Construction Team Updates Some exciting updates from this weeks construction team meeting!

- We are diligently preparing the outside of the building for the project. Pardon our dust!
- Foundation work should begin next week, April 2. Please be mindful to look for parking updates.
- We will send steeple points with any adjustments that need to be done in leu of construction equipment. Remember to remain clear of the job site for safety during the construction process.

Spring break is over and now it is crunch time leading up to final exams for many of our college students. Our JWCC Ag Center students are finishing up their spring semester this week! Please keep all of our students in your prayers and give them some encouragement if you see them around town.

Let's meet at the Annex on Monday, 4/7, at 6:30 pm to pack care packages for our college students. Please bring an item for packing. We have 19 students who will receive a box.

Thank you for supporting our college students! Alicia 630-251-2757

Pew Cushion Update We have received samples and quotes from several companies on the pew cushions. The sample that Pastor Michael shared last Sunday will be in the sanctuary again next weekend. The price is a little better than what we anticipated. The lead time in making them is 6-9 months as they are custom made. An individual will be coming on site to make physical templates. We appreciate the anonymous donor and the trustees for working with memorials to address this.

Iron Sharpens Iron Conference

On March 15, six men and two youth from FCC attended the Iron Sharpens Iron men's conference in Springfield. The all-day conference featured time for worship and prayer, a keynote from Bryndan Lorritts (a pastor from Pontiac, Michigan) on trusting God through the storms of life, and a concluding keynote from Delano Squires (a research fellow at The Heritage Foundation) on the need for Biblical manhood in our world today.

We also attended numerous breakout sessions on topics from outdoor youth ministry to being a faithful Christian grandparent. We enjoyed time for fellowship over lunch and dinner. We're considering how we might apply some of the ideas we got at the conference. One thought is to structure a youth ministry that utilizes the numerous outdoor resources we have available in Pike County, along with the skills and experiences of many of the men of our church.

Thanks to Caleb Dixon for driving the church van! We'll discuss ideas from the conference at our next regular CMF lunch meeting in May.

Call to order at 6:00 p.m. by Moderator Kathy Hull. Pastor Michael Ten Eyck led the meeting in a devotion and prayer. Minutes from the February 11, 2025, meeting were approved by general consensus.

Pastor's Report: Minister's report was attached and discussed. Many hospital visits. Spent time giving support to Pikeland administrators and first responders in the wake of a tragic car accident that impacted the community. Continue working with the building team and the contractor, Mike Black.

Treasurer: Eleanor Jenkins submitted a report and Rebecca Rhodes presented information from the report as of February 28, 2025: The total transfer to the building fund in February was $29,331.42. YTD Budgeted Receipts: $84,544 with difference of + $15,405.75. YTD Disbursements $74,847.00, YTD Budgeted $95,675, Difference $20,828. Net Non-Budget Receipts/ Disbursements $22,240.14. David Bishop moved to approve the Treasurer's Report and Steve Tharp seconded. It passed unanimously.

Trustees: Report was attached and Justin Poor discussed the decision to accept the quote from GuideOne for the church insurance. The report was approved by consensus

Christian Education: Niki Dixon discussed the attached report. There were many challenges in February due to a traffic accident in the community involving PHS students. In addition to the attached report, Niki brought a proposal for a Mission Trip to Still Waters Ranch on June 1-6. Approximately 10 high school students plus chaperones would like to attend. David Bishop made a motion and it was seconded by Roger Brokaw that the church would pay $347 per student (Still Waters Ranch balance, a portion of the fuel cost and admittance to the ARK Encounter). Parents would pay a $100 deposit and be responsible for the student's personal expenses.

Building Team: The building team presented bids for windows and doors/hardware. Alicia Tate made a motion, seconded by Bob Clark that both of these bids be accepted. Motion carried.

Since the last board meeting, board members were asked to vote on four other bids that needed attention in a timely matter. All four recommendations were approved by an email reply. Those bids were for electric, plumbing, heating/cooling, concrete. Also, there will be an additional $6,500 cost for mechanical drawings which is now required by the City of Pittsfield.

Michael showed an example from one company of pew cushions. Additional bids will be coming soon. Jim Dain will be in the pulpit March 30.

New Business:

Dear Church Family,

It's been a blustery few weeks. Day after day, the wind has howled through the trees around my house, shaking loose what seemed like every dead stick and brittle limb. I would head outside, spend an afternoon gathering them from the yard, and finally step back with a sigh of satisfaction at a job well done. But inevitably, the next morning, I would wake up to a fresh batch of fallen sticks—new debris scattered across the grass. The wind had done it again, shaking loose more dead wood that I hadn't even realized was still hanging on.

At first, it was frustrating. After all, I had just cleaned everything up! But after a while, I began to see something deeper in this cycle. The wind, as annoying as it was, wasn't causing the mess—it was revealing it. The sticks were already dead. They were just clinging to the branches, hidden and unnoticed, until the wind exposed them.

It reminded me of Hebrews 9:14 (ESV), which says, "how much more will the blood of Christ, who through the eternal Spirit offered himself without blemish to God, purify our conscience from dead works to serve the living God." Just like the dead limbs in the trees, we all have "dead works" that linger—old habits, pride, selfish motives, or empty routines. And while we may clean up the obvious ones from time to time, there are still more clinging to our hearts, unnoticed and unaddressed.

God, in His grace, often uses the winds of life—trials, disruptions, or even just unexpected challenges—to shake loose what doesn't belong. It's uncomfortable, even irritating, but it's a necessary part of growth. If we're not careful, we might become complacent when we see a bit of progress. We might say, "Look at how far I've come," and settle into comfort. But God loves us too much to leave us there.

Just like those stubborn dead limbs, He knows what still needs to fall away. And He uses the winds to help us see it.

So let us not grow weary or frustrated when the gusts return. Let us not resist the process of pruning and purifying. Instead, let us be thankful for the God who continues to cleanse us, not just once, but continually, so we can fully serve the living God with a renewed heart and a life full of purpose.

Even in the wind, He is working. Let it blow. Let the wind do its work!

Loving you all,
Michael
