NATIONAL CLERGY APPRECIATION MONTH

October is "National Clergy Appreciation Month" and it is the same in our Diocese. At All Saints' we are truly blessed with our Clergy who continue to lead us on our journey to do "God's work" to the betterment of our families, our community and our church. So, let us show appreciation for our Clergy!

WELCOME! Speak with a Greeter or an Usher any Sunday for information about All Saints' or contact Marilyn Mawhinney, our Welcome/Hospitality Host, at 772-334-4176. If you're visiting us for the first time, the Ushers will provide you with a welcome gift.

BAPTISMS and pre-baptism classes are offered throughout the year. A person of any age may receive the sacrament of Holy Baptism.

THE SACRAMENT OF MARRIAGE is a rite to be cherished in our historic church. We require a minimum of 120 days notice to our office, as well as premarital counseling. An initial meeting with Father Tony should be scheduled by the couple to review the process and any special circumstances before a date is scheduled. Please contact Jenny McDonald at the office, 772-334-0610, or via email, jennifer@allsaintsjensenbeach.org

FUNERAL OR MEMORIAL SERVICES in our church may be arranged jointly with the Cemetery and Church Offices, and may include the celebration of the Holy Eucharist.

To TRANSFER YOUR CHURCH MEMBERSHIP to All Saints', please contact Joan Whitting, Membership Secretary, joan@allsaintsjensenbeach.org

MESSAGE FROM THE RECTOR

My Dear Friends:

“Hold Loosely, Trust Completely, Give Joyfully”

On Sunday, October 18, All Saints’ will begin our Annual Giving and Stewardship Campaign. This year’s theme, “Hold Loosely, Trust Completely, Give Joyfully,” was created by our former Senior Warden, James Laverty. These three simple phrases invite us to reflect on what it means to be faithful stewards of all God has entrusted to us.

Hold Loosely

Everything we have is ultimately a gift from God. Our possessions, financial resources, time, talents, relationships, and opportunities are blessings entrusted to us for a season. To “hold loosely” does not mean they are unimportant; it means we remember they are not ours absolutely. We are called to use them wisely, generously, and faithfully, finding our identity and security not in what we possess, but in God.

Trust Completely

Stewardship is an expression of faith. When we give, we acknowledge that God provides and that our lives rest in His loving care. Trusting completely does not mean giving thoughtlessly or neglecting our responsibilities. It means prayerfully offering what we can and trusting God to use every gift, large or small, for purposes greater than we could accomplish alone.

Give Joyfully

Christian giving is not driven by guilt, pressure, or obligation. We give out of gratitude for God’s abundant grace, because we believe in Christ’s mission, and because we want to take part in God’s work in the world. As the apostle Paul reminds us, “God loves a cheerful giver” (2 Corinthians 9:7).

At All Saints’, stewardship makes ministry possible. Through our shared generosity, we worship together, proclaim the Gospel, care for one another, serve our community, support ministries of compassion and outreach, maintain our buildings and grounds, and provide a place where people can encounter God’s love.

As we look toward the coming year, I invite each of us to prayerfully consider what All Saints’ means to us and how we might respond to God’s generosity. The question is not only, “How much should I give?” but also, “How is God calling me to give?” Our stewardship commitment is more than a financial decision. It is a spiritual practice—a tangible way to say, “God, I trust you. Everything I have is yours. Use what you have entrusted to me for your purposes.”

As this year’s campaign begins, may we hold our possessions and resources loosely, trust God completely, and give joyfully. May our giving express gratitude for the blessings we have received and hope for the ministry God continues to place before us. Thank you for your faithful stewardship, generosity, and love for All Saints’ and God’s people.

May God bless you, your families, and your loved ones abundantly as we journey together in faith.

With love and blessings,

Father Tony

SUNDAY SCHOOL

The Sunday School year has begun! We welcomed 16 children, ages from 3 to 15, to All Saints' on September 13, for Rally Day. Our annual ice cream social was enjoyed by all. The children enjoyed creating the sundaes with ice cream, chocolate syrup, sprinkles, and cherries.

