~~~ Questions for Reflection ~~~

1. What are some personal "cares" or burdens that you find difficult to cast upon God? What do you think holds you back from fully surrendering them to Him?
2. How can we recognize and resist the lies that Satan tells us when we are going through difficult times? Search out a specific Scripture or truth that has helped you.
3. In what ways can we actively remind ourselves of God's perfect timing and His promises to restore, strengthen, and establish us, especially when we are facing challenges or suffering?

MINISTRIES

To be the hands and feet of Jesus

What is So Great about Following Jesus?

Following Jesus puts us in association with the best people in the world. In God's church, we are His house or family (I Timothy 3:15). The relationship with each other is that of brothers and sisters (Galatians 3:26-27).

My brothers and sisters understand what we go through as a Christians. They are pulling with us and for us. Who would not enjoy a family like that! Our fellowship is with saved people, the children of light (Ephesians 5:8).

Though none is perfect, so many of my brethren set a wonderful example to imitate (I Timothy 4:12). You cannot put a price tag on that type of positive influence. So many saints of God do great works and labors of love (Hebrews 6:10). They are ready to sacrifice for His cause, like Aquila and Priscilla did (Romans 16:3-5).

How wonderful it is to have sisters and brothers who really care, desiring that all make it to heaven. We are blessed to have special brothers who serve as our shepherds and watch over our souls (Hebrews 13:17). You just cannot top the delightful association and comradeship that Christians have in serving God together.

God answers in 3 ways - -

He says Yes and gives you what you want.

He says No and gives you something better.

He says Wait and gives you the best.
