

Celebrate the Advent Season with

Sunday Mornings, Worship during Advent November 30 – December 21 | 10:30 AM

During the season of Advent, we prepare our hearts and minds for the coming of Christ. Together, we'll explore what the prophet Isaiah teaches us about waiting, focusing on his words of promise and hope. To enrich your Advent journey, the Discipleship Team has prepared a daily devotional. Beginning December 1, you'll receive a daily email from Harvest with scripture and a prayer to guide your reflections through the season.

Children's Christmas Pageant December 21 | Following Worship

Join us after worship as our children share the joy, wonder, and hope of the Christmas story through heartfelt performances. Following the pageant, we invite everyone to stay for cookies and hot cocoa. Bring your family, invite your friends, and come ready to be inspired by the joy and wonder of the season. All are welcome!

Blue Christmas Worship, A Sacred Space for Hope & Healing December 21 | 6:00 PM

As we celebrate the birth of Christ, we also recognize that this season can be difficult for those experiencing loss, change, or hardship. Our Blue Christmas service offers a sacred space for hope and healing—a time to honor your feelings, find comfort in community, and rest in the tender presence of God's love. Even if you're not feeling "blue," you're invited to pause amid the holiday rush for a moment of quiet reflection, honest lament, and renewed hope in God's enduring light.

Celebrate the Christmas Season with

Christmas Eve Worship

December 24 | 5:00 & 7:00 PM

Come celebrate the wonder of Christ's birth at our Candlelight Christmas Eve Worship services.

- 5 PM Family Celebration – A joyful, child-friendly service for all ages, filled with favorite carols, candlelight, and special moments just for children.
- 7 PM Traditional Worship – A beautiful service with choir and orchestra as we lift our hearts in praise and awe at the coming of the Savior.

Experience the light of Christ shining brightly in our worship and in our world this Christmas Eve.

Christmas through Scripture & Music

December 28 | 10:30 AM

Join us for a special worship experience as we retell the Christmas story through scripture and music. Scripture readings will be beautifully woven together with songs that bring the story to life and invite reflection. This meaningful service offers a time to pause, listen, and be renewed by the message of hope and joy found in the birth of Christ.

Christmas through the Eyes of the Magi

January 4 | 10:30 AM

As the excitement of the holiday season fades, we may feel weary—but the story of the Magi reminds us that the journey of faith continues. The wise men followed the star to find Christ, the Light of the World, and their hearts were overwhelmed with joy. They offered their gifts—gold, frankincense, and myrrh—not out of obligation, but out of gratitude and awe. This story invites us to open our hearts, to follow the light of Christ into a new year—renewed in faith, hope, and purpose, and ready to share His light with others.