Unfortunately, our whip cream dispenser, refused to work! Nevertheless, the children wanted to be sure and thank everyone at All Saints' for supporting our Sunday School program by also giving them a religious bookmark and a miniature Jesus. As the saying goes, "Everyone needs a little Jesus!"

Be sure to check out our bulletin boards in the hallway. You'll see pictures of the Sunday school children and the theme for this year, "We are God's masterpiece created for good works." Ephesians 2:10.

The children will also be learning that, "we are who God says we are" and discovering what good works they can do.

On October 4, our Sunday school children will be helping Jerry and Natalie Walters pack supplies for the tent city dwellers. A perfect example of the "good works" they can do!

Our program for the Brunch includes Bernell Adamson of Beyond the Label, one of the programs receiving Community Outreach Funds raised at last year's Holly Fair. Bernell and her team will excite you with her enthusiasm and drive in providing hope, support and opportunities for children and young adults with disabilities to learn, grow and thrive.

Also, on the agenda for October 19 is planning for this year's:

Holly Fair in the Gardens & Silent Auction November 14, 2026 9 a.m. – 2 p.m.

Highlights of the Fair are the:

Bake Shop, Christmas Trees & Wreaths, Gifts
& Crafts, Plants, Jewelry, Raffles, Segerstrom Bees
and Tours of our Church
(one of Martin County's oldest!)

Holly Fair Chairwoman, Marilyn Mazsa, reminds us that it is time to get serious with work on baked, sewn or collected items for the Fair. Karen Neff and Sandy Miller have already been working to assemble baskets of great items for the Silent Auction. Look for the bulletin board in the church breezeway for items they still need.

Holly Fair & Silent Auction

Last year, the Holly Fair raised $10,500.00 for Community Outreach! Invite your friends and neighbors to visit us on that Saturday. Use the beautiful flyer designed by our talented spiritual leader, Father Tony. You'll find it in each Sunday's Bulletin to share all the information!

And put on your calendar, Musical BINGO, Friday, October 23.

WEEKLY FOOD COLLECTION

I will be returning to Florida in late September to resume the privilege of delivering your food donations to House of Hope. I want to thank Jerry and Natalie Walters for doing this while I was away.

Many of us shop at Publix and make use of the "buy 1 get 1" offers. If you don't need the second item consider donating it. Think of it as "buy 1 give 1". Also if you clean out your pantry in spring or fall many outdated items are still usable, especially canned goods.

Always needed items remain pasta, rice, sauce, peanut butter, and beans. "Pop top" cans are always preferred if available and no glass containers if possible.

Food Collection

I want to thank you for your continued generosity. Remember, hunger never takes a day off.

Coordinator

FUNDRAISING

After taking the summer off we have activities scheduled to begin in the fall.

1. Music Bingo on Friday, October 23, at 4 p.m. Tickets are available and on sale after masses.
2. The Christmas Card Tree will be available again the four Sundays of Advent.
3. The Annual Weight Loss Competition will start January 1, 2027.

We will have a meeting in mid-October to discuss plans for 2027. We need to keep in mind that Lent starts early next year and that will affect our schedule. With that in mind, I think we will need to run an activity during Lent.

I would also like to start something new this year to get more people involved with each activity. I am not good at delegating and I don't want to lead this merry little group forever. I will ask for volunteers from the team to run each activity we schedule. That way we will all learn what it takes.

So put on your thinking caps and come to the October meeting with ideas. As always we are looking for more members and new ideas.

DAUGHTERS OF THE KING

All Saints' Episcopal Church's Daughters of the King will have our first prayer meeting on October 6, 2026. We are a spiritual sisterhood within the church committed to a lifelong rule of prayer, service, and evangelism. This year we will admit a new member into our chapter on All Saints' Day, November 1, 2026. Donna Baumgartner will take the oath of the Daughters of the King. She will receive her cross to be worn daily as a reminder of our oath.

