Also, for the family of former member Jim Claunch who passed away Monday, February 3. His funeral was Friday at Parkway Funeral Home.

~~~ Questions for Reflection ~~~

1. In what ways are you actively seeking to know God's will in your daily life? How can you grow in knowledge, wisdom, and understanding through prayer, Scripture, and community?
2. What does "walking worthy of the Lord" look like in your current season of life? Are there any areas where you feel challenged or need to realign your walk with Christ?
3. How does knowing that Jesus has redeemed you and transferred you into His Kingdom change the way you live? What is one step you can take this week to walk in that truth?

MINISTRIES

To be the hands and feet of Jesus

Stewpot Serving this week, February 10-14, 11:00-1:00 (or any portion of that time). Please contact Carol Rietvelt at 601-316-3465 if you can help at all.

Art & Soil Community Garden 601 Robinhood Rd. Jackson

Mar. 8, Apr. 12, May 10, 9am - 12 noon

Wear work clothes and come prepared to paint, build, and garden. The garden was started by Hope Exchange (Levi Gill) as a way to teach sustainable organic gardening skills. Anyone who is interested can look up Art + Soil Community Garden, Jackson MS to learn more about it.

Let Jennifer know if you plan to participate. All ages are welcome.

Disaster Relief Update: We donated a total of $920 to disaster relief recently. Half went to Pepperdine University's fire recovery effort for affected faculty, staff, and students. Half went to Boone, NC, Church of Christ.
