"The Greatest Love"
Romans 8: 31-39
Pastor Clay Smith

1. When we feel alone: Where in your life are you currently feeling overwhelmed, oppressed, or alone? How does knowing that God is not simply cheering you on, but actively fighting for you through Christ, change the way you face that situation?

2. When we feel guilty: The sermon described how we sometimes go "fishing" for sins that God has already forgiven. Sometimes our own and other times others. Where are you tempted to do this? What would it look like to live more fully in the freedom of God's forgiveness?

3. When life feels like it's falling apart: What circumstances in your life have caused you to question God's love or goodness? How does Paul's assurance that nothing can separate us from the love of Christ help you interpret those circumstances differently?

4. Keeping our eye on Jesus: The closing illustration contrasted focusing on the rubble of the storm with seeing Jesus still standing in the aftermath of the storm. What "rubble" is capturing your attention right now? What practical steps can you take this week to focus more on Christ and His unchanging love than on your difficult circumstances?
