A MESSAGE FROM THE RECTOR

My Dear Friends:

Caribbean Sunday at St. David's-in-the-Pines, Wellington

Unable to accept an invitation to celebrate and preach at St. David's-in-the-Pines Episcopal Church, Wellington, Florida, last October, I was finally able to do so this year on October 26, at their Caribbean Sunday celebrations. This was the first time I worshiped at St. David's and visited the beautiful city of Wellington.

Every October, St. David's-in-the-Pines celebrates this signature event, considering the diversity of the congregation which comprises members of at least twenty-four Caribbean islands and three African nations. It is an observance of the many cultures and ethnicities that make up the congregation at St. David's.

Sunday morning services began at 8 and 10 a.m. like All Saints'. The Right Reverend Todd McGregor, former Bishop of Madagascar and currently their Clergy-in-Residence, was the Celebrant and Preacher at All Saints'.

At 8 a.m., a small number of people attended the service. However, at 10 a.m., one hundred and eighty members and guests attended the Caribbean-styled service which featured steel pan music, West Indian folk hymns and songs, and traditional negro spirituals. The Eucharist was fully sung with the usual service music as well as the Psalm, and a "Caribbean Lord's Prayer." Large flags depicting the countries hung along the walls of the interior of the Church building, while smaller flags lined the main aisle, adding lots of color to the ambience of the worship space.

One of the highlights of the occasion for me was the reunion with one of my former seminarians, the Reverend Edward Mark, whom I had not seen in twenty-five years. Brother Edward, as he was called at the time, was a theological student and ordinand assigned to my parish of St. Cyprian's Anglican Church, Barbados, in 2000. I was his rector and mentor for his final year before he returned to the Diocese of the Windward Islands. It was a blessing to celebrate the Eucharist with him and to share conversation. He is currently the Priest-in-Charge of St. David and St. Paul's Anglican Churches in Grenada.

Following the service was a reception with cuisine from the islands and African nations – just what the doctor ordered. The parish hall was decorated with paraphernalia depicting the many cultures and ethnicities, and there was the aroma of Caribbean cooking.

The people of St. David's, whose mission is to "welcome seekers, form disciples, and send apostles," is looking forward to the arrival of their new rector, The Reverend Matthew Tees, who currently serves as Executive Director of Camp DeWolfe in the Diocese of Long Island. Father Matt will be instituted as Rector of St. David's-in-the-Pines on Tuesday, January 13, 2026, and his first Sunday service will be on January 18, 2026. I look forward to welcoming him to the Deanery and attending his Service of Institution.

It was a beautiful, spirit-filled day of prayer and worship, fellowship and food, as I met new people and delighted to see "old" friends. My thanks to the Senior Warden, Vestry, Bishop Todd, and the congregation of St. David's-in-the-Pines, Wellington, for such an incredible day.

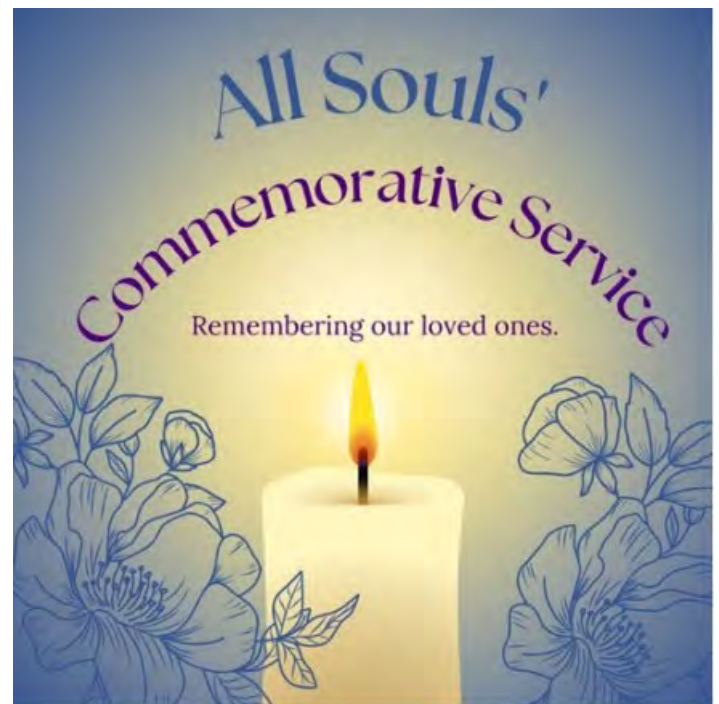

With love and blessings!

