“Do You Have the Time?”

Luke 12: 49-59, 13: 1-9

Taylor Bruce

1. Where in your life are you most tempted to “handle it yourself” before fully surrendering to Jesus?
2. What does it mean to you personally that Jesus’s goal isn’t just to rescue you from hell but to restore your full humanity? Does that change your relationship with him?
3. Do you find the same impulse in your own heart to do the same thing as the speaker in 13:1-5: using the suffering of others as proof that you’re in better standing with God? What does Jesus’s response tell us about how we should think about both our own sin and the sin of others?
4. What would it look like for you to concretely “bear fruit” in your neighborhood, workplace, or family this week?
5. Is there someone in your own life you’ve been keeping at arm’s length because of their sin or lifestyle? What would it look like to see them through Jesus’s eyes?
6. Is there a specific area of your life where you've been trying to follow Jesus on your own terms — keeping one foot in? What would it look like to give Jesus your whole-hearted allegiance in that area this week?
