Praying for -

Steve Nelson

Peggy Patrick

Latasha Crump Coleman, Lula Bell Luckett's godchild

While you are in prayer ask God specifically how we can be a church family and for the following:

1. to help us be solely focused on our purpose, security and identity in Jesus Christ
2. to help us grow closer as a church family
3. to be wise with all resources
4. to be patient with each other
5. to be grateful for our past, steadfast in the present, and optimistic about our future

Questions for Reflection

1. How easy is it to focus on building our own kingdom instead of participating in building the kingdom of God?
1. How is God's response seen as loving?
1. How did the fear of the LORD encourage the people to rebuild the temple? What does that say about the church?

How can we know if God is pleased with our worship?

True worship isn't showy.

- * It does not call attention to or glorify the worshiper; it honors only God.
- * It is not a mindless formality, either.
- * It is an affair of the heart, characterized by the conviction of the Holy Spirit (John 14:16),
- * fervent prayer (James 5:16) and
- * openhearted reading of God's Word (2 Timothy 3:16-17).

God shows he is pleased with such worship by being present with us.
