“Christ Our Hope In Life and Death”

Benediction

Silence for Reflection and Preparation: After the benediction, we will spend the next few moments silently reflecting on our time together this morning. When the piano resumes to mark the conclusion of the service, we invite all to stay around for conversation; refreshments are provided throughout the building.

Preacher: Troy Maragos

Service Leader: Chad Pritchard

1. What is our hope in life and death? Christ a-lone, Christ a-lone.
2. What truth can calm the troub-led soul? God is good, God is good.
3. Un-to the grave, what shall we sing? "Christ, he lives, Christ, he lives!"

What is our on-ly con-fi-dence? That our souls to him be-long.
Where is his grace and good-ness known? In our great Re-deem-er's blood.
And what re-ward will hea-ven bring? Ev-er-last-ing life with him.

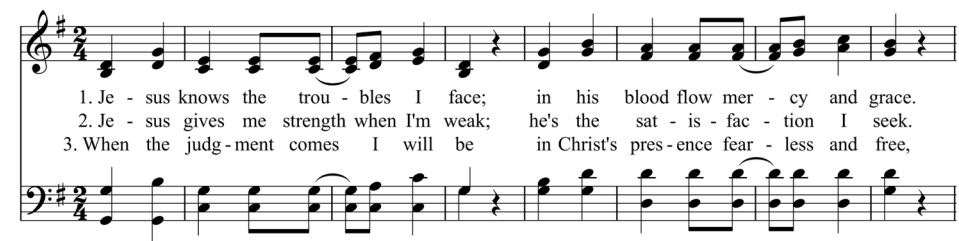

Who holds our days with-in his hand? What comes, a-part from his com-mand?
Who holds our faith when fears a-rise? Who stands a-bove the storm-y trial?
There we will rise to meet the Lord, Then sin and death will be de-stroyed,

And what will keep us to the end? The love of Christ, in which we stand.
Who sends the waves that bring us nigh Un-to the shore, the rock of Christ:
And we will feast in end-less joy, When Christ is ours for-ev-er-more.

Chorus
O sing hal-le-lu-jah! Our hope springs e-ter-nal; O sing hal-le-lu-jah!
Now and ev-er we con-fess Christ our hope in life and death.

1. Je - sus knows the trou - bles I face; in his blood flow mer - cy and grace.
2. Je - sus gives me strength when I'm weak; he's the sat - is - fac - tion I seek.
3. When the judg - ment comes I will be in Christ's pres - ence fear - less and free,

What he gives, I can - not re - pay, all my sin he wash - es a - way.
He's my shield when trou - bles draw near. He's my com - fort through ev - ry tear.
where the courts are ring - ing with praise, crowned with right - eous - ness all my days.

Here on Christ the rock I will stand, oth - er ground is sink - ing sand.

Yes, on Christ the rock I will stand, oth - er ground is sink - ing sand.

1. Pre - cious Lord, take my hand, Lead me on, help me stand,
 2. When my way grows drear, Pre - cious Lord, lin - ger near,
 3. When the dark - ness a - ppears And the night draws near,

I am tired, I am weak, I am worn;
 When my life is al - most gone;
 And the day is past and gone;

Through the storm, through the night, Lead me on to the light,
 Hear my cry, hear my call, Hold my hand lest I fall,
 At the ri - ver I stand, Guide my feet, hold my hand:

Take my hand, pre - cious Lord, lead me home.
 Take my hand, pre - cious Lord, lead me home.
 Take my hand, pre - cious Lord, lead me home.

 have is Christ. Hal - le - lu - jah! Je - sus is my life.

We believe in one God, the Father, Ruler of all, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible.

And we believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God, begotten from the Father before all time; Light from Light, true God from true God; begotten, not made; of the same essence as the Father, through Whom all things were made; Who for us and for our salvation came down from heaven and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary, and was made a man. He was crucified for us under Pontius Pilate, and suffered and was buried, and rose on the third day, according to the Scriptures. He ascended to heaven, and sits at the right hand of the Father. He shall come again with glory to judge the living and the dead; His kingdom shall have no end.

And we believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and giver of life, Who proceeds from the Father and the Son, Who is worshiped and glorified together with the Father and the Son, and Who spoke through the Prophets.

And we believe that there is one holy, universal, and apostolic church. We confess one baptism for the remission of sins, and we look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Explanation of the Nicene Creed (381 A.D.)

Belief in God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit is an essential part of biblical faith. Knowing God, and continually affirming this faith, is part of what it means to be a Christian.

In 381 A.D., in the city of Constantinople, a group of elders formed a council to write a statement reaffirming their faith in Father, Son and Spirit. This statement, commonly known as the Nicene Creed of 381 A.D., declares Biblical truths such as 1) Jesus is God; 2) Jesus died on the cross and rose from the dead; 3) the Holy Spirit is Lord as well; 4) there is one universal church; and 5) the dead will be resurrected. Later, this creed was amended to make clear that the Spirit proceeds from both the Father and the Son. The phrase, "We confess one baptism for the remission of sins," does not mean that baptism leads to forgiveness of sins but that the Christian gospel depicted by baptism is the only gospel that truly saves (see Eph 4:5). This creed was an appropriate response to false teaching of the past, and it remains a useful means to guard against false teaching that might occur in the future.

This morning, we confess our faith aloud through these words of the Nicene Creed because we believe Jesus Christ is God, our Savior, Lord and Creator, and we believe the Holy Spirit is our Lord and the giver of eternal life. At Capitol Hill Baptist Church, we know that what we believe about God matters, and so we join saints throughout the centuries who have confessed the same biblical truth.

Man of Sorrows, Lamb of God

1. Man of sor - rows, Lamb of God, by His own be - trayed;
 2. Si - lent as He stood ac - cused, beat - en, mocked and scorned;
 3. Sent of hea - ven God's own Son to pur - chase and re - deem,
 4. See the stone is rolled a - way, be - hold the em - pty tomb;

The sin of man and wrath of God have been on Je - sus laid.
 Bow - ing to the Fath - er's will, He took a crown of thorns.
 And rec - on - cile the sin - ful ones who nailed Him to that tree.
 Hal - le - lu - jah, God be praised: He's ri - sen from the grave!

Oh that rug - ged cross, my sal - va - tion, where Your love poured out o - ver me;

Now my soul cries out: "Hal - le - lu - jah! Praise and hon - or un - to Thee!"
