to meet the first Monday of each month at 1:30 p.m. in Coffey Hall. This allows members to attend meetings and to return home before dark. During our meetings we share our faith, and we pray together for the needs of the parish and clergy. Please contact us if you desire to add someone to our prayer list. You may contact me or Iris Langran to add those in need of prayer. Please email us at dorothybree@mac.com or p.langran@comcast.net. If you do not have email, please call me at 772-342-5197.

I am honored and humbled to be elected as the President of the DOK. I have been a Daughter for three years and will strive to maintain the chapters work of prayer, service and evangelism. We will be admitting three new members into the DOK on All Saints' Sunday, November 3, 2024, making us a powerful prayer group of twenty daughters. Our new members are Leslie Lambros, Terese Power, and Barbara Vitale. Anyone interested in becoming part of our chapter should contact Marilyn Mawhinney at mandwmawhinney@aol.com.

Peering into the Past

Thirty-six years ago, All Saints' welcomed its' Sixth Rector, The Reverend Thomas F. Ryan, Jr. Father Tom would serve the people of All Saints' from 1988–2005, making him the longest serving cleric in our parish.

The following are highlights of Fr. Ryan's years of ministry with us:

- 1988: The Rev. Thomas F. Ryan became the 6th Rector.
- 1992: The Rev. Deacon Daniel Lepore resigns, having served at All Saints for 22 years.
- 1993: A nearby home is bought and named the St. Theresa House to expand our ministry.
- 1994: The church building is expanded for a second time and became wheelchair accessible. Improvements were made to Houg Hall and met ADA standards.
- 1997 : The Rector, the Rev. Thomas J. Ryan, Jr, celebrated the 25th Anniversary of his Ordination to the Priesthood
- 1998: The 100th Anniversary Celebration of the Dedication of the Church Building is held.
- 2004: Hurricanes Francis and Jeanne came ashore.
- 2005: Fr. Ryan retires, having served All Saints' longer than any other priest.

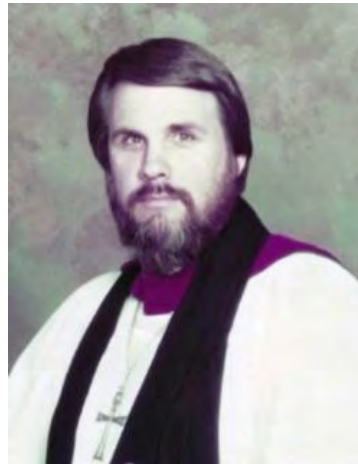

In a letter dated, "All Saints Day, 2004" to the Vestry and Wardens, on his personal letterhead Fr. Ryan wrote:

"Dear Friends,

This has been a difficult year for all of us and I so appreciate the love and generosity shown to me by this parish family. I would have preferred that my last year at All Saints' be one of great productivity and enthusiastic growth but with my illness and surgeries it has not been possible for us to move forward in a more dynamic manner. And now, after more than 16 years as your Rector and 33 years of ordained ministry, it is time for me to leave this unique place and move on to a new phase of my life. I will retire as the Rector of All Saints Episcopal Church, Jensen Beach, as of January 30, 2005. My last service will be the 11:00 p.m. Christmas Eve celebration.

The Rev. Thomas F. Ryan, Jr.

I cannot adequately express my appreciation of the wonderful relationships Courtenay and I have enjoyed here. There have been important changes made to our wonderful old Church and the ministries practiced here. I thank God for the opportunity offered to me as your leader, teacher, and pastor.

Courtenay and I will reside in Minneola, Florida and I feel that my returning to All Saints' for pastoral events such as baptisms, weddings, and funerals will, with rare exception, be inappropriate. A new rector will be selected in the normal diocesan guided calling process. My prayers for your search.

My love and best wishes always.

In His Name,

Signed "The Rev. Thomas F. Ryan, Jr."

Courtenay was the parish administrator and Fr. Ryan's wife. They never returned. Thomas F. Ryan Jr., 79, of Clermont, FL, passed away on September 8, 2016, at the Mike Conley Hospice House.

Sunday School

We've had a steady flow of children for Sunday School! Each week in our individual Bibles, we find and read the Gospel and talk about how it still applies to our lives today. The children are really so good at expressing themselves.

This Photo by

Be sure to check out our "FAITH" bulletin board in the hallway. We've been talking about how Faith is believing and trusting in something that you can't necessarily see.

