A MESSAGE FROM THE RECTOR

My Dear Friends:

September is usually the month when the church returns from their summer break. Organizations, events, and activities resume after the hiatus.

As a partially seasonal faith community, we look forward to the return of our members from the north who will soon be arriving for the winter months. It is always a joy to have them back with us. I personally miss them when they are not here, and I am sure you, our Church family, do as well. So, I always look forward to this time of the year as there is a resurgence of energy in our church's life, work, ministry, and fellowship.

During the summer, one of the things that rested in my mind was the list of proposals our leadership team discussed few years ago as we moved forward in having a more vibrant ministry and relationship among our Church family and community.

Divided under the five Purposes of the Church - Worship, Ministry (Service), Outreach, Fellowship, and Discipleship (Formation), some of these goals have been accomplished including the redesigning of our website and church management system; new members orientation classes about what we believe; our church including our local, diocesan, national and worldwide; introducing time and talent sheets to discover the gifts and talents of our members and to integrate more members into our church's ministry. However, more needs to be done including fellowship events like Movie Night, Book Club, and Beer and Burger Night; further marketing of our church campus; outreach to self-help and community groups, and a photography ministry, to name a few.

I would like to see us return to tackling and fulfilling these aims. It will require commitment from us all is seeing them realized, but I believe with God's help they are achievable.

I look forward to sharing the services, events, activities, ministries, and formation exercises, with all of you during the fall.

May God continue to bless our church as it bears fruit in this part of God's kingdom.

With love and every blessing!

Father Tony

ASSISTING DEACON'S REPORT

As your Assisting Deacon, I have decided to write an updated report on my activities in my new capacity. Father Tony and I have worked out an updated report to help you understand my new role.

I don't plan to attend 8 o'clock service, but rarely. I do intend to participate in the 10 o'clock service as I prefer music in the service I attend, and I will be present as much as possible at the Wednesday healing services, which I have done ad infinitum.

I am also overseeing having Communion taken to those unable to attend regularly or who are ill. I do want to continue this ministry as so many members value this, just as we value them.

I have started back with Kairos and will be on the team for their October weekend. There are 10 weeks of training which is held at the New Hope Church on Citrus Road very close to Church of Advent Episcopal Church. I have reconnected to Kairos as it has so much meaning for me and I am valued by them as a clergy volunteer.

The weekend is a costly program, but we do have Agape money for this. We also have people sign a prayer list to support our ministry as well. I will provide these for all who wish to pray for us.

All volunteers are asked to provide $300 to help the ministry, mostly for food but also other supplies. You can provide just a small contribution for a meal if you would like – as little as five to 10 dollars.

For those of you who are not familiar with Kairos, it is based on the Cursillo program developed in Spain by women who wanted to reinvigorate the faith of their reluctant spouses.

We have Kairos in our Diocese, and it is greatly recommended for all who would like to get closer to Jesus Christ in their lives. Ask me about upcoming weekends for Cursillo in our Diocese. You will have a great spiritual experience, as do those who attend Kairos.

Our objective with Kairos is to help incarcerated men learn about Christ and know that Christ loves them and can change their whole lives. We even have table mats prepared by children to give to the men. They love these mats and can take them back to their dormitories.

Please let me know how you can help our prison ministry.

Deacon Alan Gellert

ENDOWMENT

You're Welcome!

To all of you loyal All Saints' worshipers, I'm sure you have noticed a new "breeze" in the breezeway. That would be the two ceiling fans stirring the air as you socialize and enter the church. Your Endowment has financed the purchase and installation of the fans as well as contributed to the new electrical wiring in Houg Hall. We all suffer through the summers in Jensen Beach and this has been slightly alleviated by these improvements. Several people in the congregation also contributed to the repainting of the breezeway, making it more welcoming, many of whom are members of the Heritage Society. When we all work together, there is nothing we cannot do!

This is our purpose and our plan—to take our interest income from contributions to the Endowment and enrich our spiritual experience, whether it be making us more comfortable or ensuring our buildings are safer for us all. It seems our year starts in September as we make plans for the upcoming year. We lock in our dates for the events that bring us joy or strengthen our faith such as Musical Bingo, the Afternoon Tea, our Agape Dinner, and the Endowment Reception and Banquet, the last two hosted by your Endowment Board.