The Vow of Prayer

Prayer is at the heart of a Daughter of the King. Each daughter agrees to a life of daily prayer for the needs of the Church, the clergy, her fellow Daughters and the world. Jesus himself had a life rooted in prayer. Through the vow of prayer, daughters commit themselves to be spiritual watchmen of the church community. This serves as a reminder that every act of ministry must be guided by prayer for prayer is the source of strength and renewal.

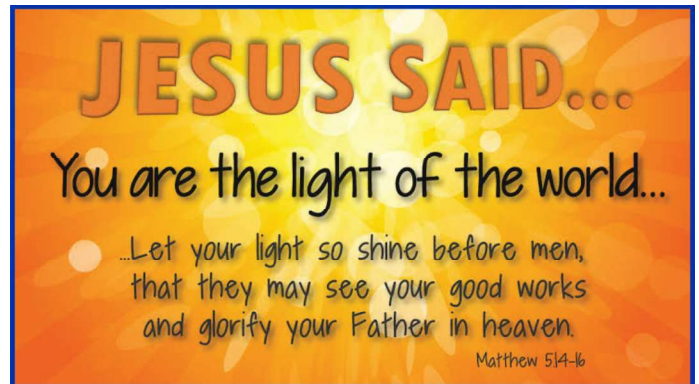

The Vow of Service

The DOK members dedicate themselves to serve the Church and church families. Our service takes many forms; assisting in parish life, offering hospitality, mentoring others and engaging in outreach to those in need. Jesus taught that in His kingdom greatness does not come from power but through service. By choosing to serve we mirror Christ's love.

"As each has received a gift, use it to serve one another as good stewards of God's grace"
(1 Peter 4:10).

The Vow of Evangelism

Evangelism is the call to share the Good News of Jesus Christ in word and deed. It is not pressure or persuasion but about faithfully bearing witness to the love of God. This vow challenges us to live as visible witnesses of Christ in our daily lives.

Prayer connects us to God; service embodies God's love in action and evangelism spreads the hope of the Gospel into the world. The vows the daughters take serve are a lifelong reminder of God's grace. Through these vows we help fulfill the Church's mission.

ALL SAINTS' CEMETERY

One of the questions we get quite often in the Cemetery Office is: "How long will we be able to inter people in our cemetery?"

It's a simple question with a rather complicated answer. Our new Cemify software is quite good at telling us how many casket lots, mausoleum niches and crypts, and columbarium niches we have that are not sold.

And we can easily pull up how many of those that are sold but are not yet occupied. We can even tell how many bronze plaques are available for the scatter garden. Using this data, and an average of our yearly sales, it is simple mathematical progression to see how long before the cemetery fills all of the currently available space.

The projection I did at the last annual meeting showed that at our current interment rate (51 per year) and our then current availability (in January, this was 1926 available or sold but not yet occupied; this number is now 1902) we were not projected to run out of space until approximately 2063.

So, is that the end of the story? Not really. We also have 440 additional casket plots that can only be used for a small casket or for cremains. This is usually because a tree has encroached on the full sized plot. And there are 30 plots that still need review, to find out whether they are useable – this is down from 180 because our staff has done such a great job investigating these plots.

Plus, we have 130 plots set aside for indigent burials; the original gift of land for the cemetery contained a clause insisting that we make plots available for indigent burials.

So, if we do the math again, that adds another 12 years to our projection, now we're at 2075.

But wait, there's more! Many customers decide to have ashes added to a casket lot and we can also have multiple cremains buried within one cremains plot. Crypts can usually be used for more than one cremains.

This year, we added 70 additional cremains niches to our inventory, by adding the Columbarium. We have space for more!

