~~~ Questions for Reflection ~~~

How have you experienced God's faithfulness and mercy in your life, even in seasons of difficulty or waiting?

Reflect on specific moments when God's presence brought you comfort or His promises gave you hope.

What steps can you take to align your life more fully with "the way of peace"?

Consider areas where you need to trust God more deeply, reconcile with others, or take steps to build a spirit of forgiveness and unity.

How can you be a light to others who are sitting in darkness or the shadow of death?

Think about practical ways to share God's peace and hope with someone in your life who is struggling.

MINISTRIES

To be the hands and feet of Jesus

Stewpot Serving Week December 9-13, 11 a.m. - 1 p.m. (or any portion). Please contact Carol (601-316-3465). Thank you for being the hands and feet of Jesus. Last opportunity for 2024.

Jaquith Nursing Home/Whitfield Annual Christmas Party

December 16, 1:30pm Join us to sing carols, enjoy light refreshments and spread holiday cheer for about 20 residents. Please contact Lula Bell Lockett (769-233-9606) or Linda Easterling (601) 259-4340 if you would like to attend/donate party refreshments

Congregational Christmas Party Wednesday, December 18, 6-7:30 PM Dinner will be provided. Desserts to share are welcome if you have the time to bake. A fun time of visiting, kids' crafts, and a fast-paced game are all on the menu. Kids, teens, and the young-at-heart bring a wrapped gift (not to exceed $10) for the game if you wish to participate. There will be a sign-up sheet on the table in the gym, or you can sign up online that was sent out Monday.

This year for advent, I am sharing short stories of hope, peace, joy, and love from different foster parents across Mississippi. If you find yourself interested in hearing our stories and walking alongside us in prayer, consider joining the group: <https://www.remind.com/join/amfcs>