All Saints' Endowment is a lasting gift to the Church made by members who have named All Saints' in their estate planning, gave a lump sum or gifted the Endowment in three increments. All of the contributions are invested with UBS and have done very well these past years, allowing us to enrich our religious experience. We look forward to another year as we hopefully fund the replacing of the cross on top of the church so we can be seen far and wide as "the little church on the hill," hopefully attracting more people to our fellowship and spiritual journey. Come join us in the Heritage Society.

DAUGHTERS OF THE KING

“Seek the Kingdom of God above all else, and live righteously, and he will give you everything you need.”

Matthew 6:33

How quickly the seasons change. September starts the cooler weather (we hope without hurricanes). The Daughters of the King welcome everyone back from their summer breaks. We have kept you in our prayers for safe travels, good health, and days full of love and grace.

We share in the love of God and believe that it is His love and compassion that will guide and protect us.

Prayers, Service and Evangelism is the oath a woman takes when she becomes a “Daughter of the King”.

We are prayers warriors praying daily for the members of our families who have special needs but also praying for our church family that we can prosper and continue to spread the word of Jesus. Prayer is food for your soul. It brings you closer to God and the Holy Spirit. If you don't pray daily already, give it a try!

“Therefore I tell you, whatever you ask in prayer, believe that you have received it, and it will be yours.” Mark 11:24

As you know the Daughters of the King have a Card Ministry. It is a joyful way to remember our parish families during special occasions. We hope the cards make you smile. If you did not receive a card please update your information with Jenny or Joan in our Church Office.

We also participate in collection items for the needy. If you or your family have a specific need other than prayer, please let me know (dorothybree@mac.com)

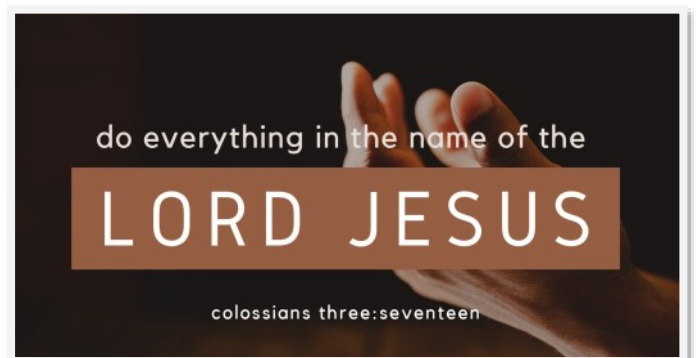

“And whatever you do, whether in word or deed, do it in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through him.” Colossians 3:17

Our Chapter is always looking for new members. Marilyn Mawhinney is our educator. There is a short study guide that needs completion. The study can be completed at your leisure. We meet the first Tuesday of the month from October to May at 1:00 p.m. in Coffey Hall for prayer, reflection, and fellowship.

“The Jesus in me Loves the Jesus in you.”

For His sake,

Dorothy Bree, President
The Order of the Daughters of the King

SUNDAY SCHOOL

This Photo

Our first day of Sunday School, known as “Rally Day” will be September 7, the Sunday after Labor Day.

I’m looking forward to our new Sunday school year and hoping everyone will be able to attend! That means even our middle school children and acolytes! Why? Because after the 10 o’clock service, we will be having our annual Ice Cream Social in Houg Hall!

We all love ice cream topped with whipped cream, chocolate sauce, sprinkles, and nuts - with a cherry on top! Plus, we want to thank everyone for always supporting our Sunday school program! 8 o’clocker’s, after your service, you can go out for a quick breakfast and then return to Houg Hall for dessert!

As always, for Sunday school, the children will begin in church and then walk out with the Sunday school cross. Then, the children will return in time to receive communion with their families. Our K-5 Sunday school program will continue to reinforce each week’s Gospel lesson by exploring it through the Bible and through activities, stories, music, and projects.

By the way, our middle school children sometimes like to help out in the Sunday school classroom, which is always appreciated. We will also be learning how we all can “Live like Jesus, loving God and all people.”