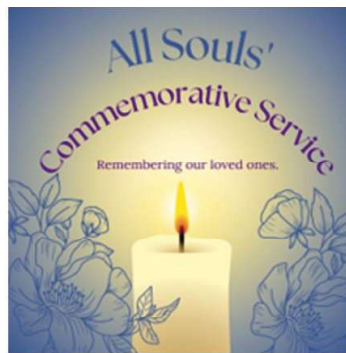

Finally, we have customers who buy plots and then decide to move to be closer to family. Often, these lots are gifted back to our non-profit cemetery so that we can accommodate someone new.

So, while "who knows" is an inadequate answer, I can easily assure you that we will not be running out of space in my lifetime!

Respectfully submitted,

Pam Hurd

*All Souls' Day
Commemoration Service*

Monday, November 2, 2026 | 5:00 p.m.

The service commemorates all the faithful departed, including the departed loved ones in the cemetery. Persons are encouraged to place flowers and solar-powered lights as markers on the graves of their loved ones for the service.

PEERING INTO THE PAST

Often, we hear the expression “It is a small world.” This story shows one example.

Louis A. Papsidero, Sr. came to the area in 1953 from Long Island, New York having been born on Long Island’s Glen Cove, NY. “Prior to retirement he was a building contractor in Jensen Beach for 22 years.” He died at the age of 75. In addition to his wife Mary, he left three sons and daughter, 11 grandchildren and 4 great grandchildren. Though a member of St. Martin de Porres, a prayer service and the funeral service were held at the Aycock Funeral Home in Jensen Beach. He was laid to rest here at All Saints' Cemetery on February 17th, 1989. (1) His wife Mary, is buried here too.

Louis' brother-in-law Aven, and sister Angie followed him and his wife to Jensen Beach. Aven was also in the construction business.

Angelina “Angie” (nee Papsidero) Emerson of Glen Head, NY died on November 22, 1996. Her death notice lists her husband Aven, a large extended family to include a brother, Louis Sr.

The visiting hours were held on Sunday, November 24, at the Whitting Funeral Home, Glen Head, NY. On the following day, her funeral mass was held at St Mary’s R.C. Church, Roslyn, NY. “Interment All Saints Cemetery, Jensen Beach, Florida.” (2)

The Whitting Funeral Home was owned by Joan Whitting’s husband, Stret Whitting Jr. and his twin brother Scott. (The funeral home is now managed by Joan and Stret’s son and grandson). Stret and Scott arranged for Angie’s remains to be sent to All Saints' for interment. On December 4, 1996, Angie was laid to rest here. Priscilla Stuber was managing the cemetery at the time.

Priscilla Stuber still attends the 8 a.m. service and Joan the 10 a.m. service. Strettle F., Whitting, Jr. "Stret" of Jensen Beach, FL formerly of Glen Head, and Montauk, NY died on March 30, 2017. He was returned to New York and the Whitting Funeral Home for burial.

GARDEN HAPPENINGS!

There were grumbles from our garden friends last week. They were cranky!

I was just not sure why, but I suspected it had to do with all the activity on campus with Coffee Hall roof replacement and repairs... Shed repairs, pantry clean up and VBS clean up and storage there was a lot going on around campus. Both heat and rain adding to the events. Or perhaps it was just the overly warm—(make that hot!) temperatures, for them as well as for the humans around; they were just out of sorts.

Greta and Groggy were arguing over the workers on the roof...

"I said they are done! Groggy remarked.

Greta replied: "And I said they would not still be on the roof if they were done."

"Oh, look here comes someone else. Maybe it's the gutter guy from down the road in Rio. Flora fluttered down from up in the tree to join them for a few minutes.

Little One wisely changed the subject: "I hope the lawn watering will start soon. Hey. Can anyone explain Father Tony's sermon for me?"

Greta was quick to follow him into a different conversation: "What part did you not understand, Little One? "

"I think it was from the Gospel of Matthew. I have listened to that before; but why did the man pay all the workers the same amount of money?"

