Psalm 27:7-9 - <sup>7</sup>Hear my voice when I call, O LORD; be merciful to me and answer me. <sup>8</sup>My heart says of you, "Seek his face!" Your face, LORD, I will seek.
<sup>9</sup>Do not hide your face from me, do not turn your servant away in anger; you have been my helper. Do not reject me or forsake me, O God my Savior.

~~~ Questions for Reflection ~~~

1. What does it mean to be lukewarm in our faith? How can we recognize lukewarmness in our own spiritual lives?
2. Why do you think lukewarmness is so displeasing to Jesus? What are the dangers of being spiritually lukewarm?
3. The Laodiceans believed they were rich and needed nothing, but Jesus said they were "wretched, pitiful, poor, blind and naked" (Revelation 3:17). How can material wealth or self-sufficiency lead to spiritual complacency?
4. In what ways might we be deceiving ourselves about our spiritual condition, thinking we are "rich" when we are actually poor? How can we guard against this deception?