Our middle school and high school children have an opportunity to become an acolyte. An acolyte is an assistant to Father Tony during the 10 a.m. service. Dr. Chris Jones leads this ministry. Both he and Father Tony train the acolytes. Participation is on a rotating schedule.

Both acolytes and Sunday school age children work together on our church and community outreach projects. Their first Church outreach project was completed last weekend.

The Gorman and Johnson boys worked very hard to clean the Church sign down at the bottom of the hill. It was filled with baked on dead bugs and mildew! What a huge task. But the boys tackled it and did a great job! Be sure to check out the photos on the next page.

Thanks so much guys!

Our nursery is open during the 10 a.m. service and provides developmentally appropriate “toy” fun, music and story time for children under the age of five. Unfortunately for us, our wonderful nursery teacher, Lexie Laverty, has left us for her freshman year at the University of Florida! Go Gators!

So we will be on a volunteer rotation schedule for a teacher until we can find a replacement. If anyone is interested in this worthy ministry, please see Karen Neff.

Spread the word to your family and friends about our wonderful All Saints’ Church and Sunday school program!

Karen Neff

Children’s Christian Education Director

Andrew does last minute touches on the sign.

Joe Gorman and Andrew Johnson had to use a lot of elbow grease to clean the sign.

Graham Johnson and Andrew Gorman worked as a team to get the sun-baked bugs and grime off the sign.

All Saints' hard working Sign- Cleaning Crew.

Owen Johnson washed all the bug covered letters!

Just how many dirty letters are there?

Chocolate donuts for all crew members! Owen had two!

PEERING INTO THE PAST

Do you know where this piece of marble is in the church building? You probably would if you are a member of the Altar Guild. I've known where it was since I was a kid, but only recently did I ask Fr. Tony what it is called.

This piece of marble is called a mensa. According to "An Episcopal Dictionary of the Church: A User-Friendly Reference for Episcopalians" (Armentrout and Slocum, Editors), a mensa is a flat stone inlay that makes up part of the altar top. The mensa, which is normally constructed from marble, usually lies in the middle of the altar under all the linens and fabrics that cover the altar.

I am guessing that the mensa in our altar has been there since the beginning of All Saints'.

The term mensa is from the Latin word for "table." When the church building was constructed in the 19th century, the altar was placed against the east wall with the stained glass windows. The priest stood facing the east wall while backing the congregation to celebrate the Eucharist. The Elements (the Bread and Wine) were consecrated on the mensa.

However, with the change in liturgical practices like the altar being removed from the wall, and the priest celebrates the Eucharist facing the congregation, the Elements are no longer consecrated exactly on the mensa.

Notice the five crosses? They represent the five wounds of Christ when he was pierced on the cross. Usually, there are four crosses on the corners and one in the center on the top of an altar. (Have a look at the Conklin Altar on our campus).

The Altar in All Saints' Church building with the mensa (the white part on top of the altar). The crucifix, which hangs above the altar, rests over the mensa during "The Watch" on Maundy Thursday night. The Watch was preceded by the Holy Eucharist, Foot Washing and the Stripping of the Altar.

Inset: The mensa, with the five crosses, in our Church's altar.

ALL SAINTS' CEMETERY

Today, we are going to talk about pricing of cemetery plots and crypts. Over the last 6 years (2018 – 2024) plot prices surged by an average of 65%. Compared this to the Consumer Price Index (CPI), which increased 25% over the same time period.

During the COVID-19 pandemic, demand for graves increased significantly. With a limited supply, prices rose accordingly.

Early on, general inflation was relatively low, yet cemetery property and grave prices experienced a sharp surge.

Cemetery property prices continued to increase rapidly in subsequent years, far outpacing inflation. This trend is still happening today.

Although cemetery property is not the same as traditional real estate, it is also a long-term, high value asset. Just like traditional real estate, grave plots are finite resources with location-based premium. They often appreciate in value over time due to scarcity and demand.

