Dendy Collier Hyatt

Bob Jackson, Claudia Nisbett's brother

Latasha Crump Coleman, Lula Bell Luckett's godchild

While you are in prayer ask God specifically how we can be a church family and for the following:

1. to help us be solely focused on our purpose, security and identity in Jesus Christ
2. to help us grow closer as a church family
3. to be wise with all resources
4. to be patient with each other
5. to be grateful for our past, steadfast in the present, and optimistic about our future

MINISTRIES

To be the hands and feet of Jesus

The Sunday morning adult class in February is discussing our next steps including where we will meet starting in June. The elders will use the feedback from these sessions to decide next steps. We are checking out options but no decision has been made at this time. Our priority is to seek God's guidance for us as a church family. The class will be held in the auditorium beginning at 9:30AM. All children's Sunday morning Bible classes will be meeting together in the teen room in February.

Stewpot this week: Meadowbrook is scheduled to serve lunch in the Stewpot Community Kitchen on February 5-8 (Monday- Thursday). Please contact Carol Rietvelt (601)316-3465 to be put on the schedule.

The Wednesday Night Fellowships will resume this Wednesday, February 7, with a Fellowship Meal (chicken enchiladas) in the Reception Room at 6:00PM. After dinner, the children will go upstairs for a short Bible class.

Edgy Worship - Some try to lure people with bands, hip worship, edgy programs, and new technology. Preaching the gospel is where the power is (Roman 1:16). Honoring Jesus and pleasing the Father are what church is about (John 4:24; Colossians 1:18). People can find entertainment elsewhere. What the church offers cannot be found anywhere else. Personal study is essential, preaching is essential (2 Timothy 2:15; 4:2)

Preaching nourishes the soul (Acts 20:32). One churchgoer wrote an editor: "I've gone to church for 30 years, I have heard something like 3,000 sermons. For the life of me, I can't remember a single one. I'm wasting my time and preachers are wasting theirs."

Controversy followed until this letter ended it: "I've been married for 30 years. My wife has cooked 32,000 meals. For the life of me, I cannot recall the menu of a single one. I know this: Those gave me the strength needed for my work. If she had not cooked, I would be physically dead. Likewise, if I had not gone to church, I would be spiritually dead."
