~~~ Questions for Reflection ~~~

1. In what areas of your life do you struggle with fear or discouragement? How does this verse encourage you to trust in God's presence and strength?
2. God promises to strengthen, help, and uphold us. What does it mean to you to rely on God's strength rather than your own? Can you think of a time when you experienced His support in a difficult situation?
3. This verse emphasizes God's unwavering presence and help. How can this promise shape the way you approach challenges, uncertainties, or moments of weakness in your daily life?

My Cup Has Overflowed

I've never made a fortune, and it's probably too late now.
But I don't worry about that much; I'm happy any how.

And as I go along life's way, I'm reaping better than I sowed.
I'm drinking from my saucer, 'cause my cup has overflowed.

Haven't got a lot of riches, and sometimes the going's tough - -
But I've got loving ones all around me; that makes me rich enough.

I thank God for His blessings, and the mercies He's bestowed.
I'm drinking from my saucer, 'cause my cup has overflowed.

I remember times when things went wrong;
My faith wore somewhat thin.
But all at once the dark clouds broke,
and the sun pepped through again.

So Lord, help me not to gripe about the tough rows I've hoed.
I'm drinking from my saucer, 'cause my cup has overflowed.

If God gives me strength and courage
when the way grows steep and rough,
I'll not ask for other blessings; I'm already blessed enough.

And may I never be too busy to help others bear their loads.
Them I'll keep drinking from my saucer,
'cause my cup has overflowed.
