~~~ Questions for Reflection ~~~

1. In what ways have you personally struggled with fully recognizing Christ's supremacy in your life? What areas do you need to surrender more fully to His authority?
2. If Christ is the Head of the Church and our source of life, how can you intentionally "go to the source" in your daily walk with Him? What spiritual discipline could you strengthen this week?
3. Paul emphasizes that Christ reconciled us to Himself despite our hostility. How does understanding this truth deepen your gratitude for salvation, and how can you extend that same grace to others in your life?

MINISTRIES

To be the hands and feet of Jesus

CONNECTIONS will not meet today.

“Town Hall Meeting” next Sunday, February 23, immediately following the morning worship service. The Elders will update us on our options and are looking forward to your comments. Please make plans to attend.

The Optimistic Frog

Two frogs fell into a deep cream bowl;
One was an optimistic soul, But the other took the gloomy view:
“We shall drown,” he cried, without more ado.
So with a last despairing cry,
He flung up his legs, and he said, “Goodbye.”
Quoth the other frog with a merry grin,
“I can’t get out, but I won’t give in.
I’ll just swim ‘round till my strength is spent.
Then will I die the more content.”

Bravely he swam till it would seem
His struggles began to churn the cream;
On the top of the butter at last he stopped,
And out of the bowl he gaily hopped.

What of the moral? ‘Tis easily found;
If you can’t hop out, keep swimming ‘round.

“With men it is impossible, but not with God; for with God all things are possible.” Mark 10:27
