Our sincerest sympathy to former members Mike & Becky Harris. Their daughter, Adana, passed away last Sunday morning with a rare autoimmune disease. She had been in the hospital since January.

~~~ Questions for Reflection ~~~

- Jesus used birds and flowers as examples of God's provision. Why do you think it's harder for us, as humans, to trust that God will take care of our needs?
- How does the moth story illustrate why struggles are necessary in our faith journey?
- In seasons of uncertainty, we often focus on what we lack rather than on God's faithfulness. How can we shift our mindset to seek His Kingdom first?
- What are some practical ways we can remind ourselves daily to trust God instead of worrying about the future?

MINISTRIES

To be the hands and feet of Jesus

Art & Soil Community Garden - 601 Robinhood Rd. Jackson Saturday, March 8, from 9am - 12 noon. All ages are welcome. Let Jennifer know if you plan to participate.

Thank You from Boone Church of Christ

Dear Meadowbrook Church family,

Thank you so much for the kind donation for our hurricane relief. We have been working to meet needs from the beginning. So many needs met from generators, grocery gift cards, diapers, new coats to over 700 people. Now long term repair and recovery are underway. We could not do this without people like you and the encouragement from so many we may never meet. Please see our website for all the ways we have served & updates as rebuilding continues. God bless!

Burdens or Blessings?

The Mississippi River Delta is the second most fertile place on planet Earth (second only to the Nile Basin). How did it come to be so fertile and valuable to those who own it? Its fertility results from flood waters overrunning their banks, at the inconvenience and danger of those who live there.

When troubles flood our souls, it may well be that those experiences can turn out to make our lives richer, deeper, and more productive. Our burdens can become our blessings (Psalm 55:22).

“I will give you rest.”

Matthew 11:28