ASSISTING DEACON'S REPORT

Yes, I am still a Deacon at All Saints'.

Thank you all for honoring me at our last Coffee Hour. I appreciate the recognition. I thought I had retired, but when Mother Tara left, I was asked to be Assisting Deacon to Father Tony. I continued to be active in 10:00 AM Service and the Wednesday Healing Service.

I have also continued to facilitate Lay Eucharistic Ministry. I am available to find persons to take Communion to those unable to attend service, some temporary, some confined permanently. I also provide pastoral care, especially for those who have no one to talk to.

Currently I am an active volunteer for Kairos Prison Ministry, the 59th time. This ministry is so important to me and the prisoners we see benefit so much from knowing others care for them.

It has been shown that this ministry can reduce recidivism for those who have participated in a 3-and-a-half-day program. We bring the men the love of Christ to help them change their lives. We get over 100 attendees at our monthly reunions.

We remain a very active loving congregation for all who attend services at All Saints', the loving church on the hill.

In God's love,
Deacon Alan

DAUGHTERS OF THE KING

“For His Sake ...I am but one, but I am one. I cannot do everything, but I can do something. What I can do I ought to do. What I ought to do, by the Grace of God I will do. Lord, what will you have me do?”

The Daughters of the King (DOK) held our first meeting in October. Father Tony and Deacon Alan were our guest. Both exemplify service work as a lifetime duty in the name God.

As Daughters of the King we each pledge to undertake a lifetime commitment to service supporting clergy, assisting with church ministries, praying for the sick, or reaching out to those in need.

This month we collected toiletries for the Tent City homeless. The number of folks living in the Tent city varies. Most people living in these camps are men but women and children also camp until they can find permanent housing. This is a transient population who have come upon hard times with mental illness and alcoholism and whose family are not available to help.

“Faith by itself, if it is not accompanied by action, is dead.” James 2:17

We are planning a Christmas project with Tent City Helpers of Martin County. We plan to make 20 Christmas stockings collecting washcloths, a bar of soap and fast food $10 gift cards. If interested in donating to our cause please contact me at dorothybree@mac.com

“Never be lacking in zeal, but keep your spiritual fervor, serving the Lord.” Romans 12:11

November 9, 2025 we welcomed Debra Shinn as a new member to our Order. She took the vows of Prayer, Service and Evangelism. We are very lucky to have her as a prayer warrior for our church family. In other DOK news, Sharyn Sickle has found a church in her new location and has joined their DOK chapter. She will continue to spread the Good News and be a prayer warrior for her new church community.

All female members of our Church are encouraged to think about being a chapter member. We are a sisterhood of women dedicated to a life of prayer, service and evangelism within the Anglican tradition. Our meetings consist of prayer and fellowship. We wear the cross daily as a reminder of our vows. When a daughter leaves the chapter her cross is returned to the National Office.

For His Sake,
Dorothy Bree
President

ENDOWMENT

SHAKE, RATTLE AND ROLL! Welcome to the beginnings of the new and improved All Saints' Endowment. The Board has held their first meeting of the season and has already requested dates for the two events hosted by our group. I can't divulge them yet as they have not been approved but look for our annual reception for the whole church to be in January, 2026 and our banquet in April.

The big news coming out of our first meeting is that we want to make the Endowment more accessible to all of the members of the Church. After all, the good works that our invested money funds benefits everyone. So we are reviewing our By Laws to see if we can make it easier for contributions to the Church endowment can become part of your gifts to the church on a yearly basis. There are always projects that come up that were not anticipated in the annual church budget and how to address them?

Examples are the emergency rewiring of Houg Hall's kitchen. The Endowment stepped up and contributed to that project along with other groups in the church. Since we had already approved the fans for the breezeway, both were accomplished at the same time. Now we look forward to replacing the cross at the top of the church.

This is what I'm talking about. The Endowment benefits everyone and I'm sure everyone would like to be a part of it. So watch this space for changes we are anticipating. As with everything else, it is complicated but we are determined to bring our charter into the 21st Century so we can better serve our Lord, our community and our beautiful church. Pray for us!