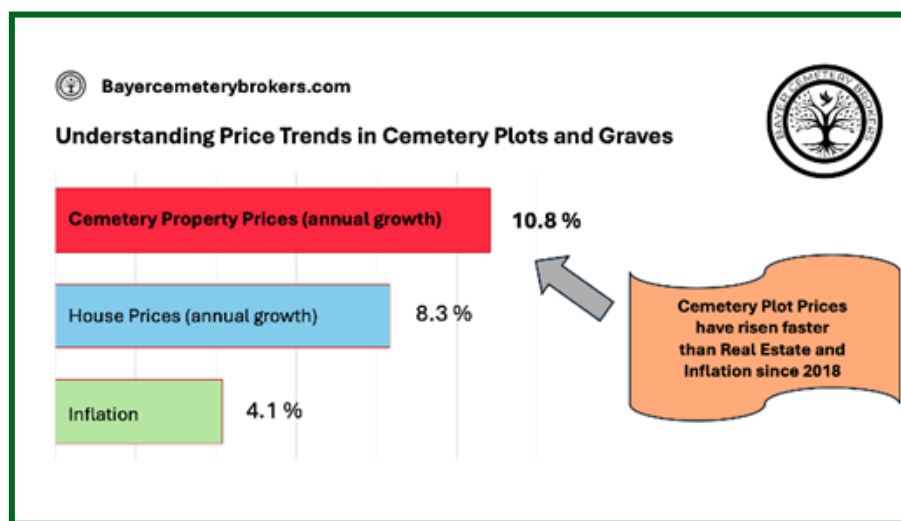

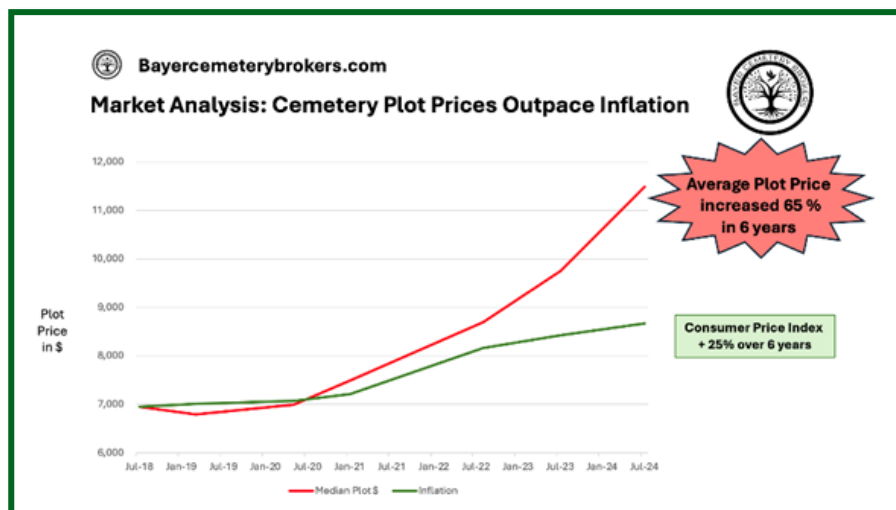

Analyzing cemetery plot price trends in both markets reveals similarities such as supply limitations and demand-driven price fluctuations.

While housing prices have leveled off in the last few years due to higher mortgage interest rates, there has been no leveling off of plot prices.

The continued rapid growth in plot prices, even as housing markets leveled off, underscores their unique market dynamics and sustained demand.

Several factors have contributed to the sharp rise in cemetery property and grave prices:

1. Pandemic-Driven Demand: The COVID-19 pandemic resulted in a tragic loss of life, which led to a high demand for grave plots.
2. Aging Population: As the population ages, the demand for burial plots increases, contributing to higher prices.

3. Limited Availability: Urban areas nationwide face a shortage of space for new cemeteries or expansion. This raises land values and heightens competition for available plots.
4. Rising Cemetery Costs: Cemeteries face higher expenses for land acquisition, maintenance, and staffing. They had to pass these on in the form of higher prices to purchase new plots and endowment care.
5. Regulatory Changes: New regulations around cemetery management, land use, or environmental standards can raise operational costs, leading to price increases.
6. Economic Resilience: Cemetery property has shown stability even during periods of broader market volatility.
7. Final Arrangements: The COVID-19 pandemic heightened awareness of end-of-life planning, which in turn prompted more advanced purchases. More people than ever recognize the importance of planning for final arrangements and the wisdom of purchasing a cemetery plot or crypt of their choice ahead of time.