"Is that the only part you remember?" Groggy asked. "Do you remember what Father Tony said? I think I can repeat it. 'God's grace is not measured by our standards; nor can it be controlled by us.' Think about that for a while!"

"The parable is about all of us and God's grace." Greta was repeating another part of Father's Tony sermon. "I think of it this way Little One: God's love is given to all of us. Some people believe in God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit at a young age. God loves them, and gives his love freely and for a long time.

There are others that did not know God or believe in His saving grace – our Lord and Savior; until they are very old. But God has loved them their entire life; every day, every year. I think that is the meaning of this parable. The wages the land owner was giving out he gave to all the laborers in an equal amount.

The workers that worked all day were jealous of the amount of money the late comers were given. Because they had worked hard all day and others had not. The 'per hour wage' was very different for the laborers hired early and the laborers hired at the end of the day. They were measuring by our standards."

Groggy added his thoughts: "Translate that to God's love instead of wages. God loves us all the time. When we acknowledge Him and serve Him all our life we are glad for His love all of our life; and when someone only loves God for a little while... he or she has been loved by God their whole life anyway! God's measurements!"

GARDEN HAPPENINGS!

Draco added another phrase from Father Tony's sermon: "It is not about comfort or status or gaining possessions. If we are living truly for Christ our lives are measured by our faithfulness. "

For a few minutes our friends were quiet. Then Little One said: "I think I'm going to pray more often and really listen for God to talk to me."

Draco replied: I'm going to do the same – but Little One, we then need to follow what God tells us. They also say reading your Bible every day helps one to hear God. I'm not sure how, and I don't have God's word – namely The Bible up here; but we can listen carefully on Sundays and Wednesdays, and any time there is a special service.

Whew, that made me think!!! I can read the Bible every day; I guess I better start to do that again.

Join me!

MEN'S FELLOWSHIP

Our next meeting is Monday October 5, at 6 p.m. in Houg Hall. All men of the parish are invited.

I will be returning to Florida in late September and am looking forward to our lively discussions. If you remember from the spring we are discussing the Beatitudes.

TRUE FUND

TRUE stands for "Toward the Relief of Urgent Emergencies" and provides a gift of up to $200 to anyone in need, both parishioners and the general public.

There is a process to review requests and funds are distributed by check to third parties only, no cash is distributed. Typical requests are for assistance with electric bills or car repairs, but not limited to these.

The funds for the TRUE Fund come from donations, primarily from parishioners. The TRUE Fund is not a part of the church's general budget process.

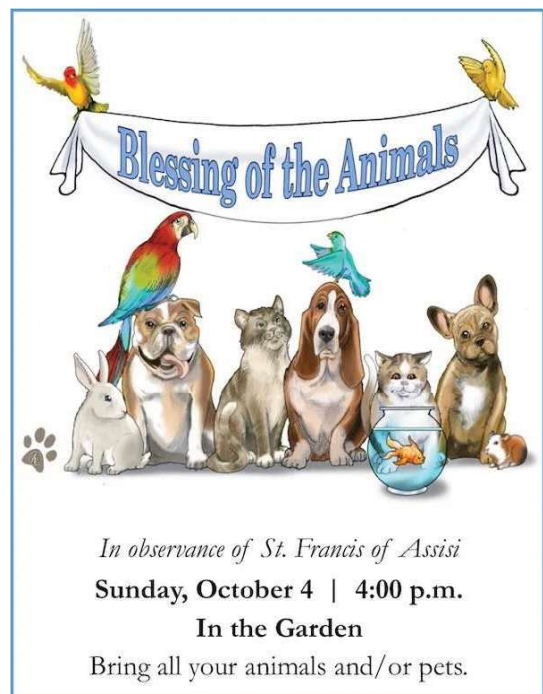

If you would like to support this effort it should be in addition to your regular pledge to the church.

The Fund will become active in October when I get back from New Jersey and more info will follow as I become acclimated to this new roll.

If you have any questions please feel free to contact me or Father Tony.
