Confession of Sin..... People

From The Valley of Vision: a Collection of Puritan Prayers and Devotions

I have no merit, let the merit of Jesus stand for me.
I am undeserving, but I look to your tender mercy.
I am full of infirmities, wants, sin; you are full of grace.
I confess my sin, my frequent sin, my willful sin.
Help me in all my doings to put down sin and to humble pride.

Our Father in heaven, hallowed be your name.
Your kingdom come, your will be done, on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread.
And forgive us our debts, as we also have forgiven our debtors.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For yours is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever.
Amen.

Prayers of Commitment

Prayer for Those Seeking God:

God, I long to know you in a personal relationship. I desire faith to trust that you are real and that you are found by all who seek you. Please honor my longings by having your Spirit work in me to draw me to you.

Prayer for Those Receiving Christ:

Father, I have offended you by my words, actions, and thoughts. There is nothing I can do to reconcile myself to you. I believe the words of Jesus Christ that no one can come to you except through him. I now accept the crucified and risen Christ as the only acceptable payment that could ever be made for my sin. I desire to follow and obey him.

Stanzas 1-3

Lord’s Supper

Words of Institution Luke 22:14-20

And when the hour came, he reclined at table, and the apostles with him. And he said to them, “I have earnestly desired to eat this Passover with you before I suffer. For I tell you I will not eat it until it is fulfilled in the kingdom of God.” And he took a cup, and when he had given thanks he said, “Take this, and divide it among yourselves. For I tell you that from now on I will not drink of the fruit of the vine until the kingdom of God comes.” And he took bread, and when he had given thanks, he broke it and gave it to them, saying, “This is my body, which is given for you. Do this in remembrance of me.” And likewise the cup after they had eaten, saying, “This cup that is poured out for you is the new covenant in my blood.”

Today's Baptisms & New Members

Today we baptize Kayleigh Jane & Amelia Grace, daughters of Matthew & Stephanie Garnjost. We also recognize Matt & Stephanie as new members of Faith – received through an interview with our elders and completion of our membership class, Faith Connected. Through their vows they profess faith in Christ and commit to his mission through the church.

Questions to the parents:

- 1. Do you acknowledge your children's need of the cleansing blood of Jesus Christ, and the renewing grace of the Holy Spirit?*
- 2. Do you claim God's covenant promises in their behalf, and do you look in faith to the Lord Jesus Christ for their salvation, as you do for your own?*
- 3. Do you now unreservedly dedicate your children to God, and promise, in humble reliance upon divine grace, that you will endeavor to set before them a godly example, that you will pray with and for them, that you will teach them the doctrines of our holy religion, and that you will strive, by all the means of God's appointment, to bring them up in the nurture and admonition of the Lord?*

Question to the Congregation:

Do you as a congregation undertake the responsibility of assisting the parents in the Christian nurture of these children?

Spiritual Benefits of Baptism:

- This sacrament is one of the means by which Christ conveys to us the benefits of redemption.
 - Our union as believers with Christ (our “ingrafting into Him”)
 - The washing away of our sins by his blood
 - The new spiritual life created in us by God's Spirit
 - Our admission into the visible church
 - Our professed commitment to live openly and wholly for Christ
- We remember our own baptism. We feed upon the grace of Christ portrayed and guaranteed to us and grow stronger in our faith.
- We baptize those who come to faith in Christ who have never been baptized, and those infants born into homes where at least one parent is a believer. For the infant, the picture and guarantee are in the form of an offer or promise. When the child believes, she claims the promise that God has made and sealed in her baptism.

Shout for joy to the LORD, all the earth.

Worship the LORD with gladness; come before him with joyful songs.

Know that the LORD is God.

It is he who made us, and we are his; we are his people, the sheep of his pasture.

Enter his gates with thanksgiving and his courts with praise;

give thanks to him and praise his name.

For the LORD is good and his love endures forever;

his faithfulness continues through all generations.
