Heavenly Father,

We come before You today with hearts full of gratitude and anticipation, as we embark on this sacred journey of establishing a new church. You are the foundation upon which we build, the cornerstone of all that we do.

Lord, we thank You for the vision, the calling, and the opportunity to create a place where Your name is glorified, Your word is proclaimed, and Your love is shared with all who enter. Bless this church as it begins its mission to be a reflection of Your grace and truth in this community.

We ask for wisdom, Lord, to guide us in every decision and every step we take. Grant us unity in purpose and spirit, that we may stand together as one body, working for Your kingdom. May this church be a haven for the weary, a beacon of hope for the lost, and a source of joy for all who seek You.

Let it be a house of worship where Your Spirit dwells, and where lives are renewed in Your presence. Lead us, teach us, and mold us into who You have called us to be.

May everything we do be for Your glory and in accordance with Your will.

In Jesus' name, we pray,
Amen.

MINISTRIES

To be the hands and feet of Jesus

Can you help? - Cindy Skipworth needs a ride to her doctor in Byram on Monday, June 2, at 1:45 and to the drug store to pick up her medicine.. Please contact Cindy if you can help.

Meadowbrook's own - On Wednesday, June 11th at noon, Ken P'Pool will be on a panel discussion on "Activities in the Aftermath: MDAH and the Legacy of Katrina" as part of the Mississippi Department of Archives & History's "History Is Lunch" series. The panel will be talking about MDAH's role to preserve historic sites and recover following Hurricane Katrina in 2005, along with personal experiences in the wake of the disaster. The free program will take place in the Craig H. Neilsen Auditorium of the Two Mississippi Museums and will also stream live on the MDAH Facebook page and YouTube channel. For more information, call 601-576-6850 or email info@mdah.ms.gov.

A heartfelt thank you to Dwayne Blaylock for working tirelessly and dedicating immense effort to ensure our new space was brought to near completion in just five weeks.

Also, to Rob Whitley for his planning, and patience in the physical relocation of Meadowbrook to Flowood.