ALL SAINTS' CEMETERY

Welcome to autumn! Our Cemetery Team is thrilled with the slightly cooler temperatures and slightly dryer conditions. We're planning our cemetery walking tours again this year with three tours available:

1. Local Pioneers
2. Neighbors of note
3. Veterans of note.

The books are available at the Cemetery Office for $15. The proceeds help defray the costs of cemetery upkeep.

We're also looking forward to the All Souls' Day Commemoration Service. Held on Sunday, November 2, at 5:00 p.m., the service will be held next to the Conkling Cross overlooking the cemetery.

The service commemorates all the faithful departed, including the departed loved ones in the cemetery who died since last Souls' Day. During the service and for most of the month, you will see solar-powered lights on several of the graves in the cemetery. Come out and support our cemetery.

Respectfully submitted,

Pam Hurd

Acting President, All Saints' Cemetery

WOMEN'S FELLOWSHIP

We're asking all who can, to help with The Holly Fair on November 15th.

Specifically, we're hoping for your assistance with donations to the Silent Auction and the Christmas Shop, and to The Craft Shop - where home made and sewn items will be available for purchase. And of course, please add to our bake shop with a goodie we can sell!

And please don't forget to come and visit us or spend a few hours working in a booth. There is plenty to do and it's a lot of fun every year. I know this year will be our best yet.

Sign-up sheet will be back in Houg Hall on November 1st. Please add your name and be counted! Remember all proceeds brought in from the Holly Fair (minus our expenses) will be sent out into our community and beyond as outreach!

Marilyn Mazza
President

WANT TO DONATE SOMETHING FOR THE HOLLY FAIR?

Be sure to check out the donation board and flyer in the breezeway.

You can bring your items from Monday to Friday between 9 a.m. and 1 p.m. or on Sundays when you come for Services.

Thank you!

FUNDRAISING

Another successful Music Bingo was held Friday October 24th from 4 - 6 p.m. We had over 70 attendees and a good time was had by all. Many thanks to all who helped set-up and take down.

I would like to welcome a new member to the team, Penny Manzueta.

Next activity will be the Christmas card tree. We will set up a "skinny tree" in Houg hall and anyone can place a card on the tree for your friends and church family.

The idea is this card can take the place of many individual cards you would be mailing, thus saving postage. There is no charge to put a card on the tree, BUT a free will offering will be accepted, it is a fundraiser after all. You can bring your own card or use one of ours. This will start the first Sunday in Advent. Remember "Jesus is the reason for the season".

George Mazsa
Coordinator

Men's Fellowship

Our next meeting is Monday November 3rd at 6 p.m. in Houg Hall. All men are welcome. If you are not a regular please let me know you are coming so we have enough food.

Next activity is setting up for Holly Fair on Friday November 14th at 9am. Many hands make for light work.

If God is your co-pilot switch seats immediately!!!

WEEKLY FOOD COLLECTION

We continue to collect food every week for our neighbors who are food insecure and the homeless. Government shutdown and spending cuts are affecting the amount and variety of food available from the Treasure Coast Food Bank. Our donations are needed more than ever.

A special food collection will happen on Saturday

November 22nd in conjunction with Harvest Festival Sunday. You can drop off food at the Church on Saturday from 9 a.m. - 1 p.m. The food will be displayed in the front of the church and then distributed to local food pantries the following week. We usually distribute to House of Hope, Safe Space, and the Salvation Army in Stuart.

Thanks in advance for your continued generosity. Remember, hunger never takes a day off.

SUNDAY SCHOOL

Fall is in the air and the children have been busy talking about each week's Gospel message and how it applies to their lives. Something written thousands of years ago not only applies but guides us as well! Check out our bulletin board in the Sunday School hallway to read their reflections!

We end each Sunday School class with a prayer!

We all know the Lord's Prayer, but are there other prayers that we can say? One of our activities encouraged us to talk about how praying or talking to God gives us the opportunity to pray for others, give thanks, welcome a new day, or pray for guidance, and that prayers can happen throughout the day.

Be sure to plan on buying some pizza at the Holly Fair. We'll be set up from 10:30 a.m. till 2 p.m. selling pizza slices and drinks.

All the money that they earn will go towards the Women's Fellowship community outreach projects.

GARDEN HAPPENINGS!

As the evening cooled down a bit and the mosquitos began to buzz around, Flora flew around the outside of the church building a few times and then glided down through the cemetery to the Indian River.

