5. A vision of missions that naturally flows from the Bible

   A. Focusing on preaching the Word, not on missions itself.

   B. Focus on general Christian growth and well-rounded maturity.

   C. Focus on encouraging fruitfulness here in DC

Conclusion

Questions or comments? Email Riley Barnes (riley.barnes@capbap.org) or Caleb Morell (caleb.morell@capbap.org).

Core Seminars – Christian Living
Missions: CHBC's Vision for Missions
Week 13 – April 3, 2020

What is Capitol Hill Baptist Church's vision for engagement in global missions?

1. First, what is God's vision for missions?

   A. Global in proportion and eternal in its extent (Isaiah 49: 6)

   B. Accomplished through the church (Ephesians 3:10-11)

   C. For the glory and worship of God (Revelation 7:9-10)

2. To encourage workers on the field and to partner with them in a manner worthy of God.

   Philippians 4, 3 John

   A. Support fewer missionaries more fully

B. Support our workers spiritually, not just financially.

Acts 15:36

C. Concentrate our resources in a few regions.

D. Meaningful short-term trips that help people on the field.

3. To keep the local church central in our missionary engagement

A. Importance of having a clear view of healthy church life.

B. Every church member called to be involved in global evangelism.

C. Training people here at CHBC before they are sent out.

4. Support both indigenous and international churches that can serve as their own hubs for missions and ministry.

A. Supporting church planting and pastoral training done by like-minded, CHBC-trained pastors in other countries.

B. Planting and serving international, English-speaking churches in strategic locations overseas.