We've worked hard at All Saints' Cemetery to keep our pricing lower than the for-profit cemeteries in our area, but we are facing the same pressures of increased labor costs, limited land availability and reduced number of suppliers. If you are thinking of needing a plot or crypt in the future, now is a great time to invest, as the pricing will only continue to rise.

Respectfully submitted,

Pam Hurd

Acting President, All Saints' Cemetery

FUNDRAISING

Next event is Music Bingo on Friday, October 24th from 4 - 6 p.m. Watch for ticket sales starting in September, only $15 for a fun filled 2 hours.

We will be doing the Christmas Card Tree again this year starting the First Sunday of Advent (November 30).

The idea is to put a card on the tree at church for your friends at All Saints' and save the postage you would have used to send out cards.

A freewill donation to put a card on the tree is appreciated. It is a fundraiser after all.

MEN'S FELLOWSHIP

Our next meeting will be Monday, October 6th at 6 p.m. in Houg Hall. We need to pick dates for our 2026 events.

GARDEN HAPPENINGS!

“Good Morning Greta!” Flora called out as she slowed and then stopped her wings for a rest. “How is your day? You seem to be frowning and that is just not like you. You usually are so happy.”

“Oh, fiddle sticks and witches brew!” Greta replied. “I wanted to ask the Garden Whisperer for a new dress – it will be fall soon, and this summer blue is getting a bit faded.” Flora cocked her head to one side and looked at Greta.

But Greta just went right on lamenting. “Kevin spent a long time with the Whisperer the last time I recall seeing them – together. They were deep in conversation for a long time. Now, the Whisperer seems to have disappeared. I wonder if they went north for the summer.” “Ah, I wondered that myself. I was invited to meet with the Whisperer; but puff—they disappeared. I thought for a while I was just missing seeing them, but now I think they went north.

Remember how Kevin came over here and delivered a message?” Flora continued: “He was so shy then and I was so intent on looking at Kevin; I’m not real sure what was said.”

Little One piped up: “Stay strong, listen to learn, ask questions and smile all the time.” I know the words, and what they mean but I don’t really understand the message.”

“Excellent memory Little One!” Flora exclaimed. “Thanks!”

Groggy added: “Well, I’m glad to know someone else was puzzled. What else can I do but sit here, smile and listen? I seem to be stuck right here and I’m pretty tired of sitting so still.”

Draco fluttered his wings and chirped. “Well some of us take naps when we should be listening. He then turning his head toward the group he added: “Though, I’d prefer if we don’t cast blame today or any other day. Ah, Little One, please repeat the message – I stopped listening and missed the last part.”

“Stay strong, listen to learn, ask questions and smile all the time.” Kevin repeated the message from the Garden Whisperer as he joined the group.

“If someone is asking questions they are expecting a response. That means we would be talking with each other -- having a discussion; and learning from each other. I believe that was the point. However, why do you think the Whisperer wants us to discuss things?

Draco spoke again: “Father Tony has recently had some very powerful sermons.”

Greta added: “They are all powerful – he is very good at interpreting God's words."

"True." Draco replied: "But were you listening? Or Learning?"

"Well, in one sermon he stated: It is not money that is the root of all evil, it is the love of money. He also talked about treasures of the here and now vs. treasures of heaven." *

"What does that mean?" Little One asked.

"I think he said it best, but I don't know if I remember his exact words. Let me try: He said: Our stuff can become all important to us and foster a greed --a greediness that becomes a stumbling block to seeking eternal life with God." I think he said those were Jesus' words.

Greta was quick in her response: "Good thing that is not us - we don't have any stuff!"

Groggy's groan made everyone stop and turn towards him. "Stuff or no stuff, abundant money or just enough doesn't matter to me, it is the kindness and love for each other that is important."

"True, true, true! And from now on I plan to listen to both sermons on Sundays the 8:00 a.m. and the 10:00 a.m." Kevin exclaimed... "Maybe then I will be able to remember everything."

"Well, good luck with that!" Jackson finally spoke up. "All I know is God is abundant Love; and I should be sharing it..."

The critters kept talking for a bit but all settled in for the evening after their discussion.

Kevin just kept smiling and hopped back to his corner of the garden; very happy to be home.
