“Living Faith”
James 2: 14-26
Pastor Clay Smith

1. How do you distinguish between a genuine, "3D faith" that is alive and active, and a "flat," theoretical faith that "falters" and is essentially dead?
2. How does the cost of Christ's love for you (seen in the cross) motivate you to put the faith that rescued you into action in smaller, everyday acts of sacrificial love for others?
3. Thinking about your daily life, what are practical, observable "works" (actions or behaviors) that serve as evidence or a "show" of the faith you hold in your heart?
4. What is one area in your current life where the Lord may be calling you to an act of faith that involves a significant personal cost (e.g., of comfort, reputation, or time)?
