Questions for Reflection

1. In Revelation 2:9, Jesus acknowledges the material poverty of the Smyrnans but also mentions their spiritual wealth. What does this contrast teach us about the true nature of wealth and poverty in a Christian's life?
2. How can we apply the understanding of being "rich in spirit" to our own lives, especially when we face material or physical challenges?
3. What does the promise "He who overcomes will not be hurt by the second death" (Revelation 2:11) mean? How does this eternal perspective influence the way we live our daily lives?

MINISTRIES

To be the hands and feet of Jesus

Christmas in July - Meadowbrook will once again be gathering food donations to help fill the Stewpot pantry. Non perishable food items are requested. A list of suggested items -

- Baked beans ●Corn meal ●Ravioli ●Hamburger Helper
- Ramen noodles ●Dry cereal ●Chili ●Crackers ●Peanut butter ●Jelly
- Boxed pasta dinners ●Hearty soups (any flavor) ●Lima beans ●Sugar Canned chicken ●Blackeyed peas

Boxes have been placed at the back of the auditorium for your donations from July 7 through July 28.

Thank you for being the hands and feet of Jesus .

Another Opportunity to Help

Stewpot's Clothing Closet has a need for men's clothing - not suits or sports jackets, but gently used and clean casual slacks, shirts, underwear, socks, etc. There will also be a box for these at the back of the auditorium, If you prefer, you may give them to Carol Rietvelt to take to Stewpot.

Thank You Meadowbrook Family

We send a very warm thank you to our church family for the many kind words, deeds, and prayers that have been offered for us. We see Jesus in you.

Love, Quinton and Ann Dickerson
