

Our Mission: Love God, Love People, Make Disciples

June, 2025 Rev. Steve Anderson, Pastor

Pastor's Message

Proverbs 23:24 "The father of the righteous will greatly rejoice; he who fathers a wise son will be glad in him."

As we enter into June we come to the time in which we celebrate our fathers. Not only do we celebrate our earthly fathers, but let us not forget to celebrate our Heavenly Father as well. In order to fulfill the role of an earthly father you will need the guidance, wisdom, and equipping of your Father above. As the verse from Proverbs says, if you want children that bring joy to your heart and make you glad then it must begin with you. If you want your children to love God then they must see you love God. The role that God has entrusted to a father is a role in which much is required because it is a gift from God that carries much responsibility. Men will be held accountable for the type of fathers they are because it is your most greatest ministry. The seed you plant into your children's lives today will play a big role in the kind of fruit that they bear in their future. Be wise and discerning in all things. Be loving in your words, loving towards your wife, faithful in your walk with God, and strong in your work ethic. All these will play a pivotal role in the type of people your sons and daughters will become in the future, and will be the legacy that you leave. A father on earth is to be the spiritual head that reflects the love of the Heavenly Father in his home and teach his children in the way that they should go. Let us pray over all fathers and honor and love God the Heavenly Father.

Yours in Christ,

Pastor Steve

What Is Evangelism? By Jessica Brodie

Evangelism, which is spreading the gospel, is important to Jesus. As the Bible tells us, Jesus came so that we may live. Jesus wants everyone to know this truth so they, too, can be part of God's holy kingdom.

Imagine you have the secret of life in your grasp, the answers to all life's questions — and the best news yet? You can spill that secret over and over, and it only gets bigger and better, not just for you but for everyone else, too. Good news: As Christians, we do have that "secret," only it's not a secret at all, but a truth meant to be shared.

The sharing of that truth — the good news of Jesus — is called evangelism.

What Does Evangelism Mean?

Evangelism means preaching, announcing, or otherwise communicating the gospel, our salvation. It's delivering the message that Jesus Christ is not only the Son of God but also gave His life as a sacrifice for our sins. In doing so, He ensured eternal life for anyone who believes.

As we are told in John 3:16, "For God so loved the world that He gave His one and only Son, that whoever believes in Him shall not perish but have eternal life." And again, as Jesus tells us in John 14:6, "I am the way and the truth and the life. No one comes to the Father except through me." Accepting that good news and then telling others about it, so they know too, is the definition of evangelism.

Evangelism comes from the Greek words euaggelion — a good message, or gospel — and euaggelizo — to announce, declare, bring, or preach this good news. Notice the word "angel" tucked inside the word — an angel is a messenger. Those who practice evangelism are indeed delivering a message: One of extraordinarily good news, life-giving and transformative, with eternal ramifications.

While the word "evangelism" isn't mentioned a lot throughout the Bible, its theme is woven throughout the New Testament. All four gospels — Matthew, Mark, Luke, and John — are rooted in evangelism, and scholars often refer to the writers as "the evangelists."

For Jesus had a message, one He came to earth to deliver, teach, die, and rise again for every single one of us. And we are tasked to deliver that message both by Jesus and every other apostle in no uncertain terms.

God Bless, Wildare Evangelism Team
