Epiphany Chalk

SOME CHRISTIANS bless their homes on Epiphany each year. With chalk, they write an inscription on the inside lintel above the front door. The series of numbers, letters, and crosses changes only slightly from year to year. For example, at the start of the year 2018, the line read as follows: 20+C+M+B+18.

The four digits designating the New Year appear at the beginning and end of the line. In 2010, for example, the last number would have been 10. Because Epiphany comes so near the beginning of the New Year, the numbers represent an annual renewal of God's blessing.

The letters have two meanings. They are the initials of the traditional names of the Magi: Caspar, Melchior, and Balthasar. They also abbreviate the Latin words Christus mansionem benedicat, "May Christ bless the house." The letters recall the day on which the inscription is made, as well as the purpose of blessing.

The crosses represent Christ, whom we invoke, and the saintliness of the Magi. The inscription is made above the front door, so that all who enter and depart this year may enjoy God's blessing.

The month of January still bears the name of the Roman god Janus, the doorkeeper of heaven and patron of the beginning and end of things. This blessing adds a Christian dimension to the traditional observance of the first month. The inscription is made of chalk, a product of clay, which recalls the human nature taken by God's eternal Word in this holy season.

If you want to bless your home this Epiphany, read the opening verses of John's Gospel, pray the Lord's Prayer, then write the inscription for this year above your front door with chalk.

FELLOWSHIP SUNDAY - NEXT WEEK!

If you are interested in doing the blessing of your home for 2026, the words of the blessing and chalk (optional) can be found in a handy bag at the back of the church. Feel free to adapt this tradition to fit your needs.
