Frosty Passage:

The Ice-Cold Choice: 1 Samuel 8

The Story So Far:

In 1 Samuel 8, Samuel had grown older and appointed his two sons to be judges over Israel. Sadly, they did not honor the Lord. Instead, they used their position to gain money and help themselves. The leaders of Israel were unhappy with Samuel's sons, so they asked Samuel to appoint a king to rule over them. God told Samuel to listen to the people, but He also explained that by asking for a king, they were rejecting Him as their true King. God's people already had the perfect King ruling over them, but they wanted to be like the other nations around them. God told Samuel to warn the people about the problems a king would bring, but they refused to listen. Their hearts had grown cold toward God, and they continued to demand a king.

Instead of trusting God, the people chose what they wanted. Even though God would allow them to have a king, He wanted them to remember that He was their Forever King. Just like Israel, we sometimes want things our way instead of God's way. When our hearts become frozen by selfishness, we can forget to trust Him. God has chosen us to be part of His kingdom, and He wants us to follow Him and remember He is our True King.
