

IMPACT GROUP QUESTIONS

KEY PASSAGE: MATTHEW 6:10, PSALM 25:1-10

Opening: What truths impacted you most from the sermon/passage? Trust in the Lord and watch Him work; Open yourself to His guidance and teaching; Humbly count on His steadfast love and amazing mercy.

INFORM THE HEAD / STIR THE HEART

1. For the following, how would you respond if you're praying for and acting upon God's will? How would you respond if you're seeking the world's will and ways?

a. Conflict in a close relationship

b. Praying for and talking about issues in our country

c. Emotions and feelings

d. Suffering

2. From Psalm 25:1-10, please list the requests made TO God in verses 2, 4, 5, 6, and 7.

3. In verses 3, 5, 6, 7, 8, 9, and 10, what statements are made ABOUT God? How might each of those truths impact your heart as you approach God?

4. What obstacles make it hard to submit to His will, or to pray for His will to be done?

5. What are 5 ways from the message that God reveals His will in order to lead us?

6. As you consider the churchwide challenge to walk through The Lord's Prayer in the morning and in the evening, what benefits do you look forward to experiencing?

7. Let's take some time privately right now to pray using the guideline of the Lord's Prayer. Have a leader call out each step in the prayer as listed below, and spend a minute or so on each step with your God. Allow the truths of the passage you just went through to give you a fresh approach with Him.