Our bulletin board will eventually be running out of space and spreading out onto the surrounding walls!

Jesus Ramirez is attending First Communion classes with Ms. Karen every Sunday morning at 9 o'clock. Last week we talked about how Jesus really has two families, his own family with his mom, dad, and two older brothers plus his Church family! We have a lot in common and he knows he can count on both!

The children are looking forward to the Holly Fair on November 16, when they will be manning the annual Pizza/Soda tent. Do plan on eating pizza at the Holly Fair! All of our profits will be donated to the Women's Fellowship Outreach Ministry.

Owen is having lots of fun with Miss Lexie in the nursery! We are hoping that more little ones will be joining them in the nursery this year.

Thanks again for all of your support!

Cooper, Piper, and Jesus learned that when we put Jesus FIRST in our lives (the tennis ball) and THEN hold on to some of our wants (the ping-pong balls) we will have eternal life (the gravel). IN THAT ORDER, that's THE only WAY everything would fit into the vase!

Garden Happenings!

“Greta, what do you think next month will bring? After all that wind, I’m not sure I can tolerate too much more excitement.” Groggy was thinking about all that had happened recently up on their hill.

Greta laughed and reminded Groggy HOLLY FAIR would be November 16th! Then she began to review the last few days: “We have had worship services; they are a regular occurrence here at church.

The men capped off the water service and installed the fire hydrant over by the road. The house next to the Thrift Shop had a well drilled in the front yard. The neighbor outback had company – they brought a travel trailer and a tall black monster truck that was really loud.

A few people were power washing sidewalks and cobblestones at the Thrift Shop. Music Bingo was Friday; there were lots of people here that evening, and I heard the noise from the sidewalk sale at the Thrift Shop on Saturday. That is why we had so many cars coming and going around here Saturday.”

“Oh, who bought the sidewalk? And how are they taking it home?” Little One spoke out loud, as he was looking over at the thrift shop. “Something is different over there, but I don’t know what.”

“Little One, were you napping on Saturday? The Thrift shop sold many items of clothing and a few things Ms. Diane calls household treasures.

But I was referring to the, ah, – big wind event, the sidewalk is still over there, no one took it away.” Groggy was quick to set the record straight.

“Wow, that was 3 weeks ago already; I hope people have the things they need now. It is hard when there is so much damage to a home or building. Those tornados were scary; I was afraid that Bea and Little One would be carried off to Kansas. The sky was so dark too; it was almost like midnight but it was mid-day.” Greta added her thoughts.

The deep voice of Draco echoed off the wall of the church: “Mr. Jack, Mr. R & Mr. John did a great job of protecting the windows of the church. And I’m really glad no one was hurt when the cross came down. It is sad that a few people died in those tornados.”

Little One asked: “How come we had tornados when they said we were getting a hurricane?” No one answered; they were all lost in their own thoughts. The sunset and night time came over the church yard.

Bea, the big red bee was the first to stir in the morning. She decided it was high time for some exploration; and she flew off determined to see for herself what had happened. As the others began to stir and greet each other, they realized she was not right there, but she often flew about the garden visiting the flowers and trees, so they did not pay too much attention to her absence.

“I was thinking about your question last night, Groggy. We are almost to All Saints Day and All Souls Evening. That is the evening service out by the big cross that starts close to sunset. People remember their loved ones and they put many twinkle lights in the cemetery. Maybe they will play the bells then; I love to listen to them chime.”

Little One was quick to add: “You know there are people that come to a healing service on Wednesday—but then a whole lot of them go into Coffey Hall.”

“Oh yes.” Greta replied; “They are going to Bible Study. Thank you for reminding me, Father Tony Blessed some Bethany Ministry made quilts this week. The children that receive them will be so happy to have them, and they are certainly are colorful”.

Just then Bea returned. Tears in her eyes she reported to her friends about all the devastation she had seen. She had flown from Port Salerno to Fort Pierce; and there were many spots on the Treasure Coast where piles of trees, boards and pieced of aluminum and house hold items were piled high.

Groggy responded first: “Let us pray.

Almighty and everlasting God, Creator and Preserver of all humankind, grant to us Your people, protection against the ravages of hurricane, flood, earthquake, drought or other calamities; that in tranquility of weather we may rejoice in the comfort we ever desire and may always make right use of Your great goodness; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.”

And again the garden was quiet. Our friends were silently thanking God for their survival.
