

Frequently Asked Questions

Will childcare be provided?

There is no childcare provided for this event.

Can I bring my daughter and/or granddaughter? Is there an age requirement?

All women 16 years of age and older are welcome to attend this event, but they must be registered.

Should I RSVP for my guests or should they register themselves?

Either way is acceptable! If you register someone else, you will need their email address.

Will I be able to sit at the same table as the people I invite?

As long as you've completed the registration form identifying who you've invited, we will seat you together.

Will there be gluten free options at the tea?

There will be a few gluten free options at the tea.

What is the cancellation policy?

Attendees are requested to cancel at least 48 hours in advance to allow other interested ladies to attend the tea. If you must cancel at the last minute, please let us know as soon as you know! In either case, we will cancel your ticket and release it to another guest on the waiting list. Call or text Julie Pittenturf at 248-891-6795.

The tea is full! What should I do?

If the tea is full, we will create a wait list. Please call the church office at 248-373-1381 to be added to the list.

Do I need a ticket?

You do not need a printed ticket, however, you must register online or by calling the church office to attend.
