Final Hymn

Look, Ye Saints, The Sight is Glorious

1. Look, ye saints! The sight is glo-rious: see the man of sor-rows now;
 2. Crown the Sav-ior! An-gels crown him; rich the tro-phies Je-sus brings;
 3. Sin-ners in de-ri-sion scorn him, mock-ing thus the Sav-ior's claim;
 4. Hark, those bursts of acc-la-ma-tion! Hark, those loud tri-um-phant chords!

From the fight re-turned vic-tor-ious, ev-'ry knee to him shall bow;
 In the seat of pow'r en-throne him, While the vault of hea-ven rings;
 Saints and an-gels crowd a-round him, Own his ti-tle, praise his name;
 Je-sus takes the high-est sta-tion; O what joy the sight af-fords!

Crown him, crown him, crown him, crown him, crown him, crown him,
 Crown him, crown him, crown him, crown him, crown him, crown him,
 Crown him, crown him, crown him, crown him, crown him, crown him,
 Crown him, crown him, crown him, crown him, crown him, crown him,

Crowns be-come the Vic-tor's brow, crowns be-come the Vic-tor's brow.
 Crown the Sav-ior King of kings, crown the Sav-ior King of kings.
 Spread a-broad the Vic-tor's fame, spread a-broad the Vic-tor's fame.
 King of kings and Lord of lords! King of kings and Lord of lords!

The Nicene Creed of 381 A.D.

We believe in one God, the Father, Ruler of all, maker of heaven and earth, and of all things visible and invisible.

And we believe in one Lord Jesus Christ, the only-begotten Son of God, begotten from the Father before all time; Light from Light, true God from true God; begotten, not made; of the same essence as the Father, through Whom all things were made; Who for us and for our salvation came down from heaven and was incarnate by the Holy Spirit and the virgin Mary, and was made a man. He was crucified for us under Pontius Pilate, and suffered and was buried, and rose on the third day, according to the Scriptures. He ascended to heaven, and sits at the right hand of the Father. He shall come again with glory to judge the living and the dead; His kingdom shall have no end.

And we believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord and giver of life, Who proceeds from the Father and the Son, Who is worshiped and glorified together with the Father and the Son, and Who spoke through the Prophets.

And we believe that there is one holy, universal, and apostolic church. We confess one baptism for the remission of sins, and we look for the resurrection of the dead and the life of the world to come. Amen.

Explanation of the Nicene Creed (381 A.D.)

Belief in God the Father, God the Son and God the Holy Spirit is an essential part of biblical faith. Knowing God, and continually affirming this faith, is part of what it means to be a Christian.

In 381 A.D., in the city of Constantinople, a group of elders formed a council to write a statement reaffirming their faith in Father, Son and Spirit. This statement, commonly known as the Nicene Creed of 381 A.D., declares Biblical truths such as 1) Jesus is God; 2) Jesus died on the cross and rose from the dead; 3) the Holy Spirit is Lord as well; 4) there is one universal church; and 5) the dead will be resurrected. Later, this creed was amended to make clear that the Spirit proceeds from both the Father and the Son. The phrase, "We confess one baptism for the remission of sins," does not mean that baptism leads to forgiveness of sins but that the Christian gospel depicted by baptism is the only gospel that truly saves (see Eph 4:5). This creed was an appropriate response to false teaching of the past, and it remains a useful means to guard against false teaching that might occur in the future.

This morning, we confess our faith aloud through these words of the Nicene Creed because we believe Jesus Christ is God, our Savior, Lord and Creator, and we believe the Holy Spirit is our Lord and the giver of eternal life. At Capitol Hill Baptist Church, we know that what we believe about God matters, and so we join saints throughout the centuries who have confessed the same biblical truth.

Hymn

Where Shall I Be?

1. When judg - ment day is draw - ing nigh, Where shall I be?
 2. When wick - ed men His wrath shall see, Where shall I be?
 3. When heav'n and earth as some great scroll, Where shall I be?
 4. All trou - ble done, all con - flict past, Where shall I be?

When God the works of men shall try, Where shall I be?
 And to the rocks and moun-tains flee, Where shall I be?
 Shall from God's ho - ly pres-ence roll, Where shall I be?
 Our en - e - my o'er-come at last, Where shall I be?

When east and west the fire shall roll, Where shall I be?
 When hills and moun-tains flee a - way, Where shall I be?
 When all the saints re - deemed shall stand, Where shall I be?
 When Christ shall reign from shore to shore, Where shall I be?

How will it be with my poor soul; Where shall I be?
 When all the works of man de - cay, Where shall I be?
 For - ev - er blest at God's right hand, Where shall I be?
 And peace a - bide for - ev - er - more, Where shall I be?

Hymn

O where shall I be when the first trum - pet sounds,

O where shall I be when it sounds so loud?

When it sounds so loud as to wake up the dead?

O where shall I be when it sounds?

Explanatory note: This hymn reflects a sense of joyful expectation for the day when Christ returns to bring final deliverance for his people. Although the hymn writer phrases his longing as a question, the song does not convey doubt or dread. Rather, in asking, "Where shall I be?" the believer wonders with a sense of hope about how amazing it will be for God's people to witness God's final judgment and to enter his presence when the last day comes. As we sing this song, remember that Jesus urges his followers to be always wakeful and ready for his return (Matthew 25:1-13), and rejoice that there is no condemnation for all who are found "in Christ" on that final day (Romans 8:1).