There she looked at the construction, the big machinery and all the power boats and sail boats on the hard. She then flew back up the hill and followed the road for a tour of Rio, stopping every now and again to look around in wonder. On her return to the garden next to the little church on the hill, Flora settled down to tell Greta and her other garden friends about her adventure.

“Well, I think our view of the Indian River will have drastically changed when they are done. I did not see any windows for us to look through, but I cannot tell you what they are building. The big metal bones of a structure we can see; but exactly what it will look like when they are done is still a mystery.” Flora reported.

“There is a large metal building in Jensen Beach that juts out over the river; there a whole lot of boats sit inside it, up on racks. Maybe it will be something like that.”

Grumbling Greta announced: “That just stinks; it looks like they will be blocking our view of the river. If it is for storing boats, they will probably put walls on those metal beams.”

Kevin hopped over and with a sad look he agreed with Greta. “I will say we can still see to the sides of that structure, but it just is not the same.”

“I think those people might be greedy and not doing what God wants us to do.” Little One was a bit sarcastic as he kicked the mulch. “Maybe God will punish them; or even send a storm that takes the building down.” When Little One looked up, he realized everyone was staring at him with a ‘frown face.’ “What? He blurted.

That’s what I think God should do!”

Groggy cleared his throat and added a loud rib-bit! Then he gently asked Little One: “Do you think God would be happy destroying buildings that people just put up? And remember what a mess this area is if we have a powerful storm. A really bad hurricane could destroy our garden home too.” “Well, I heard God destroyed the Tower of Babel.

God did that because the people wanted to be like Him like God and to decide how things were going to happen in their life. The idea was that the tower could help them get to Heaven.”

After a minute of silence, Little One continued. “Oh ah, I guess God will not take that building down just because I want it down. But I can always pray for that to happen.”

“I guess you could, Father Tony says: “prayer is what helps us continue hoping that all will be made right in the world, and it is our job to always pray.” (*) But is that really what you want to pray for?”

After a bit of reflection time Flora asked: “Are we done with talking about that building?” Because I want to tell you what I saw when I followed the road to R10.” Her friends all looked puzzled... but finally Draco started to chuckle. “You mean Rio, the village around the bend on Dixie Highway. You are actually correct when you call it R10, that is how that area got its name; from the roadway # 10. But these days the people around here call it Rio. What did you see in Rio, Flora?"

"Big orange orbs, several funny looking statues of the same person dressed in black with a funny hat and perched on a broom. Some of the orange balls had faces – weird ones with pointed eyes."

Again, Draco chuckled. "Halloween decorations! That is what you were seeing in Rio. Some people carve faces in the pumpkins making them jack-o-lanterns and some folks set them out with other fall items. It is a custom all over the country!

I just think decorating with fall items seems a bit out of place here in Florida." "Oh, I want to see a pumpkin!" Groggy and Greta said at the same time. Greta continued: "Maybe the Garden Whisperer will bring us a pumpkin! If it is orange, it will match my dress. But Draco, what is Halloween?" Halloween is a newer term for All Hallows Eve. It is night before the day designated as the day to celebrate and honor the saints. Pope Gregory III, back in the 8th century designated November 1st as the day to celebrate and honor the saints who have died. Halloween is now celebrated on All Hallows Eve by many.

The practice of going to friends' homes and saying 'Trick or Treat' stems from an even older custom of the poor people knocking on doors asking for folks to share some of their recently harvested food.

"I did not know any of that!" Greta said. "I'm glad people shared their food with others." Flora began to beat her wings in excitement. "I heard someone talking about a Harvest Festival here at All Saints' Church. That must be a celebration of sharing food too.

"Oh yes, it is and it is so fun to see how they do it here. We all like to sneak into the church and look at how they decorate with food. Cans and boxes, fruits and vegetables – sometimes bread and grains – they ask everyone in the congregation to bring food items.

They spend hours setting it up, then on Sunday they pray over it and bless all of it. After that the children and a few adults pack it up and take it all to the food bank to share.

Harvest Festival is usually the Sunday right before Thanksgiving." "Oh, I will make sure I fly into church and view it all. Make sure you remind me when it will be decorated!" Flora commented to her friends.

Kevin added: "The date – the Sunday before Thanksgiving; is November 23rd. That means November 22nd is when everyone should bring their food items to church! Thanks Kevin!
