WEEK 4: THE FINAL COMMAND

JOHN 15:12-17

"My command is this: Love each other as I have loved you. Greater love has no one than this: to lay down one's life for one's friends." John 15:12-13 (See also: John 13:34-35)

"You are my friends if you do what I command. I no longer call you servants, because a servant does not know his master's business. Instead, I have called you friends, for everything that I learned from my Father I have made known to you." John 15:14-15

"You did not choose me, but I chose you and appointed you so that you might go and bear fruit—fruit that will last—and so that whatever you ask in my name the Father will give you. This is my command: Love each other." John 15:16-17

Three Ways I Can Love & Lift Up Others

Ask:

1. Who can _____?

2. Who can _____?

3. Who can _____?

QUESTIONS For personal reflection or group discussion

1. Please read John 15:12-13 and John 13:34-35. How has God shown His love to you? Who in your life needs for you to show God's love to them?

2. Please read John 15:14-15. It's overwhelming that Jesus would call us His friend! How does that truth impact you? How can having security in Jesus impact your relationships with others?

3. Please read John 15:16-17. Why do you think Jesus keeps coming back to the command to love each other? Who in your life are you struggling to show love to? Who in your life can you lift up and show love to today?
